18 types of audits the internal auditors may provide include, but are not limited 19 to:

20 a. Efficiency or economy audits to evaluate areas at risk and require 21 improvements to promote operating effectiveness and efficiency, 22 mitigate the risk of liability, and realize economies.

23 b. Financial audits to determine whether financial operations are 24 properly functioning.

25 c. Compliance audits or reviews to assess compliance with laws and 26 regulations.

27 d. Internal control audits to assess the controls related to financial 28 transactions and reporting.

29 e. Case file and procedural audits to ensure efficiency, effectiveness, 30 and compliance.

31 f. Performance and management audits entail an objective and 32 systematic examination of evidence to provide an independent 33 assessment of the performance and management of a program against 34 objective criteria as well as assessments that provide a prospective 35 focus or that synthesize information on best practices.

36 g. Investigative or fraud audits to make an independent assessment of 37 allegations of fraud, misuse, or process manipulation or alleged 38 violations of federal, State, or local laws.

39 (2) "Accounting system" means the total structure of records and procedures 40 which discover, record, classify, and report information on the financial 41 position and operating results of the Judicial Department, or a segment of the 42 Judicial Department, or any of its funds, balanced account groups, and 43 organizational components."

44 SECTION 7. G.S. 7A-271 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

45 "(f) The superior court has exclusive jurisdiction over all hearings to revoke probation
46 pursuant to G.S. 15A-1345(e) where the district court is supervising a drug treatment court 47 probation judgment under G.S. 7A-272(e), except that the district court has jurisdiction to 48 conduct the revocation proceedings when the chief district court judge and the senior resident 49 superior court judge agree that it is in the interest of justice that the proceedings be conducted
50 by the district court. If the district court exercises jurisdiction under this subsection to revoke 51 probation, appeal of an order revoking probation is to the appellate division."

1           SECTION 8. G.S. 7A-272 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

2           "(e) With the consent of the chief district court judge and the senior resident superior
3 court judge, the district court has jurisdiction to preside over the supervision of a probation
4 judgment entered in superior court in which the defendant is required to participate in a drug
5 treatment court program pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(2b) or is participating in the drug 6 treatment court pursuant to a deferred prosecution agreement under G.S. 15A-1341(a2). The 7 district court may modify or extend the probation judgment, but jurisdiction to revoke
8 probation supervised under this subsection is as provided in G.S. 7A-271(f)."

9           SECTION 9. G.S. 15A-1344(a) reads as rewritten:

10          "(a) Authority to Alter or Revoke. – Except as provided in subsection (a1) or (b), 11 probation may be reduced, terminated, continued, extended, modified, or revoked by any judge 12 entitled to sit in the court which imposed probation and who is resident or presiding in the 13 district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 or superior court district or set of districts as 14 defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, as the case may be, where the sentence of probation was imposed, 15 where the probationer violates probation, or where the probationer resides. Upon a finding that 16 an offender sentenced to community punishment under Article 81B has violated one or more 17 conditions of probation, the court's authority to modify the probation judgment includes the 18 authority to require the offender to comply with conditions of probation that would otherwise
19 make the sentence an intermediate punishment. The district attorney of the prosecutorial district 20 as defined in G.S. 7A-60 in which probation was imposed must be given reasonable notice of 21 any hearing to affect probation substantially."

26 modify or revoke probation in these cases must be held in the county in which the drug

35 uniform statewide guidelines prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the 36 Courts. As used in this section, "catastrophic conditions" means any set of circumstances that 37 makes it impossible or extremely hazardous for judicial officials, employees, parties, witnesses,

3 ~~risk of physical harm to persons in a courthouse, or that would otherwise~~ 4 ~~convince a reasonable person to avoid travelling to or being in the~~ 5 ~~courthouse. (2) Entry of order.—The Chief Justice may enter an order under~~ 6 ~~this subsection during the catastrophic conditions or at any time after~~ 7 ~~catastrophies such conditions have ceased to exist. The order shall be in~~

15 stated in the emergency order, and the designation of the county or counties
16 and specific locations within the State where such matters may be heard, 17 conducted, or otherwise transacted. The Chief Justice may enter such 18 emergency orders under this subsection in response to existing or impending 19 catastrophic conditions or their consequences. An emergency order under 20 this subsection shall expire the sooner of the date stated in the order, or 30

24 (c) In Chambers Jurisdiction Not Affected. – Nothing in this section prohibits a judge 25 or other judicial officer from exercising, during adverse weather or other emergency situations, 26 including catastrophic conditions, any in chambers or ex parte jurisdiction conferred by law
27 upon that judge or judicial officer, as provided by law. The effectiveness of any such exercise
28 shall not be affected by a determination by the Chief Justice that catastrophic conditions existed 29 at the time it was exercised.

30 (d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate or diminish the inherent 31 judicial powers of the Chief Justice or the Judicial Branch."
