The agency must issue the explanation within 15 days after 36 receipt of the request for an explanation. 37 (i) Record. – An agency must keep a record of a rule-making proceeding. The record 38 must include all written comments received, a transcript or recording of any public hearing held 39 on the rule, any fiscal note that has been prepared for the rule, and any written explanation 40 made by the agency for adopting the rule." SECTION 6. G.S. 150B-21.4 reads as rewritten: 41 42 "§ 150B-21.4. Fiscal notes on rules. 43 (a) State Funds. - Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the 44 proposed text of a permanent rule change that would require the expenditure or distribution of 45 funds subject to the State Budget Act, Chapter 143C of the General Statutes it must submit the 46 text of the proposed rule change- change, an analysis of the proposed rule change, and a fiscal 47 note on the proposed rule change to the Director of the Budget Office of State Budget and 48 Management and obtain certification from the Director- Office that the funds that would be 49 required by the proposed rule change are available. The Office must also determine and certify that the agency adhered to the principles set forth in G.S. 150B-19.1. The fiscal note must state 50 the amount of funds that would be expended or distributed as a result of the proposed rule 51

1 change and explain how the amount was computed. The Director of the Budget Office of State Budget and Management must certify a proposed rule change if funds are available to cover the

3 expenditure or distribution required by the proposed rule change.

4 DOT Analyses. – In addition to the requirements of subsection (a) of this section, (a1) 5 any agency that adopts a rule affecting environmental permitting of Department of 6 Transportation projects shall conduct an analysis to determine if the rule will result in an 7 increased cost to the Department of Transportation. The analysis shall be conducted and 8 submitted to the Board of Transportation before the agency publishes the proposed text of the 9 rule change in the North Carolina Register. The agency shall consider any recommendations 10 offered by the Board of Transportation prior to adopting the rule. Once a rule subject to this subsection is adopted, the Board of Transportation may submit any objection to the rule it may 11 12 have to the Rules Review Commission. If the Rules Review Commission receives an objection 13 to a rule from the Board of Transportation no later than 5:00 P.M. of the day following the day 14 the Commission approves the rule, then the rule shall only become effective as provided in 15 G.S. 150B-21.3(b1).

16 (b) Local Funds. - Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the 17 proposed text of a permanent rule change that would affect the expenditures or revenues of a 18 unit of local government, it must submit the text of the proposed rule change and a fiscal note 19 on the proposed rule change to the Office of the Governor State Budget and Management as 20 provided by G.S. 150B-21.26, the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly, the 21 Office of State Budget and Management, the North Carolina Association of County 22 Commissioners, and the North Carolina League of Municipalities. The fiscal note must state 23 the amount by which the proposed rule change would increase or decrease expenditures or 24 revenues of a unit of local government and must explain how the amount was computed.

25 Substantial Economic Impact. – Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina (b1) 26 Register the proposed text of a permanent rule change that would have a substantial economic 27 impact and that is not identical to a federal regulation that the agency is required to adopt, the 28 agency must obtain a fiscal note for the proposed rule change from the Office of State Budget 29 and Management or shall prepare a fiscal note for the proposed rule change and have the note 30 approved by that Office. the Office of State Budget and Management. The agency may request the Office of State Budget and Management to prepare the fiscal note only after, working with 31 32 the Office, it has exhausted all resources, internal and external, to otherwise prepare the 33 required fiscal note. If an agency requests the Office of State Budget and Management to 34 prepare a fiscal note for a proposed rule change, that Office must prepare the note within 90 35 days after receiving a written request for the note. If the Office of State Budget and 36 Management fails to prepare a fiscal note within this time period, the agency proposing the rule 37 change may shall prepare a fiscal note. A fiscal note prepared in this circumstance does not 38 require approval of the Office of State Budget and Management.

39 If an agency prepares the required fiscal note, the agency must submit the note to the Office 40 of State Budget and Management for review. The Office of State Budget and Management 41 must- shall review the fiscal note within 14 days after it is submitted and either approve the 42 note or inform the agency in writing of the reasons why it does not approve the fiscal note. 43 After addressing these reasons, the agency may submit the revised fiscal note to that Office for 44 its review. If an agency is not sure whether a proposed rule change would have a substantial 45 economic impact, the agency may_shall ask the Office of State Budget and Management to 46 determine whether the proposed rule change has a substantial economic impact. Failure to 47 prepare or obtain approval of the fiscal note as required by this subsection shall be a basis for 48 objection to the rule under G.S. 150B-21.9(a)(4).

49 As used in this subsection, the term "substantial economic impact" means an aggregate 50 financial impact on all persons affected of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000) five 34 "§ 150B-51. Scope and standard of review.

