11 (a) Mandatory Expunction. – A defendant shall be entitled to an expungement of a 50B
12 complaint and all materials associated with the 50B civil action when:

13 (1) After a hearing or other regular court proceeding where evidence is 14 presented by one or both parties, the judge finds that the defendant did not 15 commit acts of domestic violence, as alleged in the complaint pursuant to 16 Chapter 50B of the General Statutes; or

17 (2) A voluntary dismissal is filed or taken in favor of the defendant by the 18 plaintiff in an action pursuant to Chapter 50B of the General Statutes.

19 (b) Permissive Expunction. – A defendant against whom a 50B domestic violence
20 protective order is extended for some period of time by a judge of competent jurisdiction may 21 be allowed an expunction upon a showing by the defendant of all of the following factors:

22 (1) That at least three years have passed since the date that the ex parte order
23 was entered against the defendant.

24 (2) That no other 50B orders have been issued against the defendant and no
25 other violent or domestic related crimes have been charged against the 26 defendant since the date that the last domestic violence order was entered 27 against the defendant.

28 (3) That the defendant has taken a domestic violence intervention program or 29 similar program.

30 (4) That the defendant has not been convicted of any substance abuse or alcohol
31 related offense since the date that the last domestic violence order was 32 entered against the defendant.

33 (5) That the defendant has had no further violent incidents with the victim in the 34 case that the defendant is attempting to expunge.

35 (6) Any and all other factors that the court deems appropriate to consider in this 36 matter, including any evidence of good character."
