- 1       (3) Nomination, appointment, election, and retention election. – Nomination,
2 appointment, election, retention election, and terms of Justices and Judges are as follows:
- 3           (a) When a vacancy occurs in the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme 4 Court, Judge of the Appellate Division, or Judge of Superior Court, the 5 Governor shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy from among two 6 nominees of the Judicial Nominating Commission. For purposes of this 7 subsection, creation of a new judgeship creates a vacancy.
- 8           (b) The term of office by appointment as Associate Justice of the Supreme 9 Court, Judge of the Appellate Division, or Judge of Superior Court extends 10 through January 31 after the next statewide election for members of the 12 election shall be between the two candidates nominated by the Judicial 13 Nominating Commission, with the winning candidate elected to a regular 14 term.

- 15           (c) If the person not appointed by the Governor chooses by July 31 of the year 16 of the election not to seek election, the person holding by appointment the 22 retention serves a regular term.

- 23           (d) If the person appointed by the Governor chooses by July 31 of the year of 24 the election not to seek election, the Judicial Nominating Commission shall 25 nominate to the Governor two persons to hold office beginning the next

29 or was successful in a retention election, files for retention by February 1 of 30 the year of election is subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a 31 majority of the votes cast on the issue of the Justice's or Judge's retention for 32 the subsequent term. If the person does not file for retention by that date, the 33 office shall become vacant at the end of the term of office, and it shall be 34 filled by nomination and appointment as prescribed in this section as if the 48 Justice. The person appointed to be Chief Justice shall serve in that capacity for the remaining 49 portion of the term to which the person serving was elected as Associate Justice. At the end of 50 the term, the person so appointed shall be subject to a retention election as if the position were 51 Associate Justice under subsection (3) of this Section. If there is no Associate Justice who was

1 elected, the Governor shall appoint an Associate Justice to be Chief Justice, and the person

10 serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a 11 succeeding regular term as provided in this Section, subject to the provisions of law relating to 12 mandatory retirement. If the person continues to serve for the remainder of the term but does

18 Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2013, and who is in office on 19 December 31, 2012, shall end on January 31, 2015. If the person so appointed continues to 20 serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a
21 regular term as provided by this Section at the statewide election for members of the General
22 Assembly held in 2014.
