"SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful to discharge a firearm, bow and arrow, crossbow, or any other deadly weapon to hunt or kill any wild animal or wild bird on, from, or across the right-of-way of any State maintained road or highway, without written permission from the adjoining landowners or lessees of the land abutting the road across which the weapon is being discharged. This prohibition shall not apply to persons who have a permit issued by the Wildlife Resources Commission to persons who have a handicap that limits physical mobility if the road or highway right-of-way in question is part of game land managed by the Wildlife Resources Commission."
