SECTION 2. Article 12 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-265. Location information; warrant requirement; exceptions.

- In General. Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, no person or investigative or law enforcement officer may obtain location information without first obtaining a search warrant as provided for in Article 11 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes.
- Exception. The prohibition of subsection (a) of this section does not apply to obtaining location information when:
 - (1) Responding to the user's call for emergency services, or
 - With the consent of the user of that service, or (2)
 - In response to the user's call for emergency services if an investigative or (3) law enforcement officer believes that an emergency involving danger of death or serious physical injury to any person requires obtaining without delay the location information relating to the emergency, and the request for the location information is narrowly tailored to address the emergency, subject to the following limitations:
 - The request shall document the factual basis for believing that an a. emergency involving immediate danger of death or physical injury to a person requires obtaining without delay the location information relating to the emergency; and
 - Not later than 48 hours after the date on which an investigative or b. law enforcement officer obtains access to the records under this section, a government entity shall file with the appropriate court a signed, sworn statement of a supervising officer or a rank designated by the head of the government entity setting forth the grounds for the emergency access.
- Penalty. A person who willfully and knowingly violates subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. Except as proof of a violation of this section, no evidence obtained in violation of this section shall be admissible in any criminal, civil, administrative, or other proceeding.
- Location Information. Any location information obtained pursuant to this section (d) or evidence derived therefrom shall not be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in a federal or State court unless each party, not less than 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy of the order and accompanying application under which the information was obtained. This 10-day period may be waived by the judge if the judge finds that it was not possible to furnish the party with the above information 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding and that the party will not be prejudiced by the delay in receiving such information.
- Judicial Reporting Requirements. By January 31 of each calendar year, any judge issuing or denying any application for a search warrant for location information under this section and during the preceding year shall report on each such warrant to the Administrative Office of the Courts. The report shall include the following information:
 - The fact that the order was applied for. (1)
 - The identity of the agency making the application. (2)
 - The offense specified in the order or application therefore. (3)
 - The nature of the facilities from which or the place where the location (4) information was obtained.
 - The fact that the order was granted as applied for, was modified, or was (5) denied.
