D

General Assembly Of North Carolina

1 It shall be unlawful for any person to present for filing or recording in a public record (a) 2 or a private record generally available to the public a false lien or encumbrance against the real 3 or personal property of a public officer, a public employee, or an immediate family member of 4 the public officer or public employee on account of the performance of the public officer or 5 public employee's official duties, an owner or beneficial interest holder, knowing or having reason to know that the lien or encumbrance is false or contains a materially false, fictitious, or 6 7 fraudulent statement or representation. For purposes of this subsection, the term "immediate 8 family member" means a spouse or a child. Any person who violates this subsection shall be 9 guilty of a Class I felony.

10 When presented to the register of deeds for recording, if a register of deeds has a (b) 11 reasonable suspicion that the an instrument purporting to be a lien or encumbrance is materially false, as described in subsection (a) of this section, fictitious, or fraudulent, the register of deeds 12 13 may refuse to record the purported lien or encumbrance. Neither the register of deeds nor any 14 other entity shall be liable for recording or the refusal to record a purported lien or encumbrance as described in subsection (a) of this section. If the recording of the purported lien or 15 encumbrance is denied, the register of deeds shall allow the recording of a Notice of Denied Lien 16 17 or Encumbrance Filing on a form adopted by the Secretary of State, for which no filing fee shall 18 be collected. The Notice of Denied Lien or Encumbrance Filing shall not itself constitute a lien 19 or encumbrance. When recording is denied, any interested person may initiate a special 20 proceeding in the county where the recording was denied within ten (10) business days of the 21 filing of the Notice of Denied Lien or Encumbrance Filing asking the superior court of the 22 respective county to find that the proposed recording has a statutory or contractual basis and to 23 order that the document be recorded. If, after hearing, upon a minimum of five (5) days' notice 24 as provided in Rule 5 of the Rules of Civil Procedure and opportunity to be heard to all interested 25 persons and all persons claiming an ownership interest in the property, the court finds that there 26 is a statutory or contractual basis for the proposed recording, the court shall order the document 27 recorded. recorded, and the party submitting the instrument shall pay the filing fee in accordance 28 with G.S. 161-10. A lien or encumbrance recorded upon order of the court under this subsection 29 shall have a priority interest as of the time of the filing of the Notice of Denied Lien or 30 Encumbrance Filing. If the court finds that there is no statutory or contractual basis for the 31 proposed recording, the court shall enter an order finding that the proposed recording is null and void and that it shall not be filed, indexed, or recorded and a certified copy of that order shall be 32 33 recorded by the register of deeds that originally denied the recording. recording, for which the 34 party who submitted the instrument shall pay the filing fee in accordance with G.S. 161-10. The 35 review by the judge under this subsection shall not be deemed a finding as to any underlying 36 claim of the parties involved. If a special proceeding is not initiated under this subsection within 37 ten (10) business days of the filing of the Notice of Denied Lien or Encumbrance Filing, the 38 purported lien or encumbrance is deemed null and void as a matter of law.

39 When a purported lien or encumbrance is presented to a clerk of superior court for (b1) 40 filing and the clerk of court has a reasonable suspicion that the purported lien or encumbrance is false as described in subsection (a) of this section, the clerk of court may refuse to file the 41 42 purported lien or encumbrance. Neither the clerk of court nor the clerk's staff shall be liable for 43 filing or the refusal to file a purported lien or encumbrance under this subsection. The clerk of superior court shall not file, index, or docket the document against the property of a public officer 44 45 or public employee until that document is approved by any judge of the judicial district having 46 subject matter jurisdiction for filing by the clerk of superior court. If the judge determines that 47 the filing is not false, the clerk shall index the claim of lien. A lien or encumbrance filed upon 48 order of the court under this subsection shall have a priority interest as of the date and time of 49 indexing by the clerk of superior court. If the court finds that there is no statutory or contractual 50 basis for the proposed filing, the court shall enter an order that the proposed filing is null and void as a matter of law, and that it shall not be filed or indexed. The clerk of superior court shall 51

General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2019 1 serve the order and return the original denied filing to the person or entity that presented it. The 2 person or entity shall have 30 days from the entry of the order to appeal the order. If the order is 3 not appealed within the applicable time period, the clerk may destroy the filing. 4 Upon being presented with an order duly issued by a court of competent jurisdiction (c) 5 of this State declaring that a lien or encumbrance already recorded or filed is false, as described 6 in subsection (a) of this section, and therefore null and void as a matter of law, the register of 7 deeds or clerk of court that received the recording or filing, in addition to recording or filing the 8 court's order finding the lien or encumbrance to be false, shall conspicuously mark on the first 9 page of the original record previously filed the following statement: "THE CLAIM ASSERTED 10 IN THIS DOCUMENT IS FALSE AND IS NOT PROVIDED FOR BY THE GENERAL LAWS 11 OF THIS STATE." 12 (d)In addition to any criminal penalties provided for in this section, a violation of this 13 section the presentation of an instrument for recording or filing with a register of deeds or clerk 14 of superior court that purports to be a lien or encumbrance that is determined to be materially 15 false, fictitious, or fraudulent shall constitute a violation of G.S. 75-1.1. 16 Subsections (b), (b1), and (c) of this section shall not apply to filings under Article 9 (e) 17 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes or under Chapter 44A of the General Statutes." 18 SECTION 4. G.S. 66-71.5 reads as rewritten: "§ 66-71.5. Contents of certificate. 19 20 An assumed business name certificate must include:include all of the following: (a) 21 The assumed business name, subject to the requirements of subsection (1)22 (b) of this section. 23 (2) A real name of the person engaging in business under the assumed business 24 name. If the business is a partnership other than a limited liability partnership 25 or limited partnership, the assumed business name certificate must include a 26 real name of five general partners or of each general partner, whichever is 27 fewer. 28 (3) The nature of the business. 29 The street address of the principal place of business.
