51 SECTION 6. G.S. 50B-2(a) reads as rewritten:

1 "§ 50B-2. Institution of civil action; motion for emergency relief; temporary orders;
2 temporary custody.

3 (a) Any person residing in this State may seek relief under this Chapter by filing a civil 4 action or by filing a motion in any existing action filed under Chapter 50 of the General
5 Statutes alleging acts of domestic violence against himself or herself or a minor child who 6 resides with or is in the custody of such person. Any aggrieved party entitled to relief under this 7 Chapter may file a civil action and proceed pro se, without the assistance of legal counsel. The 8 district court division of the General Court of Justice shall have original jurisdiction over 9 actions instituted under this Chapter. Any action for a domestic violence protective order 10 requires that a separate summons be issued and served. The summons issued pursuant to this 11 Chapter shall require the defendant to answer within 10 days of the date of service.
12 Attachments to the summons shall include the complaint, notice of hearing, any temporary or 13 ex parte order that has been issued, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement
14 agency where the defendant is to be served. No court costs shall be assessed for the filing, 15 issuance, registration, or service of a protective order or petition for a protective order or 16 witness subpoena in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act, 42 U.S.C. § 17 3796gg-5."

18 SECTION 7. The Joint Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence supports the 19 adoption of an automated statewide domestic violence protective order notification system.
20 In order to determine the financial and operational impact of developing the system, the 21 Administrative Office of the Courts, in consultation with the Governor's Crime Commission
22 and the North Carolina Attorney General's Office, shall (i) identify information in available
23 databases relating to civil domestic violence protective orders, criminal no-contact order 24 conditions, and postarrest conditions of release and (ii) determine the financial impact, 25 including personnel costs, for implementing a domestic violence protective order notification
26 system which interfaces with the North Carolina Statewide Automated Victim Assistance
27 Notification System. The Governor's Crime Commission shall report the findings to the Joint 28 Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence and the Fiscal Research Division by July 1, 29 2009.

30 SECTION 8. The North Carolina Domestic Violence Commission, in consultation
31 with the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the North Carolina Coalition 32 Against Sexual Assault, shall study the issue of State oversight and coordination of services to 33 victims of sexual violence and whether sexual violence should be included as a focus area of 34 the Commission. The study shall include, but is not limited to, a review of the organization and 35 membership of entities in other states that (i) provide information and recommendations to state 36 legislatures on domestic and sexual violence and (ii) information and services to the public on 37 these issues. The Commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the Joint 38 Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence by July 1, 2009.

39 SECTION 9. Section 6 of this act is effective for actions or motions filed on or 40 after December 1, 2009. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.
