Referred to:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE FAIR ASSESSMENTS OF PERSONS WITH CRIMINAL HISTORIES APPLYING FOR PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT.

Whereas, reducing barriers to employment for people with criminal histories, and decreasing unemployment in communities with concentrated numbers of people who have previously offended, is a matter of statewide concern; and

Whereas, increasing employment opportunities for people with criminal histories will reduce recidivism and improve economic stability in our communities; Now, therefore, The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 126 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 17.

"Fair Assessment of Persons with Criminal Histories.

"§ 126-100. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

- (1) Criminal history. A state or federal history of conviction of a crime, whether a misdemeanor or felony, that bears upon an applicant's fitness for public employment. The term does not include a record of arrest not resulting in conviction.
- (2) Hiring authority. The agent responsible by law for the hiring of persons for public employment.
- (3) Public Employment. Any job, work for pay, or employment, including temporary or seasonal work, where the employer is the State of North Carolina or any local political subdivision of the State.

"§ 126-101. Consideration of applicant criminal history.

A hiring authority may not inquire into or consider the criminal history of an applicant for public employment, or include any such inquiry on any initial employment application form, until the hiring authority has made a conditional offer of employment to the applicant. This Article is not applicable to positions for which a hiring authority is otherwise required by law to consider the criminal record; however, nothing in this article shall be construed to preclude any hiring authority in its discretion from adopting the provisions of this Article.

"§ 126-102. Criteria for disqualification.

(a) Except as otherwise required by law, no person shall be disqualified from public employment solely or in part because of a prior conviction, unless the conviction is determined to be substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the position after consideration of all of the following factors:
