1 . . . 2 When and Where Preliminary Hearing on Post-Release Supervision Violation (b) 3 Required. - Unless the hearing required by subsection (e) of this section is first held or a 4 continuance is requested by the supervisee, a preliminary hearing on supervision violation shall be 5 held reasonably near the place of the alleged violation or arrest and within seven working days of 6 the arrest of a supervisee to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the 7 supervisee violated a condition of post-release supervision. The preliminary hearing for violations 8 of post-release supervision may be conducted by videoconference. Otherwise, the supervisee shall 9 be released seven working days after arrest to continue on supervision pending a hearing. If the 10 supervisee is not within the State, the preliminary hearing is as prescribed by G.S. 148-65.1A. . . .

12 (e) Revocation Hearing. – Before finally revoking post-release supervision, the 13 Commission shall, unless the supervisee waived the hearing or the time limit, provide a hearing 14 within 45 days of the supervisee's reconfinement to determine whether to revoke supervision 15 finally. For purposes of this subsection, the 45-day period begins when the preliminary hearing 16 required by subsection (b) of this section is held or waived, or upon the passage of seven working 17 days after arrest, whichever is sooner. The revocation hearing for violations of post-release supervision may be conducted by videoconference. The Commission shall adopt rules governing 18 19 the hearing."

20 SECTION 4.(c) G.S. 15A-1376 reads as rewritten: 21

"§ 15A-1376. Arrest and hearing on parole violation.

22 (a) Arrest for Violation of Parole. - A parolee is subject to arrest by a law-enforcement 23 officer or a parole officer for violation of conditions of parole only upon the issuance of an order 24 of temporary or conditional revocation of parole by the Post-Release Supervision and Parole 25 Commission. However, a parole revocation hearing under subsection (e) may be held without first 26 arresting the parolee.

27 When and Where Preliminary Hearing on Parole Violation Required. - Unless the (b)28 hearing required by subsection (e) is first held or a continuance is requested by the parolee, a 29 preliminary hearing on parole violation must be held reasonably near the place of the alleged 30 violation or arrest and within seven working days of the arrest of a parolee to determine whether 31 there is probable cause to believe that he violated a condition of parole. The preliminary hearing 32 for violations of parole may be conducted by videoconference. Otherwise, the parolee must be 33 released seven working days after his arrest to continue on parole pending a hearing. If the parolee 34 is not within the State, his preliminary hearing is as prescribed by G.S. 148-65.1A.

35 Officers to Conduct Hearing. - The preliminary hearing on parole violation must be (c)36 conducted by a judicial official, or by a hearing officer designated by the Post-Release Supervision 37 and Parole Commission. No person employed by the Division of Adult Correction of the 38 Department of Public Safety may serve as a hearing officer at a hearing provided in this section 39 unless he is a member of the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission or is employed 40 solely as a hearing officer.

41 Procedure for Preliminary Hearing on Parole Violation. - The Division of Adult (d) 42 Correction of the Department of Public Safety must give the parolee notice of the preliminary 43 hearing and its purpose, including a statement of the violations alleged. At the hearing, the parolee 44 may appear and speak in his own behalf, may present relevant information, and may, on request, 45 personally question witnesses and adverse informants, unless the hearing officer finds good cause for not allowing confrontation. If the person holding the hearing determines there is probable 46 47 cause to believe the parolee violated his parole, he must summarize the reasons for his 48 determination and the evidence he relied on. Formal rules of evidence do not apply at the hearing. 49 If probable cause is found, the parolee may be held in the custody of the Division of Adult 50 Correction of the Department of Public Safety to serve the appropriate term of imprisonment, 51 subject to the outcome of a revocation hearing under subsection (e).

