Comm. Sub. [NO]
Amends Title [YES]
Third Edition

Date 6-51, 2010

Senator Stein

1 moves to amend the bill on page 1, line 1 through the end of the bill 2 by deleting those lines and inserting the following:

3 " A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
4 AN ACT TO BAN THE USE OF ELECTRONIC MACHINES AND DEVICES FOR 5 SWEEPSTAKES PURPOSES.

6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

7 Whereas, the 1791 General Assembly determined that "all public gaming-tables are 8 destructive of the morality of the inhabitants of this State, and tend greatly to the 9 encouragement of vice and dissipation" (Law of 1791, Chapter 5); and 10 Whereas, the State of North Carolina has continuously prohibited public gaming in 11 North Carolina since 1791; and

12 Whereas, the State of North Carolina specifically prohibited the use of slot 13 machines in 1937; and

14 Whereas, the State of North Carolina specifically prohibited the use of video poker 15 machines in 2000 and again in 2006; and

16 Whereas, the State of North Carolina has previously determined that such purpose 17 should be carried out to prevent the operation of bingo by professionals for profit, prevent 18 commercialized gambling, prevent the disguise of bingo and other game forms or promotional 19 schemes, and prevent participation by criminal and other undesirable elements; and

20 Whereas, any federally recognized Indian tribe may conduct such video poker 21 games in accordance with an approved Class III Tribal-State Gaming Compact applicable to 22 that tribe as provided in G.S. 147-12(14) and G.S. 71A-8; and

23 Whereas, the State of North Carolina has previously determined that no video poker 24 machine may be utilized for play under Chapter 18C of the General Statutes; and

25 Whereas, since 2006, companies have developed electronic machines and devices to 26 gamble through pretextual sweepstakes relationships with Internet service, telephone cards, and 27 office supplies, among other products; and

28 Whereas, companies using electronic machines and devices for sweepstakes have 29 sought, and received, declaratory relief from the courts; and

30 Whereas, such electronic sweepstakes systems utilizing video poker machines and 31 other similar simulated game play create the same encouragement of vice and dissipation as 32 other forms of gambling, in particular video poker, by encouraging repeated play, even when 33 allegedly used as a marketing technique; and

1 "Whereas, it hath appeared to this General Assembly that the before recited acts 2 hath not that good effect which was intended" (Laws of 1799, Chapter 12); Now, therefore,
3 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

4 SECTION 1. Article 37 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by 5 adding a new section to read:

6 "§ 14-306.4. Electronic machines and devices for sweepstakes prohibited.

7 (a) Definitions. – For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

8 (1) "Electronic machine or device" means a mechanically, electrically or 9 electronically operated machine or device, that is owned, leased or otherwise 10 possessed by a sweepstakes sponsor or promoter, or any of the sweepstakes 11 sponsor's or promoter's partners, affiliates, subsidiaries or contractors, that is 12 intended to be used by a sweepstakes entrant, that uses energy, and that is 13 capable of displaying information on a screen or other mechanism. This 14 section is applicable to an electronic machine or device whether or not:

15 a. It is server-based.

16 b. It uses a simulated game terminal as a representation of the prizes 17 associated with the results of the sweepstakes entries.

18 c. It utilizes software such that the simulated game influences or 19 determines the winning or value of the prize.

20 d. It selects prizes from a predetermined finite pool of entries.

21 e. It utilizes a mechanism that reveals the content of a predetermined 22 sweepstakes entry.

23 f. It predetermines the prize results and stores those results for delivery 24 at the time the sweepstakes entry results are revealed.

25 g. It utilizes software to create a game result.

26 h. It requires deposit of any money, coin, or token, or the use of any 27 credit card, debit card, prepaid card, or any other method of payment 28 to activate the electronic machine or device.

29 i. It requires direct payment into the electronic machine or device, or 30 remote activation of the electronic machine or device.

31 j. It requires purchase of a related product.

32 k. The related product, if any, has legitimate value.

33 l. It reveals the prize incrementally, even though it may not influence if 34 a prize is awarded or the value of any prize awarded.

35 m. It determines and associates the prize with an entry or entries at the 36 time the sweepstakes is entered.

37 n. It is a slot machine or other form of electrical, mechanical, or 38 computer game.

39 (2) "Enter" or "entry" means the act or process by which a person becomes 40 eligible to receive any prize offered in a sweepstakes.

