25 the counsel and any relatives of such person, convict or felon and a minister or member of the

39 Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety may direct that the reports
40 required under this subsection be made on other dates consistent with the Committee's 41 schedule."

42 SECTION 5.(a) Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is repealed.

43 SECTION 5.(b) The intent and purpose of this section, and its sole effect, is to 44 remove the use of statistics to prove purposeful discrimination in a specific case. Upon repeal 45 of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, a capital defendant retains all of the 46 rights which the State and federal constitutions provide to ensure that the prosecutors who 47 selected a jury and who sought a capital conviction did not do so on the basis of race, that the 48 jury that hears his or her case is impartial, and that the trial was free from prejudicial error of 49 any kind. These rights are protected through multiple avenues of appeal, including direct appeal 50 to the North Carolina Supreme Court, and discretionary review to the United States Supreme 51 Court; a postconviction right to file a motion for appropriate relief at the trial court level where

1 claims of racial discrimination may be heard; and again at the federal level through a petition of 2 habeas corpus. A capital defendant prior to the passage of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the 3 General Statutes had the right to raise the issue of whether a prosecutor sought the death
4 penalty on the basis of race, whether the jury was selected on the basis of race, or any other
5 matter which evidenced discrimination on the basis of race. All these same rights, existing prior 6 to the enactment of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, remain the law of this 7 State after its repeal.

8 SECTION 5.(c) Upon request of a district attorney, the Attorney General shall 9 assume primary responsibility on behalf of that district attorney for the litigation in superior 10 court or an appellate court of any claims or issues resulting from a petition for relief that has 11 been or may be filed under the provisions of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes
12 or any issues or matters relating to the repeal of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General
13 Statutes, as provided in this act.

14 SECTION 5.(d) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, this section is 15 retroactive and applies to any motion for appropriate relief filed pursuant to Article 101 of 16 Chapter 15A of the General Statutes prior to the effective date of this act. All motions filed
17 pursuant to Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes prior to the effective date of this 18 act are void. This section does not apply to a court order resentencing a petitioner to life 19 imprisonment without parole pursuant to the provisions of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the 20 General Statutes prior to the effective date of this act if the order is affirmed upon appellate 21 review and becomes a final Order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction. This section is 22 applicable in any case where a court resentenced a petitioner to life imprisonment without 23 parole pursuant to the provisions of Article 101 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes prior to 24 the effective date of this act, and the Order is vacated upon appellate review by a court of 25 competent jurisdiction.

26 SECTION 6. This act is effective when it becomes law.
