S 606. AMEND EASTERN REGION BOARD. Intro. 3/16/05. House committee substitute makes the following changes to 3rd edition. Revises bill's amendments to GS 158-35 concerning the membership of the governing board of the Region, so that the board is to be composed of (1) one member appointed by the board of commissioners of each county, after the commissioners have consulted with the county's business community, and (2) two members each appointed by the Speaker, President Pro Tem., and Governor. Of this group of six, no two may be residents of the same county, none may be chair or vice chair, and all serve initial two-year terms. The Governor, Speaker, and President Pro Tem. are to consult to assist in achieving geographic diversity in these six. Of the members appointed by the commissioners of the counties, three (chosen by lot) are to serve initial two-year terms and the remainder are to serve four-year terms. Terms of existing members of the Global TransPark Development Commission are to terminate September 30, 2005, and the terms of the new board members begin October 1.
