"(6) ~~Corporal punishment shall not be administered on a student who is a child with a disability as defined in G.S. 115C-106.3(1) or on a student with a disability who is covered under section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 704, whose parent has stated in writing that corporal punishment shall not be administered on that student. In school administrative units where corporal punishment is permitted, parents shall be given a form to make such an election at the beginning of the school year or when the student first enters the school during the year. If a parent has not submitted in writing that corporal punishment shall not be used on the student, then the form shall be presented to the parent at the first individualized education program or section 504 plan meeting held during the school year.~~ Corporal punishment shall not be administered on a student whose parent or guardian has stated in writing that corporal punishment shall not be administered to that student. Parents and guardians shall be given a form to make such an election at the beginning of the school year or when the student first enters the school during the year. If the parent or guardian does not return the form, corporal punishment may be administered on the student."
