

April 5, 2001

S 991. PRIVACY PROTECTIONS STUDY. TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES OF PERSONAL PRIVACY PROTECTIONS. Authorizes the study of privacy protection with respect to (a) nonpublic personal financial information; (b) personal consumer information; (c) personal information collected on students by or through schools and their contractors; (d) Internet use and the use of electronic messages; (e) children online; (f) medical records and personal health information; and (g) personal insurance information. Allows Comm'n to report to either the 2002 or 2003 legislative session. Effective July 1, 2001.

Intro. by Rand.

Ref. to Rules	STUDY
---------------	-------