41 (3) "Entertaining display" means visual information, capable of being seen by a 42 sweepstakes entrant, that takes the form of actual game play, or simulated 43 game play, such as, by way of illustration and not exclusion:

9 of different pictures, words, numbers, or symbols not dependent on 10 the skill or dexterity of the player.
11 i. Any other video game not dependent on skill or dexterity that is 12 played while revealing a prize as the result of an entry into a 13 sweepstakes.
14 (4) "Prize" means any gift, award, gratuity, good, service, credit, or anything 15 else of value, which may be transferred to a person, whether possession of 16 the prize is actually transferred, or placed on an account or other record as 17 evidence of the intent to transfer the prize.
18 (5) "Sweepstakes" means any game, advertising scheme or plan, or other 19 promotion, which, with or without payment of any consideration, a person 20 may enter to win or become eligible to receive any prize, the determination 21 of which is based upon chance.
22 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Part, it shall be unlawful for any person 23 to operate, or place into operation, an electronic machine or device to do either of the 24 following:
25 (1) Conduct a sweepstakes through the use of an entertaining display, including 26 the entry process or the reveal of a prize.
27 (2) Promote a sweepstakes that is conducted through the use of an entertaining 28 display, including the entry process or the reveal of a prize.
29 (c) It is the intent of this section to prohibit any mechanism that seeks to avoid 30 application of this section through the use of any subterfuge or pretense whatsoever.
31 (d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to make illegal any activity which is 32 lawfully conducted on Indian lands pursuant to, and in accordance with, an approved 33 Tribal-State Gaming Compact applicable to that Tribe as provided in G.S. 147-12(14) and 34 G.S. 71A-8.
35 (e) Each violation of this section shall be considered a separate offense.
36 (f) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for the first 37 offense and is guilty of a Class H felony for a second offense and a Class G felony for a third or 38 subsequent offense."

39 SECTION 2. G.S. 14-298 reads as rewritten:

40 "§ 14-298. Seizure of illegal gaming items.

41 Upon a determination that probable cause exists to believe that any gaming table prohibited
42 to be used by G.S. 14-289 through G.S. 14-300, any illegal punchboard or illegal slot machine, 43 ~~or~~ any video game machine prohibited to be used by G.S. 14-306 or G.S. 14-306.1A, ~~or~~ any

1 game terminal described in G.S. 14-306.3(b)G.S. 14-306.3(b), or any electronic machine or 2 device using an entertaining display in violation of G.S. 14-306.4 is in the illegal possession or 3 use of any person within the limits of their jurisdiction, all sheriffs and law enforcement
4 officers are authorized to seize the items in accordance with applicable State law. Any law 5 enforcement agency in possession of that item shall retain the item pending a disposition order
6 from a district or superior court judge. Upon application by the law enforcement agency, 7 district attorney, or owner, and after notice and opportunity to be heard by all parties, if the 8 court determines that the item is unlawful to possess, it shall enter an order releasing the item to 9 the law enforcement agency for destruction or for training purposes. If the court determines that 10 the item is not unlawful to possess and will not be used in violation of the law, the item shall be 11 ordered released to its owner upon satisfactory proof of ownership. The foregoing procedures 12 for release shall not apply, however, with respect to an item seized for use as evidence in any 13 criminal action or proceeding until after entry of final judgment."

14 SECTION 3. G.S. 14-306(a) reads as rewritten:

15 "(a) Any machine, apparatus or device is a slot machine or device within the provisions 16 of G.S. 14-296 through 14-309, if it is one that is adapted, or may be readily converted into one 17 that is adapted, for use in such a way that, as a result of the insertion payment of any piece of 18 money or coin or token other object, or any credit card, debit card, prepaid card, or any other 19 method that requires payment to activate play, whether directly into the slot machine or device 20 or resulting in remote activation, such machine or device is caused to operate or may be 21 operated in such manner that the user may receive or become entitled to receive any piece of 22 money, credit, allowance or thing of value, or any check, slug, token or memorandum, whether 23 of value or otherwise, or which may be exchanged for any money, credit, allowance or any 24 thing of value, or which may be given in trade, or the user may secure additional chances or 25 rights to use such machine, apparatus or device; or any other machine or device designed and 26 manufactured primarily for use in connection with gambling and which machine or device is 27 classified by the United States as requiring a federal gaming device tax stamp under applicable
28 provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. This definition is intended to embrace all slot 29 machines and similar devices except slot machines in which is kept any article to be purchased 30 by depositing any coin or thing of value, and for which may be had any article of merchandise 31 which makes the same return or returns of equal value each and every time it is operated, or 32 any machine wherein may be seen any pictures or heard any music by depositing therein any 33 coin or thing of value, or any slot weighing machine or any machine for making stencils by the 34 use of contrivances operated by depositing in the machine any coin or thing of value, or any 35 lock operated by slot wherein money or thing of value is to be deposited, where such slot 36 machines make the same return or returns of equal value each and every time the same is 37 operated and does not at any time it is operated offer the user or operator any additional money, 38 credit, allowance, or thing of value, or check, slug, token or memorandum, whether of value or 39 otherwise, which may be exchanged for money, credit, allowance or thing of value or which 40 may be given in trade or by which the user may secure additional chances or rights to use such 41 machine, apparatus, or device, or in the playing of which the operator does not have a chance to 42 make varying scores or tallies."
