"A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO STUDY THE GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE OF THE CHARLOTTE
DOUGLAS INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT.

SECTION 1. Study Commission.--The City of Charlotte City Council shall create a Commission to undertake a comprehensive study of the governance structure of the Charlotte Douglas International Airport.

SECTION 2. Membership of the Commission.-The Commission shall include 15 members appointed by the City Manager.

SECTION 3. Scope of Study.—The Commission shall enter into a contract with an unbiased, outside consultant to analyze and evaluate various airport governance models, including independent authorities, and the issues associated with transferring the Airport from City control to an authority, as well as a recommended governance structure. The study shall be monitored by an oversight committee of critical airport stakeholders, including US Airways, to ensure it is conducted in an objective, unbiased manner.

SECTION 4. Funding.—The study shall be funded by the City of Charlotte.

SECTION 5. Report.—The report of the Commission shall be completed and submitted to the North Carolina General Assembly, and to the Mayor and City Council of the City of Charlotte, by May 1, 2013."
