Amends GS 135-4(g) to provide that members of the armed forces who return to work as teachers or state employees within two years after being discharged are to be credited with prior service for their time in the military for the maximum period they are entitled to reemployment under federal law. Also provides that the employee's salary during that period of service is the salary the employee would have received had they remained continuously employed, if the determination of that salary is reasonably certain (was, salaries are based on salaries paid to employees immediately before entering the armed forces). Provides for the calculation of the employee's salary when the determination is not reasonably certain. Effective July 1, 2007.