1 Revocation Hearing. – Before finally revoking parole, the Post-Release Supervision (e) 2 and Parole Commission must, unless the parolee waived the hearing or the time limit, provide a 3 hearing within 45 days of the parolee's reconfinement to determine whether to revoke parole 4 finally. The revocation hearing may be conducted by videoconference. The Post-Release 5 Supervision and Parole Commission must adopt rules governing the hearing." 6 7 PART V. CLARIFY CONFINEMENT IN RESPONSE TO VIOLATION 8 SECTION 5. G.S. 15-196.2 reads as rewritten: 9 "§ 15-196.2. Allowance in cases of multiple sentences. 10 In the event time creditable under this section shall have been spent in custody as the result of 11 more than one pending charge, resulting in imprisonment for more than one offense, credit shall be allowed as herein provided. Consecutive sentences shall be considered as one sentence for the 12 13 purpose of providing credit, and the creditable time shall not be multiplied by the number of 14 consecutive offenses for which a defendant is imprisoned. Each concurrent sentence shall be 15 credited with so much of the time as was spent in custody due to the offense resulting in the 16 sentence. When both concurrent and consecutive sentences are imposed, both of the above rules 17 shall obtain to the applicable extent. Upon revocation of two or more consecutive sentences as a result of a probation violation, 18 19 credit for time served on concurrent confinements in response to violation under G.S. 15A-1344(d2) shall be credited to only one sentence." 20 21 22 PART VI. AMEND APPLICATION FOR ISSUANCE OF REQUISITION TO INCLUDE 23 POST-RELEASE SUPERVISION 24 SECTION 6. G.S. 15A-743(b) reads as rewritten: 25 When the return to this State is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime "(b) 26 in this State and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation 27 probation, post-release supervision, or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the 28 offense was committed, the parole board, or Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, the 29 Director of Prisons Prisons, the Director of Community Corrections, or sheriff of the county from 30 which escape was made, shall present to the Governor a written application for a requisition for 31 the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of 32 which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement or of the breach of the 33 terms of his bail, probation or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location 34 of the person therein at the time application is made." 35 36 PART VII. CLARIFY CONTINUANCE OF SUPERVISION UPON APPEAL OF 37 ACTIVATED SENTENCE 38 SECTION 7. G.S. 15A-1347(c) reads as rewritten: 39 If a defendant appeals an activation of a sentence as a result of a finding of a violation "(c) 40 of probation by the district or superior court, court and is released pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, probation supervision will continue under the same 41 42 conditions until the termination date of the supervision period expiration of the period of probation 43 or disposition of the appeal, whichever comes first." 44 45 PART VIII. UPDATE CURRENT TERMINOLOGY 46 SECTION 8.(a) G.S. 15-190(a) reads as rewritten: 47 Some guard or guards or Correction custody personnel or some other reliable person or "(a) persons to be named and designated by the warden from time to time shall cause the person, 48 49 convict or felon against whom the death sentence has been so pronounced to be executed as 50 provided by this Article and all amendments thereto. The execution shall be under the general 51 supervision and control of the warden of the penitentiary, who shall from time to time, in writing,

General Assembly Of North Carolina

name and designate the guard or guards correctional custody personnel or other reliable person or 1 2 persons who shall cause the person, convict or felon against whom the death sentence has been 3 pronounced to be executed as provided by this Article and all amendments thereto. At such 4 execution there shall be present the warden or deputy warden or some person designated by the 5 warden in the warden's place, and a licensed physician, or a medical professional other than a physician, to monitor the injection of the required lethal substances and certify the fact of the 6 7 execution. If a licensed physician is not present at the execution, then a licensed physician shall be 8 present on the premises and available to examine the body after the execution and pronounce the 9 person dead. Four respectable citizens, two members of the victim's family, the counsel and any 10 relatives of such person, convict or felon and a minister or member of the clergy or religious 11 leader of the person's choosing may be present if they so desire. The identities, including the 12 names, residential addresses, residential telephone numbers, and social security numbers, of 13 witnesses or persons designated to carry out the execution shall be confidential and exempted from 14 Chapter 132 of the General Statutes and are not subject to discovery or introduction as evidence in any proceeding. The Senior Resident Superior Court Judge for Wake County may order disclosure 15 of names made confidential by this section after making findings that support a conclusion that 16 17 disclosure is necessary to a proper administration of justice.

For purposes of this section, a "medical professional other than a physician" means a physician assistant, nurse practitioner, registered nurse, emergency medical technician, or emergency medical technician-paramedic who is licensed or credentialed by the licensing board, agency, or organization responsible for licensing or credentialing that profession."

