26 voted upon at the same referendum."

27 SECTION 27. G.S. 160A-103 reads as rewritten:

28 "§ 160A-103. Referendum on charter amendments by ordinance.

47 them briefly but completely and with reference to the pertinent provisions of G.S. 160A-101, 48 but it need not contain the precise text of the charter amendments necessary to implement the 49 proposed changes. The petition may not propose changes in the alternative, or more than one
50 integrated set of charter amendments. Upon receipt of a valid initiative petition, the council 51 shall call a special election on the question of adopting the charter amendments proposed

1 therein, and shall give public notice thereof in accordance with G.S. 163-287. The date of the 6 referendum petition. No initiative petition may be filed (i) between the time the council initiates

7 proceedings under G.S. 160A-102 by publishing a notice of hearing on proposed charter

10 one year and six months following the effective date of an ordinance amending the city charter 11 pursuant to this Article, nor (iii) within one year and six months following the date of any 12 election on charter amendments that were defeated by the voters.

13 The restrictions imposed by this section on filing initiative petitions shall apply only to 14 petitions concerning the same subject matter. For example, pendency of council action on 15 amendments concerning the method of electing the council shall not preclude an initiative 16 petition on adoption of the council-manager form of government.

17 Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the submission of more than one

19 different plan under the same option as another proposition on the same ballot."

6 or any proceeding or action taken with respect to the holding of such election is invalid, must 7 be commenced within 30 days after the day of such special election. After the expiration of 8 such period of limitation, no right of action or defense founded upon the invalidity of the 9 election or the result thereof shall be asserted, nor shall the validity of the election or of the
