H 1125. CLARIFY SCHOOL ADMISSIONS PROCEDURES. TO CLARIFY THE PROCEDURE FOR ENROLLING CHILDREN IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Rewrites GS 115C-366(a) to provide that the parent, legal custodian, or custodial adult whose domicile in a local school administrative unit is the basis for the child's attendance shall be the person to enroll the child in school. Rewrites GS 115C-366(a3), regarding the right of certain children who are not domiciled in a local school administrative unit to attend school in that unit without payment of tuition, to provide that the adult with whom the student resides shall have the same legal authority, responsibility, and criminal and civil liability regarding the student as a parent or legal custodian would have. Rewrites GS 115C-111, regarding children with special needs, to provide that a child with special needs may not, because the student has special needs, be prevented from attending public schools of the local educational agency in which the student or the student's parents or legal guardian is domiciled (was, resides). Effective July 1, 2001, and applies beginning with the 2001-2002 school year.
