1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO CLARIFY AND REFORM THE STATUTES OF LIMITATION AND REPOSE
3 IN PRODUCT LIABILITY ACTIONS.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 SECTION 1. G.S. 1-50 reads as rewritten:

6 "§ 1-50. Six years.

7 (a) Within six years an action –

8 ...

9 ~~(6) No action for the recovery of damages for personal injury, death or damage~~
10 ~~to property based upon or arising out of any alleged defect or any failure in~~ 11 ~~relation to a product shall be brought more than six years after the date of~~
12 ~~initial purchase for use or consumption.~~

13"

14 SECTION 2. G.S. 99B-2 reads as rewritten:

15 "§ 99B-2. Seller's opportunity to inspect; privity requirements for warranty claims.

16 ...

17 (b) A claimant who is a buyer, or a lessee as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code,
18 G.S. 25-2A-103(1)(n), of the product involved, or who is a member or a guest of a member of 19 the family of the ~~buyer, buyer or lessee~~, a guest of the ~~buyer, buyer or lessee~~, or an employee of 20 the ~~buyer, buyer or lessee~~ may bring a product liability action directly against the manufacturer
21 of the product involved for breach of implied warranty; and the lack of privity of contract shall 22 not be grounds for the dismissal of such action."

23 SECTION 3. Chapter 99B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new 24 section to read:

25 "§ 99B-7. Limitation of actions; statute of repose.

26 (a) The purpose of this section is to define in a single statute the time limits for 27 commencing product liability actions, to protect the citizens, manufacturers, and sellers of 28 North Carolina, and to reaffirm that the statute of repose for product liability actions does not
29 apply to diseases.

30 (b) All product liability actions, except those for wrongful death, shall be commenced
31 within three years of the date on which the property damage or injury complained of occurs.

32 (c) All product liability actions for wrongful death under G.S. 28A-18-2 shall be 33 commenced within two years of the date of death, so long as the decedent's claim would not

1 have been barred on the date of death by the provisions of subsections (d) and (e) of this
2 section.

3 (d) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, all product liability actions
4 against manufacturers shall be commenced as follows:

5 (1) For products manufactured in North Carolina, within six years after the date
6 the product that allegedly caused the property damage, injury, or death was 7 first sold or leased for use or consumption.

8 (2) For products manufactured outside North Carolina, within the time allowed 9 by the applicable statute of repose, if any, of the state or country where the 10 product was manufactured, but in no event less than six years after the date
11 the product that allegedly caused the property damage, injury, or death was 12 first sold or leased for use or consumption. If the state or country where the 13 product was manufactured does not have an applicable statute of repose,
14 then the only limitations upon the commencement of a product liability
15 action shall be as set forth in subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

16 (e) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, all product liability actions
17 against sellers shall be commenced as follows:

18 (1) For products sold or leased by the defendant seller in North Carolina, within
19 six years after the date the product that allegedly caused the property
20 damage, injury, or death was first sold or leased for use or consumption.

21 (2) For products sold or leased by the defendant seller outside North Carolina,
22 within the time allowed by the applicable statute of repose, if any, of the 23 state or country where the seller sold or leased the product, but in no event
24 less than six years after the date the product that allegedly caused the 25 property damage, injury, or death was first sold or leased for use or 26 consumption. If the state or country where the seller sold or leased the 27 product does not have an applicable statute of repose, then the only 28 limitations upon the commencement of a product liability action shall be as 29 set forth in subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

30 (f) In all product liability actions in which a disease allegedly resulted from exposure to 31 or use of the product, the date of injury under subsection (b) of this section shall be the date of 32 diagnosis of the disease. Subsections (d) and (e) of this section shall not apply to product
33 liability actions involving claims for disease allegedly resulting from exposure to or use of the 34 product.

35 (g) If the manufacturer or seller asserts that the statute of repose in subsection (d) or (e)
36 of this section bars the product liability action, the manufacturer or seller shall have the burden
37 of proving when the repose period began.

38 (h) The statutes of limitation and repose for product liability actions shall be subject to 39 the tolling provisions of G.S. 1-17 and G.S. 1-22."

40 SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to causes of 41 action that accrue on or after that date.
