 18 facts stated in an affidavit, a stay would cause imminent peril to life or 19 property or because the violation is transitory in nature, a stay would seriously 20 interfere with enforcement of the ordinance. In that case, enforcement 21 proceedings shall not be stayed except by a restraining order, which may be 22 granted by a court. If enforcement proceedings are not stayed, the appellant 23 may file with the official a request for an expedited hearing of the appeal, and 24 the board of adjustment shall meet to hear the appeal within 15 days after such 25 a request is filed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, appeals of decisions granting 26 a permit or otherwise affirming that a proposed use of property is consistent 27 with the ordinance shall not stay the further review of an application for 28 permits or permissions to use such property; in these situations the appellant 29 may request and the board may grant a stay of a final decision of permit 30 applications or building permits affected by the issue being appealed.

32 SECTION 7. Part 3 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended 33 by adding a new section to read:

34 "§ 160A-393.1 Civil action for declaratory relief, injunctive relief, other remedies; joinder
 35 of complaint and petition for writ of certiorari in certain cases.

36 (a) Review of Vested Rights Claim. – A person claiming a statutory or common law 37 vested right may submit information to substantiate that claim to the zoning administrator or 38 other officer designated by a land development regulation, who shall make an initial 39 determination as to the existence of the vested right. The zoning administrator's or officer's 40 determination may be appealed under G.S. 160A-388(b1). On appeal, the question of law 41 regarding the existence of a vested right shall be reviewed de novo. In lieu of an appeal under 42 G.S. 160A-388(b1), a person claiming a vested right may bring an original civil action as 43 provided by subsection (b) of this section.

44 (b) Civil Action. – Except as otherwise provided in this section for claims involving 45 questions of interpretation, in lieu of any remedies available under G.S. 160A-388(b1), a person 46 with standing, as defined in subsection (c) of this section, may bring an original civil action 47 seeking declaratory relief, injunctive relief, damages, or any other remedies provided by law or 48 equity, in superior court or federal court to challenge the enforceability, validity, or effect of a 49 local land development regulation for any of the following claims:

50 (1) The ordinance, either on its face or as applied, is unconstitutional.

1           (2)    The ordinance, either on its face or as applied, is ultra vires, preempted, or 2           otherwise in excess of statutory authority.

3           (3)    The ordinance, either on its face or as applied, constitutes a taking of property.

4           If the decision being challenged is from an administrative official charged with enforcement 5 of a local land development regulation, the party with standing must first bring any claim that the 6 ordinance was erroneously interpreted to the applicable board of adjustment pursuant to 7 G.S. 160A-388(b1). An adverse ruling from the board of adjustment may then be challenged in 8 an action brought pursuant to this subsection with the court hearing the matter de novo together 9 with any of the claims listed in this subsection.

10          (c)    Standing. – Any of the following criteria shall provide standing to bring an action 11 under this section:

12           (1)    The person has an ownership, leasehold, or easement interest in, or possesses 13 an option or contract to, purchase the property that is the subject matter of a 14 final and binding decision made by an administrative official charged with 15 applying or enforcing a land development regulation.

16           (2)    The person was a development permit applicant before the decision-making 17 board whose decision is being challenged.

18           (3)    The person was a development permit applicant who is aggrieved by a final 19 and binding decision of an administrative official charged with applying or 20 enforcing a land development regulation.

21          (d)    Time for Commencement of Action. – Any action brought pursuant to this section 22 shall be commenced within one year after the date on which written notice of the final decision 23 is delivered to the aggrieved party by personal delivery, electronic mail, or by first-class mail.

24          (e)    Joinder. – An original civil action authorized by this section may, for convenience 25 and economy, be joined with a petition for writ of certiorari and decided in the same proceedings.
26 For the claims raised in the original civil action, the parties shall be governed by the Rules of 27 Civil Procedure. The record of proceedings in the appeal pursuant to G.S. 160A-393 may not be 28 supplemented by discovery from the civil action unless supplementation is otherwise allowed 29 under G.S. 160A-393(j). The standard of review in the original civil action for the cause or causes 30 of action pled as authorized by subsection (b) of this section shall be de novo. The standard of 31 review of the petition for writ of certiorari shall be as established in G.S. 160A-393(k).

32          (f)    For the purposes of this section, the definitions in G.S. 143-755 shall apply."

33           SECTION 8. G.S. 160A-364.1 reads as rewritten:

34           "§ 160A-364.1. Statute of limitations.

35           ...

