H 855. REQUIRED REGISTRATION FOR KEGS. TO REQUIRE A SPECIAL PURCHASE-TRANSPORTATION PERMIT FOR KEGS CONTAINING ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES. Amends GS 18B-403 to require a permit for the purchase and transportation of draft beer in kegs. Provides for the affixing of labels to kegs containing: (1) the name and address of the purchaser, (2) the purchase-transportation permit number, and (3) the address of the location where the keg is to be consumed. Requires that the label remain affixed to the keg and that a store employee who receives a keg returned without its label notify the NC Alcohol Law Enforcement Div'n or local law enforcement.

Imposes $5 fee for keg permit. Expands purchase-transportation permit-disqualifiers to include conviction of any offense involving a violation of GS 18B-302. Permits local ABC board to request a certified copy of a criminal history check to ensure compliance and makes cost of check responsibility of applicant. Permits county sheriff to issue purchase-transportation permit if no local ABC system exists.

Makes violation of the keg permit requirement a Class 1 misdemeanor and requires revocation of a violator's driver's license pursuant to GS 20-17.3. Provides for a minimum mandatory $1,000 fine and a 3-year license revocation upon a subsequent conviction. Effective December 1, 2005.
