37 SECTION 5. Article 5 of Chapter 135 of the General Statutes is amended by 38 adding a new section to read:

39 "§ 135-97. Immunity.

40 A person serving on the Supplemental Retirement Board of Trustees shall be immune
 41 individually from civil liability for monetary damages, except to the extent covered by 42 insurance, for any act or failure to act arising out of that service, except where the person:

43 (1) Was not acting within the scope of that person's official duties.

44 (2) Was not acting in good faith.

45 (3) Committed gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct that resulted in 46 the damages or injury.

47 (4) Derived an improper personal financial benefit, either directly or indirectly,
 48 from the transaction.

49 (5) Incurred the liability from the operation of a motor vehicle."

50 SECTION 7. G.S. 120-4.9 reads as rewritten:

51 "§ 120-4.9. Retirement system established.

1 A Retirement System is established and placed under the Board of Trustees of the Teachers'
2 and State Employees' Retirement System for administrative purposes. This Retirement System
3 is a governmental plan, within the meaning of Section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.
4 Therefore, the nondiscrimination rules of Sections 401(a)(5) and 401(a)(26) of the Code do not
5 apply.

6 The Retirement System shall have all the power and privileges of a corporation and shall be 7 known as the "Legislative Retirement System of North Carolina." By this name all of its
8 business shall be transacted, all of its funds invested and all of its cash and securities and other
9 property held. All direction and policies concerning the Legislative Retirement System shall be 10 vested in the ~~Legislative Services Commission~~ Board of Trustees.

11 Consistent with Section 401(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, all member employee and 12 employer contributions to this Retirement System shall be made to funds held in trust through
13 trust instruments that have the purposes of distributing trust principal and income to retired
14 members and their beneficiaries and of paying other definitely determinable benefits under this 15 Chapter, after meeting the necessary expenses of administering this Retirement System. Neither
16 the trust corpus nor income from this trust can be used for purposes other than the exclusive
17 benefit of members or their beneficiaries, except that employer contributions made to the trust
18 under a good faith mistake of fact may be returned to an employer, where the refund can occur
19 within less than one year after the mistaken contribution was made, consistent with the rule
20 adopted by the Board of Trustees. The Retirement System shall have a consolidated Plan
21 document, consisting of relevant statutory provisions in this Chapter, associated regulations in 22 the North Carolina Administrative Code, substantive and procedural information on the official
23 forms used by the Retirement System, and policies and minutes of the Board of Trustees."

24 SECTION 8. G.S. 120-4.10 reads as rewritten:

25 "§ 120-4.10. Administration of retirement system.

26 The Board of Trustees of the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System shall be
27 the trustee of the Retirement System, ~~under the direction of the Legislative Services~~
28 ~~Commission~~ System. The provisions of this Article shall be administered by the Board of 29 Trustees, ~~under the direction of the Legislative Services Commission~~ Trustees."

30 SECTION 9. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013.
