- 1 A correctional institution shall not use restraints on a prisoner or detainee known to (a) 2 be pregnant, including during labor, transport to a medical facility, delivery, and postpartum 3 recovery, unless the corrections official makes an individualized determination that the prisoner 4 or detainee presents an extraordinary circumstance, except that: 5 If the doctor, nurse, or other health professional treating the prisoner or (1) 6 detainee requests that restraints not be used, the corrections officer 7 accompanying the prisoner or detainee shall immediately remove all 8 restraints. 9 (2)
 - Under no circumstances shall leg or waist restraints be used on any prisoner or detainee who is in labor or delivery.
 - If restraints are used on a prisoner or detainee pursuant to subsection (a) of this (b) section:
 - The type of restraint applied and the application of the restraint shall be (1) accomplished in the least restrictive manner necessary.
 - The corrections official shall make written findings within 10 days as to the (2) extraordinary circumstance that dictated the use of the restraints. These findings shall be kept on file by the correctional institution for at least five years and be made available for public inspection, except that no individually identifying information of any prisoner or detainee shall be made public under this Article without the prisoner or detainee's prior written consent."
 - SECTION 2. All correctional facilities in the State shall develop the rules mandated under this act within 30 days of the date this act becomes law and shall inform prisoners and detainees within their custody of those rules within 60 days of the date this act becomes law.
 - SECTION 3. There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Public Safety the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) in recurring funds to be allocated to policy implementation, education, and training of the procedures outlined in Section 1 of this act.
 - SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.