36           (c)    Nothing in this section or in G.S. 1-54(10) or G.S. 1-54.1 shall bar a party in an action 37 involving the enforcement of a zoning or unified development ordinance or in an action 38 authorized by G.S. 160A-393.1 from raising as a claim or defense to such enforcement action in 39 such proceedings the enforceability or the invalidity of the ordinance. Nothing in this section or 40 in G.S. 1-54(10) or G.S. 1-54.1 shall bar a party who files a timely appeal from an order, 41 requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official contending that such 42 party is in violation of a zoning or unified development ordinance from raising in the appeal the 43 invalidity of such ordinance as a defense to such order, requirement, decision, or determination.
44 A party in an enforcement action or appeal may not assert the invalidity of the ordinance on the 45 basis of an alleged defect in the adoption process unless the defense is formally raised within 46 three years of the adoption of the challenged ordinance.

47           ...."

48           SECTION 9. G.S. 160A-393 reads as rewritten:

49           "§ 160A-393. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

50           ...

1 (j) Hearing on the Record. – The court shall hear and decide all issues raised by the 2 petition by reviewing the record submitted in accordance with subsection ~~(h)~~(i) of this section.
3 Except that the court ~~may, in its discretion, shall~~ allow the record to be supplemented with 4 affidavits, testimony of witnesses, or documentary or other evidence if, and to the extent that, the 5 ~~record is not adequate to allow an appropriate determination~~ petition raises any of the following 6 issues: issues, in which case the rules of discovery set forth in the North Carolina Rules of Civil 7 Procedure shall apply to the supplementation of the record of said issues:

8 (1) Whether a petitioner or intervenor has standing.

9 (2) Whether, as a result of impermissible conflict as described in 10 G.S. 160A-388(e)(2), or locally adopted conflict rules, the decision-making 11 body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles.

12 (3) Whether the decision-making body erred for the reasons set forth in 13 sub-subdivisions a. and b. of subdivision (1) of subsection (k) of this section.

14 (k) Scope of Review. –

15 (1) When reviewing the decision of a decision-making board under the provisions 16 of this section, the court shall ensure that the rights of petitioners have not 17 been prejudiced because the decision-making body's findings, inferences, 18 conclusions, or decisions were:

19 a. In violation of constitutional provisions, including those protecting 20 procedural due process rights.

21 b. In excess of the statutory authority conferred upon the ~~city~~city, 22 including preemption, or the authority conferred upon the 23 decision-making board by ordinance.

24 c. Inconsistent with applicable procedures specified by statute or 25 ordinance.

26 d. Affected by other error of law.

27 e. Unsupported by substantial competent evidence in view of the entire 28 record.

29 f. Arbitrary or capricious.

30 (2) When the issue before the court is one set forth in sub-subdivisions a. through 31 d. of subdivision (1) of this subsection, including whether the decision-making 32 board erred in interpreting an ordinance, the court shall review that issue de 33 novo. The court shall consider the interpretation of the decision-making board, 34 but is not bound by that interpretation, and may freely substitute its judgment 35 as appropriate.

36 (3) The term "competent evidence," as used in this subsection, shall not preclude 37 reliance by the decision-making board on evidence that would not be 38 admissible under the rules of evidence as applied in the trial division of the 39 General Court of Justice if (i) except for the items noted in sub-subdivisions 40 a., b., and c. of this subdivision that are conclusively incompetent, the 41 evidence was admitted without objection or (ii) the evidence appears to be 42 sufficiently trustworthy and was admitted under such circumstances that it 43 was reasonable for the decision-making board to rely upon it. The term 44 "competent evidence," as used in this subsection, shallshall, regardless of the 45 lack of a timely objection, not be deemed to include the opinion testimony of 46 lay witnesses as to any of the following:

47 a. The use of property in a particular way would affect the value of other 48 property.

49 b. The increase in vehicular traffic resulting from a proposed 50 development would pose a danger to the public safety.

1 c. Matters about which only expert testimony would generally be 2 admissible under the rules of evidence.

3 (l) Decision of the Court. – Following its review of the decision-making board in 4 accordance with subsection (k) of this section, the court may affirm the decision, reverse the 5 decision and remand the case with appropriate instructions, or remand the case for further 6 proceedings. If the court does not affirm the decision below in its entirety, then the court shall be 7 guided by the following in determining what relief should be granted to the petitioners:

8 (1) If the court concludes that the error committed by the decision-making board 9 is procedural only, the court may remand the case for further proceedings to 10 correct the procedural error.

11 (2) If the court concludes that the decision-making board has erred by failing to 12 make findings of fact such that the court cannot properly perform its function, 13 then the court may remand the case with appropriate instructions so long as 14 the record contains substantial competent evidence that could support the 15 decision below with appropriate findings of fact. However, findings of fact 16 are not necessary when the record sufficiently reveals the basis for the 17 decision below or when the material facts are undisputed and the case presents 18 only an issue of law.

