Representative McGrady

1 moves to amend the bill on page 7, line 25, by adding after the period and before the quote the 2 following:

3 "(g) Reporting.— The Department shall publish on its website, in a link to the "Strategic 4 Transportation Investments" website linked directly from the Department's homepage, the 5 following information in an accessible format as promptly as possible:

- 6 (1) The quantitative criteria used in each highway and nonhighway project 7 scoring, including the methodology used to define each criteria, the criteria
8 presented to the Board of Transportation for approval, and any adjustments 9 made to finalize the criteria.
- 10 (2) The quantitative and qualitative criteria in each highway or nonhighway 11 project scoring that is used in each region or division to finalize the local 12 input score, and shall include distinctions between the Department division 13 scoring and methodologies and Metropolitan Planning Organization and 14 Rural Transportation Planning Organization scoring and methodologies.
- 15 (3) Notification of changes to the methodologies used to calculate quantitative 16 criteria.
- 17 (4) The final quantitative formulas, including the number of points assigned to 18 each criteria, used in each highway and nonhighway project scoring used to 19 obtain project rankings in the Statewide, Regional, and Division categories.
20 If the Department approves different formulas or point assignments 21 regionally or by division, the final scoring for each area shall be noted.
- 22 (5) The project scorings associated with the release of the draft State
23 Transportation Improvement Program and final State Transportation
24 Improvement Program."
