1 "(a) Except as provided in G.S. 132-5 and G.S. 122C-31(h), confidential information
2 acquired in attending or treating a client is not a public record under Chapter 132 of the General
3 Statutes."

4 SECTION 4. G.S. 122C-54 is amended by adding the following new subsections:

5 "(i) G.S. 132-1.4 shall apply to the records of criminal investigations conducted by any 6 law enforcement unit of a State facility, and information described in G.S. 132-1.4(c) that is 7 collected by the State facility law enforcement unit shall be public records within the meaning 8 of G.S. 132-1.

9 "(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Secretary may inform any 10 person of any incident or event involving the welfare of a client or former client when the 11 Secretary determines that the release of the information is essential to maintaining the integrity
12 of the Department. However, the release shall not include information that identifies the client 13 directly, or information for which disclosure is prohibited by State or federal law or 14 requirements, or information for which, in the Secretary's judgment, by reference to publicly 15 known or available information, there is a reasonable basis to believe the client will be 16 identified."

17 SECTION 5. This act is effective when it becomes law.
