GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2009

 \mathbf{S} \mathbf{D}

SENATE BILL 1077 PROPOSED COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE S1077-PCS85210-RV-32

ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	Short Title: Expand Parole Officers' Delegated Authority.	(Public)
A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO EXPAND THE AUTHORITY DELEGATED TO PROBATION OFFICERS IN ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment-treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	Sponsors:
A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO EXPAND THE AUTHORITY DELEGATED TO PROBATION OFFICERS IN ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment-treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section: section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	Referred to:
AN ACT TO EXPAND THE AUTHORITY DELEGATED TO PROBATION OFFICERS IN ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section. except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	March 31, 2009
AN ACT TO EXPAND THE AUTHORITY DELEGATED TO PROBATION OFFICERS IN ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment-treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. — Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. — A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment, treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. — A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section. except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment-treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."		I IF THE KISK
SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
 "(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)." 	·
judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment-treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. — A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."		Unless the presiding Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section. except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
sentenced to community punishment to: (1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. — A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
(1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	, require an offender law for this supervision; (2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. — A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	• •	the fee prescribed by
(2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment-treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. — A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."		and two properties of the officer; or (3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	1	to be determined by to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6). If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	·
If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	(3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or tro	eatment. treatment, or remove those same requirements. If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6).
If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may sub-	osequently reduce or subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	remove those same requirements.
probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	-
The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."		• determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	• probation imposed by the court." SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."		-
 SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten: "(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)." 	÷ •	of the conditions of
"(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section. section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this section, section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."
officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."	1
	 	· -
SECTION 3 This act becomes effective December 1 2009	SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009.	-1343.4(5).