19 (3) If the court concludes that the decision by the decision-making board is not 20 supported by substantial competent evidence in the record or is based upon an 21 error of law, then the court may remand the case with an order that directs the 22 decision-making board to take whatever action should have been taken had 23 the error not been committed or to take such other action as is necessary to 24 correct the error. Specifically:

25 a. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully denied because the 26 denial was not based on substantial competent evidence or was 27 otherwise based on an error of law, the court ~~may shall~~ remand with 28 instructions that the permit be issued, subject to ~~reasonable and~~ 29 ~~appropriate conditions.~~ any conditions expressly consented to by the 30 permit applicant as part of the application or during the board of 31 adjustment appeal or writ of certiorari appeal.

32 b. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully issued because the 33 issuance was not based on substantial competent evidence or was 34 otherwise based on an error of law, the court may remand with 35 instructions that the permit be revoked.

36 c. If the court concludes that a zoning board decision upholding a zoning 37 enforcement action was not supported by substantial competent 38 evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court shall 39 reverse the decision.

41 SECTION 10. Part 3 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is 42 amended by adding a new section to read:

43 "§ 160A-393.2. No estoppel effect when challenging development conditions.

44 A city or county may not assert before a board of adjustment or in any civil action the defense 45 of estoppel as a result of actions by the landowner or permit applicant to proceed with 46 development authorized by a rezoning or a development permit as defined in G.S. 143-755 if the 47 landowner or permit applicant is challenging conditions that were illegally imposed."

48 SECTION 11. G.S. 6-21.7 reads as rewritten:

49 "§ 6-21.7. Attorneys' fees; cities or counties acting outside the scope of their authority.

50 In any action in which a city or county is a party, upon a finding by the court that the city or 51 county acted ~~outside the scope of its legal authority,~~ violated a statute or case law setting forth

1 unambiguous limits on its authority, the court may shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and 2 costs to the party who successfully challenged the city's or county's action, provided that if the 3 court also finds that the city's or county's action was an abuse of its discretion, the court shall 4 award attorneys' fees and costs. In any action in which a city or county is a party, upon 5 finding by the court that the city or county took action inconsistent with, or in violation of, 6 G.S. 160A-360.1, 153A-320.1, or 143-755, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and 7 costs to the party who successfully challenged the local government's failure to comply with any 8 of those provisions. In all other matters, the court may award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs 9 to the prevailing private litigant. For purposes of this section, "unambiguous" means that the 10 limits of authority are not reasonably susceptible to multiple constructions."

11 SECTION 12. G.S. 160A-381 reads as rewritten:

12 "§ 160A-381. Grant of power.

13 ...

14 (c) The regulations may also provide that the board of adjustment, the planning board, or 15 the city council may issue special use permits or conditional use permits in the classes of cases 16 or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions, safeguards, and procedures 17 specified therein and may impose reasonable and appropriate conditions and safeguards upon 18 these permits. Conditions and safeguards imposed under this subsection shall not include 19 requirements for which the city does not have authority under statute to regulate nor requirements 20 for which the courts have held to be unenforceable if imposed directly by the ~~city~~-city, including, 21 without limitation, taxes, impact fees, building design elements within the scope of subsection 22 (h) of this section not voluntarily offered by the petitioner, street improvements in excess of those 23 allowed in G.S. 160A-372, driveway-related improvements in excess of those allowed in 24 G.S. 136-18(29) and G.S. 160A-307, or other unauthorized limitations on the development or 25 use of land. When deciding special use permits or conditional use permits, the city council or 26 planning board shall follow quasi-judicial procedures. Notice of hearings on special or 27 conditional use permit applications shall be as provided in G.S. 160A-388(a2). No vote greater 28 than a majority vote shall be required for the city council or planning board to issue such permits.
29 For the purposes of this section, vacant positions on the board and members who are disqualified 30 from voting on a quasi-judicial matter shall not be considered "members of the board" for 31 calculation of the requisite majority. Every such decision of the city council or planning board 32 shall be subject to review of the superior court in the nature of certiorari in accordance with 33 G.S. 160A-388.

34 Where appropriate, such conditions may include requirements that street and utility 35 rights-of-way be dedicated to the public and that provision be made of recreational space and 36 facilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a development permit authorized pursuant 37 to this subsection shall not be denied on the basis that existing public facilities are inadequate to 38 serve the property described in the permit application regardless of the type of use or 39 development of said property.

40 ...."

41 SECTION 13. G.S. 153A-340 reads as rewritten:

42 "§ 153A-340. Grant of power.

43 ...