SECTION 8.(b) G.S. 15-195 reads as rewritten:

23 "§ 15-195. Prisoner taken to place of trial when new trial granted.

Should a new trial be granted the condemned person, convict or felon against whom sentence of death has been pronounced, after he has been conveyed to the penitentiary, he shall be conveyed back to the place of trial by such guard or guards-correctional custody personnel as the warden of the penitentiary shall direct, their expenses to be paid as is now provided by law for the conveyance of convicts to the penitentiary."

29

SECTION 8.(c) G.S. 148-23 reads as rewritten:

30 "§ 148-23. Prison employees not to use intoxicants, narcotic drugs or profanity.

31 No one addicted to the use of alcoholic beverages, or narcotic drugs, shall be employed as 32 superintendent, warden, guard, or in any other position connected with the Division of Adult 33 Correction of the Department of Public Safety, where such position requires the incumbent to have 34 any charge or direction of the prisoners; and anyone holding such position, or anyone who may be 35 employed in any other capacity in the State prison system, who shall come under the influence of 36 alcoholic beverages during hours of employment, or reports for duty under the effect of 37 intoxicants, or narcotic drugs, or who shall become intoxicated, or uses narcotic drugs, under 38 circumstances that bring discredit on the Division of Adult Correction of the Department of Public 39 Safety, shall be subject to immediate dismissal from employment by any of the institutions and 40 shall not be eligible for reinstatement to such position or be employed in any other position in any 41 of the institutions. Any superintendent, warden, guard, correctional officer, supervisor, or other 42 person holding any position in the Division of Adult Correction of the Department of Public 43 Safety who curses a prisoner under his charge shall be subject to immediate dismissal from 44 employment and shall not be eligible for reinstatement."

SECTION 8.(d) G.S. 148-46(a) reads as rewritten:

46 "(a) When any prisoner, or several combined shall offer violence to any officer, overseer, or 47 guard, correctional officer, or to any fellow prisoner, or attempt to do any injury to the prison 48 building, or to any workshop, or other equipment, or shall attempt to escape, or shall resist, or 49 disobey any lawful command, the officer, overseer, or guard-correctional officer shall use any 50 means necessary to defend himself, or to enforce the observance of discipline, or to secure the 51 person of the offender, and to prevent an escape."

PART IX. CLARIFY PISTOL PURCHASE PERMIT REQUIREMENT FOR PROBATION OFFICERS
SECTION 9.(a) G.S. 14-404(d) reads as rewritten:
"(d) Nothing in this Article shall apply to officers authorized by law to carry firearms if the officers identify themselves to the vendor or donor as being officers authorized by law to carry firearms and provide any of the following:
(1) A letter signed by the officer's supervisor or superior officer stating that the officer is authorized by law to carry a firearm.
(2) A current photographic identification card issued by the officer's employer.
(2) A current photographic identification card issued by a State agency that identifies the individual as a law enforcement officer or a probation and parole officer certified by the State of North Carolina.
(4) A current identification card issued by the officer's employer and another form of current photographic identification."
SECTION 9.(b) G.S. 20-187.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:
"(c) For purposes of this section, certified probation and parole officers shall be considered members of a North Carolina State law enforcement agency."
PART X. PROVIDE THE BASE AWARD FOR RECIDIVISM REDUCTION SERVICES
(RRS) VENDORS UPON INITIATION OF SERVICES
SECTION 10. G.S. 143B-1156 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:
"(e) The Division of Adult Correction shall pay service providers the contract base award upon the initiation of services with the remaining payments made as milestones are reached as stated in the contract for services. If the service provider cancels or terminates the contract prior to its conclusion, the service provider shall reimburse the Division for the unearned pro rata portion of the base award."
PART XI. EFFECTIVE DATE
SECTION 11. Sections 3, 4, 6, 9, and 10 of this act become effective July 1, 2016.
Sections 5 and 8 become effective December 1, 2016, and apply to probation violations occurring on or after that date. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2016, and applies to persons placed on probation or post-release supervision on or after that date

33 persons placed on probation or post-release supervision on or after that date.