35 In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law (a) judge made a recommended decision and the State Personnel Commission made an advisory 36 37 decision in accordance with G.S. 126-37(b1), the court shall make two initial determinations. 38 First, the court shall determine whether the applicable appointing authority heard new evidence after receiving the recommended decision. If the court determines that the applicable 39 40 appointing authority heard new evidence, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the applicable appointing authority to enter a decision in accordance with the evidence 41 42 in the official record. Second, if the applicable appointing authority did not adopt the 43 recommended decision, the court shall determine whether the applicable appointing authority's decision states the specific reasons why the applicable appointing authority did not adopt the 44 45 recommended decision. If the court determines that the applicable appointing authority did not 46 state specific reasons why it did not adopt a recommended decision, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the applicable appointing authority to enter the specific reasons. 47 In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law 48 (a1)

49 judge made a decision, in accordance with G.S. 150B-34(a), and the agency adopted the administrative law judge's decision, the court shall determine whether the agency heard new 50 evidence after receiving the decision. If the court determines that the agency heard new 51

1 evidence, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the agency to enter a 2 decision in accordance with the evidence in the official record. The court shall also determine 3 whether the agency specifically rejected findings of fact contained in the administrative law 4 judge's decision in the manner provided by G.S. 150B-36(b1) and made findings of fact in 5 accordance with G.S. 150B-36(b2). If the court determines that the agency failed to follow the procedure set forth in G.S. 150B-36, the court may take appropriate action under subsection (b) 6 7 of this section. 8 Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, in reviewing a final decision, (b) 9 the The court reviewing a final decision may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the 10 case to the agency or to the administrative law judge for further proceedings. It may also reverse or modify the agency's decision, or adopt the administrative law judge's decision if the 11 12 substantial rights of the petitioners may have been prejudiced because the agency's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are: 13 14 (1)In violation of constitutional provisions; 15 (2)In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency; agency or administrative law judge; 16 17 Made upon unlawful procedure; (3) 18 (4) Affected by other error of law; 19 Unsupported by substantial evidence admissible under G.S. 150B-29(a), (5) 20 150B-30, or 150B-31 in view of the entire record as submitted; or 21 (6) Arbitrary, capricious, or an abuse of discretion. 22 (c) In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law 23 judge made a decision, in accordance with G.S. 150B-34(a), and the agency does not adopt the 24 administrative law judge's decision, the court shall review the official record, de novo, and shall 25 make findings of fact and conclusions of law. In reviewing the case, the court shall not give 26 deference to any prior decision made in the case and shall not be bound by the findings of fact 27 or the conclusions of law contained in the agency's final decision. The court shall determine 28 whether the petitioner is entitled to the relief sought in the petition, based upon its review of the 29 official record. The court reviewing a final decision under this subsection may adopt the 30 administrative law judge's decision; may adopt, reverse, or modify the agency's decision; may 31 remand the case to the agency for further explanations under G.S. 150B-36(b1), 150B-36(b2), 32 or 150B-36(b3), or reverse or modify the final decision for the agency's failure to provide the 33 explanations; and may take any other action allowed by law.case, the court shall determine whether the petitioner is entitled to the relief sought in the petition based upon its review of the 34 35 final decision and the official record. With regard to asserted errors pursuant to subdivisions (1) 36 through (4) of subsection (b) of this section, the court shall conduct its review of the final decision using the de novo standard of review. With regard to asserted errors pursuant to 37 38 subdivisions (5) and (6) of subsection (b) of this section, the court shall conduct its review of 39 the final decision using the whole record standard of review. 40 In reviewing a final agency decision allowing judgment on the pleadings or (d) 41 summary judgment, or in reviewing an agency decision that does not adopt an administrative 42 law judge's decision allowing judgment on the pleadings or summary judgment pursuant to 43 G.S. 150B-36(d), the court may enter any order allowed by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(c) or Rule 56. If 44 the order of the court does not fully adjudicate the case, the court shall remand the case to the 45 administrative law judge for such further proceedings as are just." 46 SECTION 28. Appeals involving a disciplinary action, alleged discrimination or harassment, and 11 (a) 12 any other contested case arising under this Chapter shall be conducted in the Office of 13 Administrative Hearings as provided in Article 3 of Chapter 150B; provided that no grievance 14 may be appealed unless the employee has complied with G.S. 126-34. The State Personnel 15 Commission shall make a final decision in these cases as provided in G.S. 150B-36, except as provided in subsection (b1) of this section. The State Personnel Commission administrative law 16 17 judge is hereby authorized to reinstate any employee to the position from which the employee 18 has been removed, to order the employment, promotion, transfer, or salary adjustment of any 19 individual to whom it has been wrongfully denied or to direct other suitable action to correct 20 the abuse which may include the requirement of payment for any loss of salary which has 21 resulted from the improperly discriminatory action of the appointing authority. 22 (b) Repealed by 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 572, s. 1. 