44 (c1) The regulations may also provide that the board of adjustment, the planning board, or 45 the board of commissioners may issue special use permits or conditional use permits in the 46 classes of cases or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions, safeguards, and 47 procedures specified therein and may impose reasonable and appropriate conditions and 48 safeguards upon these permits. Conditions and safeguards imposed under this subsection shall 49 not include requirements for which the county does not have authority under statute to regulate 50 nor requirements for which the courts have held to be unenforceable if imposed directly by the 51 ~~county~~-county, including, without limitation, taxes, impact fees, building design elements within

1 the scope of subsection (l) of this section not voluntarily offered by the petitioner, street 2 improvements in excess of those allowed in G.S. 160A-372, driveway-related improvements in 3 excess of those allowed in G.S. 136-18(29), or other unauthorized limitations on the development
 4 or use of land. Where appropriate, the conditions may include requirements that street and utility 5 rights-of-way be dedicated to the public and that recreational space be provided. Notwithstanding 6 anything to the contrary, a development permit authorized pursuant to this subsection shall not 7 be denied on the basis that existing public facilities are inadequate to serve the property described 8 in the permit application regardless of the type of use or development of said property. When 9 deciding special use permits or conditional use permits, the board of county commissioners or 10 planning board shall follow quasi-judicial procedures. Notice of hearings on special or 11 conditional use permit applications shall be as provided in G.S. 160A-388(a2). No vote greater 12 than a majority vote shall be required for the board of county commissioners or planning board 13 to issue such permits. For the purposes of this section, vacant positions on the board and members 14 who are disqualified from voting on a quasi-judicial matter shall not be considered "members of 15 the board" for calculation of the requisite majority. Every such decision of the board of county 16 commissioners or planning board shall be subject to review of the superior court in the nature of 17 certiorari consistent with G.S. 160A-388.

19 SECTION 14. G.S. 160A-382 reads as rewritten:

20 "§ 160A-382. Districts.

21 ...

22 (b) Property may be placed in a special use district, conditional use district, or conditional
 23 district only in response to a petition by the owners of all the property to be included. Specific 24 conditions applicable to these districts may be proposed by the petitioner or the city or its 25 agencies, but only those conditions mutually approved by the city and the petitioner may be 26 incorporated into the zoning regulations or permit ~~requirements~~. requirements; provided, 27 however, notwithstanding any provision of law or regulation to the contrary, in the exercise of 28 the authority granted by this section, including the establishment of special or conditional use 29 districts or conditional zoning, a city may not require, enforce, or incorporate into the zoning 30 regulations or permit requirements any condition or requirement not authorized by otherwise 31 applicable law, including, without limitation, taxes, impact fees, building design elements within 32 the scope of G.S. 160A-381(h) that are not voluntarily offered by the petitioner, street

 34 excess of those allowed in G.S. 136-18(29) and G.S. 160A-307, or other unauthorized limitations 35 on the development or use of land. Conditions and site-specific standards imposed in a 36 conditional district shall be limited to those that address the conformance of the development and 37 use of the site to city ordinances and an officially adopted comprehensive or other plan and those 38 that address the impacts reasonably expected to be generated by the development or use of the 39 site.

40 A statement analyzing the reasonableness of the proposed rezoning shall be prepared for each 41 petition for a rezoning to a special or conditional use district, or a conditional district, or other 42 small-scale rezoning.

47 (b) Property may be placed in a special use district, conditional use district, or conditional
 48 district only in response to a petition by the owners of all the property to be included. Specific 49 conditions applicable to the districts may be proposed by the petitioner or the county or its 50 agencies, but only those conditions mutually approved by the county and the petitioner may be 51 incorporated into the zoning regulations or permit ~~requirements~~. requirements; provided,

1 however, notwithstanding any provision of law or regulation to the contrary, in the exercise of
 2 the authority granted by this section, including the establishment of special or conditional use 3 districts or conditional zoning, a county may not require, enforce, or incorporate into the zoning
 4 regulations or permit requirements any condition or requirement not authorized by otherwise
 5 applicable law, including, without limitation, taxes, impact fees, building design elements within

 8 excess of those allowed in G.S. 136-18(29), or other unauthorized limitations on the development
 9 or use of land. Conditions and site-specific standards imposed in a conditional district shall be 10 limited to those that address the conformance of the development and use of the site to county 11 ordinances and an officially adopted comprehensive or other plan and those that address the 12 impacts reasonably expected to be generated by the development or use of the site.

13 A statement analyzing the reasonableness of the proposed rezoning shall be prepared for each

 21 require the construction or reimbursement of the cost of construction and public dedication of 22 medians, acceleration and deceleration lanes, and traffic storage lanes for driveway connections 23 into any street or alley ~~if~~ if all of the following apply:

24 (1) The need for such improvements is reasonably attributable to the traffic using 26 (2) The improvements serve the traffic of the driveway.

27 (b) No street or alley under the control of the Department of Transportation may be

47 SECTION 18. Sections 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 17 of this act 48 clarify and restate the intent of existing law and apply to ordinances adopted before, on, and after 49 the effective date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law and applies to 50 zoning map amendment applications submitted and appeals filed on or after that date.
