S 930. PRIVATE CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS. Filed 3/19/07. TO REVISE THE LAW GRANTING AUTHORITY TO PRIVATE CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS EMPLOYED PURSUANT TO A CONTRACT WITH THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF PRISONS. Amends GS 148-37.3, which regulates the use of private correctional officers who are employed in a private prison operated in North Carolina under contract with the federal prison system, to eliminate all requirements that the Department of Correction (DOC) regulate the private contractor's practices, including approving employment policies for the private contractor and certifying that the contractor's training program complies with state standards. In place of those requirements, the bill authorizes the state Department of Justice to adopt rules to ensure that the contractor's employment practices and training program are equivalent to the DOC's. Effective July 1, 2007.