23 (b1) In appeals involving local government employees subject to this Chapter pursuant to 24 G.S. 126 5(a)(2), except in appeals in which discrimination prohibited by Article 6 of this 25 Chapter is found or in any case where a binding decision is required by applicable federal 26 standards, the decision of the State Personnel Commission shall be advisory to the local 27 appointing authority. The State Personnel Commission shall comply with all requirements of 28 G.S. 150B-44 in making an advisory decision. The local appointing authority shall, within 90 29 days of receipt of the advisory decision of the State Personnel Commission, issue a written, 30 final decision either accepting, rejecting, or modifying the decision of the State Personnel Commission. If the local appointing authority rejects or modifies the advisory decision, the 31 32 local appointing authority must state the specific reasons why it did not adopt the advisory 33 decision. A copy of the final decision shall be served on each party personally or by certified 34 mail, and on each party's attorney of record. 35 The final decision is subject to judicial review pursuant to Article 4 of Chapter 150B (b2)36 of the General Statutes. Appeals in which it is found that discrimination prohibited by Article 6 37 of this Chapter has occurred or in any case where a binding decision is required by applicable 38 federal standards shall be heard as all other appeals, except that the decision of the State 39 Personnel Commission shall be final. appeals. 40 If the local appointing authority is other than a board of county commissioners, the (c) local appointing authority must give the county notice of the appeal taken pursuant to 41 42 subsection (a) of this section. Notice must be given to the county manager or the chairman of 43 the board of county commissioners by certified mail within 15 days of the receipt of the notice 44 of appeal. The county may intervene in the appeal within 30 days of receipt of the notice. If the 45 action is appealed to superior court the county may intervene in the superior court proceeding 46 even if it has not intervened in the administrative proceeding.  SECTION 55.1. Pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 6504, the Department of Health and Human Services shall request a waiver from the single State agency requirement contained in 42 C.F.R. § 432.10(e)(3) with regard to final decisions in administrative hearings. The waiver application shall include the following: (1) The waiver request is made at the direction of the North Carolina General Assembly, which is responsible for the organizational structure of State government. (2) The single State agency requirement prevents the establishment of the most effective and efficient arrangement for providing administrative hearings to claimants because it requires that after a hearing and decision by an administrative law judge, the case must be returned to the agency for a final decision. The return to the agency is an unnecessary, time-consuming, and costly additional step. (3) The use of another State administrative hearings arrangement will not endanger the objectives of the law authorizing the Medicaid program because the administrative law judges will abide by the properly adopted policies, rules, and regulations of the State Medicaid agency in making final decisions. The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources shall develop a uniform policy for notification of deficiencies and violations for all of the regulatory 6 7 programs within the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. In developing the 8 notification policy, the Secretary shall establish different types of notification based on the 9 potential or actual level of harm to public health, the environment, and the natural resources of 10 the State. The Secretary shall also review the notification policies of the United States 11 Environmental Protection Agency and the environmental regulatory programs of other states. The Secretary shall report on the development of the notification policy to the Environmental 12 13 Review Commission and the Joint Select Regulatory Reform Committee no later than October 14 1, 2011. The Secretary shall implement the uniform notification policy no later than February 15 1.2012. 16 SECTION 61.1. The Office of Administrative Hearings shall evaluate the use of 17 mediated settlement conferences under G.S. 150B-23.1 and shall develop a plan to expand the 18 use of mediation in the contested case process. The Office of Administrative Hearings shall 19 report its findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Regulatory Reform Committee 20 by February 1, 2012. 21 SECTION 61.2. S.L. 2011-13 is repealed. 22 SECTION 61.3. G.S. 66-58 is amended by adding a new subsection to read: 23 Any person, firm, or corporation who or which is injured or suffers damages as a "(m) 24 result of a violation of this section may maintain an action in the Wake County Superior Court 25 for injunctive relief against any unit, department or agency of the State government, or any 26 division or subdivision of the unit, department or agency, or any individual employee or 27 employees of the unit, department or agency, in his or her, or their capacity as employee or 28 employees, who or which has committed a violation. In a proceeding under this subsection, the 29 court shall determine whether a violation has been committed and enter any judgment or decree 30 necessary to remove the effects of any violation it finds and to prevent continuation or renewal of the violation in the future. Upon a judicial finding that any contract or contractual obligation 31 32 is in violation of this section, such contract or contractual obligation shall be null and void. Any 33 person, firm, or corporation who or which believes that a proposed activity will be in violation 34 of this section may request a declaratory judgment under G.S. 1-253 or injunctive relief or both,

35 notwithstanding the fact that such activity has not been commenced."

36 SECTION 61.4. If House Bill 200, 2011 Regular Session, becomes law, then 37 G.S. 95-14.2, 106-22.6, and 143B-279.16, as amended by Section 13.11B of that bill are 38 repealed.

39 SECTION 62. If any provision of this act is held invalid by a court of competent
 40 jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of this act that can be given effect
 41 without the invalid provision.

42 SECTION 63. Sections 2 through 14 of this act become effective October 1, 2011, 43 and apply to rules adopted on or after that date. Sections 15 through 55 of this act become 44 effective January 1, 2012, and apply to contested cases commenced on or after that date. Unless 45 otherwise provided elsewhere in this act, the remainder of this act is effective when it becomes 46 law.
