A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE SENTENCING LAWS TO COMPLY WITH THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT DECISION IN MILLER V. ALABAMA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 93.

"Sentencing for Minors Subject to Life Imprisonment Without Parole.

"§ 15A-1476. Applicability.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 14-17, a defendant who is convicted of first degree murder, and who was under the age of 18 at the time of the offense, shall be sentenced in accordance with this Article. For the purposes of this Article, "life imprisonment with parole" shall mean that the defendant shall serve a minimum of 25 years imprisonment prior to becoming eligible for parole.

"§ 15A-1477. Penalty determination.

(a) In determining a sentence under this Article, the court shall do one of the following:

(1) If the sole basis for conviction of a count or each count of first degree murder was the felony murder rule, then the court shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment with parole.

(2) If the court does not sentence the defendant pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, then the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant should be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole, as set forth in G.S. 14-17, or a lesser sentence of life imprisonment with parole.

(b) The hearing under subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section shall be conducted by the trial judge as soon as practicable after the guilty verdict is returned. The State and the defendant shall not be required to resubmit evidence presented during the guilt determination phase of the case. Evidence, including evidence in rebuttal, may be presented as to any matter that the court deems relevant to sentencing, and any evidence which the court deems to have probative value may be received.

(c) The defendant or the defendant's counsel may submit mitigating circumstances to the court, including, but not limited to, the following factors:

(1) Age at the time of the offense.

(2) Immaturity.

* S 6 3 5 - P C S 1 5 2 6 5 - R K - 1 5 5 *

- 1 (3) Ability to appreciate the risks and consequences of the conduct.
2 (4) Intellectual capacity.
3 (5) Prior record.
4 (6) Mental health.
5 (7) Familial or peer pressure exerted upon the defendant.
6 (8) Likelihood that the defendant would benefit from rehabilitation in 7 confinement.
8 (9) Any other mitigating factor or circumstance.

9 (d) The State and the defendant or the defendant's counsel shall be permitted to present
10 argument for or against the sentence of life imprisonment with parole. The defendant or the 11 defendant's counsel shall have the right to the last argument.

12 (e) The provisions of Article 58 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes apply to 13 proceedings under this Article.

14 "§ 15A-1478. Sentencing; assignment for resentencing.

15 (a) The court shall consider any mitigating factors in determining whether, based upon 16 all the circumstances of the offense and the particular circumstances of the defendant, the 17 defendant should be sentenced to life imprisonment with parole instead of life imprisonment
18 without parole. The order adjudging the sentence shall include findings on the absence or 19 presence of any mitigating factors and such other findings as the court deems appropriate to 20 include in the order.

21 (b) All motions for appropriate relief filed in superior court seeking resentencing under 22 the provisions of this Article may be heard and determined in the trial division by any judge (i)
23 who is empowered to act in criminal matters in the superior court district or set of districts as 24 defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, in which the judgment was entered and (ii) who is assigned pursuant 25 to this section to review the motion for appropriate relief and take the appropriate
26 administrative action to dispense with the motion.

27 (c) The judge who presided at the trial of the defendant is empowered to act upon the 28 motion for appropriate relief even though the judge is in another district or even though the 29 judge's commission has expired; however, if the judge who presided at the trial is still 30 unavailable to act, the senior resident superior court judge shall assign a judge who is 31 empowered to act under subsection (b) of this section.

32 (d) All motions for appropriate relief filed in superior court seeking resentencing under 33 the provisions of this Article shall, when filed, be referred to the senior resident superior court
34 judge, who shall assign the motion as provided by this section for review and administrative 35 action, including, as may be appropriate, dismissal, calendaring for hearing, entry of a 36 scheduling order for subsequent events in the case, or other appropriate actions.

37 "§ 15A-1479. Incidents of parole.

38 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a defendant sentenced to life
39 imprisonment with parole shall be subject to the conditions and procedures set forth in Article
40 85 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, including the notification requirement in 41 G.S. 15A-1371(b)(3).

42 (b) The term of parole for a person released from imprisonment from a sentence of life
43 imprisonment with parole shall be five years and may not be terminated earlier by the 44 Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission.

45 (c) A defendant sentenced to life imprisonment with parole who is paroled, and then
46 violates a condition of parole and is returned to prison to serve the life sentence, shall not be 47 eligible for parole for five years from the date of the return to confinement.

48 (d) Life imprisonment with parole under this Article means that unless the defendant
49 receives parole, the defendant shall remain imprisoned for the defendant's natural life."

50 SECTION 2. The North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, in 51 consultation with the Office of the Juvenile Defender, the Conference of District Attorneys, and

1 other organizations and agencies it deems appropriate, shall study the provisions in this act,
2 United States Supreme Court precedent relevant to sentencing a minor for first degree murder,
3 sentencing policies in other jurisdictions, and any other matter relating to the sentencing of 4 minors convicted of first degree murder. The Commission shall report its findings and 5 recommendations to the General Assembly no later than January 31, 2013.

6 SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law and is applicable to any
7 sentencing hearings held on or after that date. This act also applies to any resentencing
8 hearings required by law for a defendant who was under the age of 18 years at the time of the 9 offense, was sentenced to life imprisonment without parole prior to the effective date of this
10 act, and for whom a resentencing hearing has been ordered.
