

1 relative to conflicts of interest and potential conflicts of interest and provide 2 a copy of that evaluation to the MPO member. All statements of economic 3 interest and all written evaluations by the Commission of those statements 4 are public records as provided in G.S. 138A-23. The penalties for failure to 5 file shall be as set forth in G.S. 138A-25(a) and (b).

6 (4) File, with and in the same manner as the statement of economic interest filed
7 under subdivision (3) of this subsection, an additional disclosure of a list of 8 all real estate owned wholly or in part by the MPO member, the MPO
9 member's extended family, or a business with which the MPO member is 10 associated within the jurisdiction of the MPO on which the MPO member is 11 serving. All additional disclosures of real estate filed by MPO members are 12 public records under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.

13 (h) Confidential Information. – An MPO member shall not use or disclose any 14 nonpublic information gained in the course of or by reason of serving as a member of the MPO
15 in a way that would affect a personal financial interest of the MPO member, the MPO 16 member's extended family, or a business with which the MPO member is associated.

17 (i) Definitions. – For purposes of this section, "extended family" shall have the same
18 meaning as in G.S. 138A-3(13), "business with which associated" shall have the same meaning
19 as in G.S. 138A-3(3), and "financial benefit" shall mean a direct pecuniary gain or loss or a
20 direct pecuniary loss to a business competitor.

21 (j) Violations. – A violation of subdivision (1) of subsection (g) of this section shall be 22 a Class 1 misdemeanor. An MPO member who knowingly conceals or knowingly fails to 23 disclose information that is required to be disclosed on a required filing under subdivisions (3)
24 or (4) of subsection (g) of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. An MPO 25 member who provides false information on a required filing under subdivisions (3) or (4) of 26 subsection (g) of this section knowing that the information is false is guilty of a Class H felony.

27 (k) All individuals with voting authority serving on an MPO who are members of the 28 Board of Transportation shall comply with Chapter 138A of the General Statutes and 29 G.S. 143A-350 while serving on the MPO."

30 SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 136-211(e) is repealed.

31 SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 136-211 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

32 "(f) Ethics Provisions. – All individuals with voting authority serving on a rural 33 transportation planning organization who are not members of the Board of Transportation shall 34 do all of the following:

35 (1) Except as permitted under this subdivision, no rural transportation planning 36 organization member acting in that capacity shall participate in an action of 37 the rural transportation planning organization if the rural transportation
38 planning organization member knows the rural transportation planning
39 organization member, the rural transportation planning organization
40 member's extended family, or any business with which the rural 41 transportation planning organization member is associated may incur a 42 reasonably foreseeable financial benefit from the matter under consideration, 43 which financial benefit would impair the rural transportation planning 44 organization member's independence of judgment or from which it could 45 reasonably be inferred that the financial benefit would influence the rural 46 transportation planning organization member's participation in the action of 47 the rural transportation planning organization.

48 a. When action is ministerial only and does not require the exercise of 49 discretion.

50 b. When the committee records in its minutes that it cannot obtain a 51 quorum in order to take the action because the rural transportation

1 planning organization member is disqualified from acting, the rural 2 transportation planning organization member may be counted for 3 purposes of a quorum but shall otherwise abstain from taking any 4 further action.

5 (2) A rural transportation planning organization member shall have an 6 affirmative duty to promptly disclose in writing to the rural transportation
7 planning organization any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest
8 under subdivision (1) of this subsection. All written disclosures shall be a 9 public record under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes and attached to the 10 minutes of the meeting in which any discussion or vote was taken by the 11 rural transportation planning organization related to that disclosure.

12 (3) File a statement of economic interest with the State Ethics Commission in 13 accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 138A of the General Statutes for which 14 the State Ethics Commission shall prepare a written evaluation relative to 15 conflicts of interest and potential conflicts of interest and provide a copy of 16 that evaluation to the rural transportation planning organization member. All 17 statements of economic interest and all written evaluations by the 18 Commission of those statements are public records as provided in 19 G.S. 138A-23. The penalties for failure to file shall be as set forth in 20 G.S. 138A-25(a) and (b).

21 (4) File, with and in the same manner as the statement of economic interest filed
22 under subdivision (3) of this subsection, an additional disclosure of a list of 23 all real estate owned wholly or in part by the rural transportation planning
24 organization member, the rural transportation planning organization
25 member's extended family, or a business with which the rural transportation 26 planning organization member is associated within the jurisdiction of the 27 rural transportation planning organization on which the rural transportation
28 planning organization member is serving. All additional disclosures of real 29 estate filed by members are public records under Chapter 132 of the General
30 Statutes.

31 (g) Confidential Information. – A rural transportation planning organization member 32 shall not use or disclose any nonpublic information gained in the course of or by reason of 33 serving as a member of the rural transportation planning organization in a way that would 34 affect a personal financial interest of the rural transportation planning organization member, the 35 rural transportation planning organization member's extended family, or a business with which 36 the rural transportation planning organization member is associated.

37 (i) Definitions. – For purposes of this section, "extended family" shall have the same
38 meaning as in G.S. 138A-3(13), "business with which associated" shall have the same meaning
39 as in G.S. 138A-3(3), and "financial benefit" shall mean a direct pecuniary gain or loss or a
40 direct pecuniary loss to a business competitor.

41 (j) Violations. – A violation of subdivision (1) of subsection (f) of this section shall be 42 a Class 1 misdemeanor. A rural transportation planning organization member who knowingly 43 conceals or knowingly fails to disclose information that is required to be disclosed on a 44 required filing under subdivisions (3) or (4) of subsection (f) of this section shall be guilty of a
45 Class 1 misdemeanor. A rural transportation planning organization member who provides false 46 information on a required filing under subdivisions (3) or (4) of subsection (f) of this section
47 knowing that the information is false is guilty of a Class H felony.

48 (k) All individuals with voting authority serving on a rural transportation planning
49 organization who are members of the Board of Transportation shall comply with Chapter 138A
50 of the General Statutes and G.S. 143A-350 while serving on the rural transportation planning 51 organization."

1 SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law. All individuals with voting
2 authority serving on a metropolitan planning organization or a rural transportation planning 3 organization shall file statements of economic interest and additional real estate lists with the 4 State Ethics Commission no later than April 15, 2013. Any member of a metropolitan planning 5 organization or a rural transportation planning organization that filed a statement of economic 6 interest in compliance with G.S. 136-202(e) or G.S. 136-211(e) shall not be required to file
7 again, and the State Ethics Commission shall prepare the evaluation under G.S. 136-200.2(g) or 8 G.S. 136-211(f) of that filing.
