- 1 e. Qualified retirement facilities whose property is excluded from 2 property tax under G.S. 105-278.6A.
 3 f. A university-affiliated nonprofit organization that procures, designs, 4 constructs, or provides facilities to, or for use by, a constituent 5 institution of The University of North Carolina. For purposes of this 6 sub-subdivision, a nonprofit organization includes an entity exempt
 7 from taxation as a disregarded entity of the nonprofit organization.
 8 g. Over-the-counter drugs purchased for use in carrying out the work of 9 a hospital not listed in one of the sub-subdivisions of this subdivision.

10 This exemption provided in this subdivision includes indirect sales to a 11 nonprofit entity of digital property and tangible personal property purchased 12 by a real property contractor that becomes a part of or permanently installed
 13 or applied to any building or structure that is owned or leased by the nonprofit
 14 entity and is being erected, altered, or repaired for use by the nonprofit entity
 15 for carrying on its nonprofit activities. A sale to fulfill a real property contract
 16 with an entity that holds an exemption certificate is exempt to the same extent
 17 as if purchased directly by the entity that holds the exemption certificate. A 18 real property contractor that purchases an item allowed an exemption under 19 this subdivision must provide (i) an exemption certificate to the retailer that 20 includes the name of the nonprofit entity holding the exemption certificate, 21 (ii) the exemption certificate number issued to that holder, and (iii) the 22 information required pursuant to G.S. 105-164.28.

23 The exemption provided in this subdivision does not apply to (i) purchases
 24 of electricity, telecommunications service, ancillary service, piped natural gas, 25 video programming, a prepaid meal plan, aviation gasoline and jet fuel, and 26 spirituous liquor or (ii) sales and use tax liability indirectly paid by a nonprofit 27 entity through reimbursement to an authorized person of the entity for tax
 28 incurred by the person on an item or transaction subject to tax under Article 5
 29 of this Chapter.

30 The aggregate annual exemption amount allowed to an entity under this 31 subsection for a fiscal year may not exceed thirty-one million seven hundred 32 thousand dollars ($31,700,000) in tax. A real property contractor who pays 33 local sales and use taxes on property qualifying for an exemption under this 34 subdivision on behalf of an entity shall give the entity for whose project the 35 property was purchased a signed statement containing (i) the date the property 36 was purchased, (ii) the type of property purchased, (iii) the project for which 37 the property was used, (iv) if the property was purchased in this State, the 38 county in which it was purchased, and (v) if the property was not purchased 39 in this State, the county in which the property was used. If the property was 40 purchased in this State, the real property contractor shall attach a copy of the 41 sales or purchase receipt to the statement.

42"

43 SECTION 2. Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding 44 a new section to read:

45 "§ 105-164.29C. Nonprofit entity exemption process.

46 (a) Application. – To be eligible for the exemption provided in G.S. 105-164.13(52a), a 47 nonprofit entity must obtain from the Department a sales tax exemption number. The application
 48 for exemption must be in the form required by the Secretary, be signed by a person with authority 49 to bind the entity, and contain any information required by the Secretary. The Secretary must 50 assign a sales tax exemption number to a nonprofit entity that submits a proper application.

1 (b) Liability. – A nonprofit entity that does not use the items purchased with its exemption
2 number must pay the tax that should have been paid on the items purchased, plus interest
3 calculated from the date the tax would otherwise have been paid."

4 SECTION 3. G.S. 105-467(b) reads as rewritten:

5 "(b) Exemptions and Refunds. – The State exemptions and exclusions contained in Article
6 5 of Subchapter I of this Chapter, except for the exemption for food in G.S. 105-164.13B, apply
7 to the local sales and use tax authorized to be levied and imposed under this Article. The State
8 refund provisions contained in G.S. 105-164.14 and G.S. 105-164.14A apply to the local sales
9 and use tax authorized to be levied and imposed under this Article. A refund of an excessive or 10 erroneous State sales tax collection allowed under G.S. 105-164.11 and a refund of State sales
11 tax paid on a rescinded sale or cancelled service contract under G.S. 105-164.11A apply to the 12 local sales and use tax authorized to be levied and imposed under this Article. The aggregate
13 annual local ~~refund~~exemption amount allowed an entity under ~~G.S. 105-164.14(b)~~
14 G.S. 105-164.13(52a) for the State's fiscal year may not exceed thirteen million three hundred 15 thousand dollars ($13,300,000).

16 Except as provided in this subsection, a taxing county may not allow an exemption, exclusion,
17 or refund that is not allowed under the State sales and use tax. A local school administrative unit 18 and a joint agency created by interlocal agreement among local school administrative units 19 pursuant to G.S. 160A-462 to jointly purchase food service-related materials, supplies, and 20 equipment on their behalf is allowed an annual refund of sales and use taxes paid by it under this 21 Article on direct purchases of tangible personal property and services. Sales and use tax liability 22 indirectly incurred by the entity as part of a real property contract for real property that is owned 23 or leased by the entity and is a capital improvement for use by the entity is considered a sales or 24 use tax liability incurred on direct purchases by the entity for the purpose of this subsection. The 25 refund allowed under this subsection does not apply to purchases of electricity,
26 telecommunications service, ancillary service, piped natural gas, video programming, or a 27 prepaid meal plan. A request for a refund is due in the same time and manner as provided in 28 G.S. 105-164.14(c). Refunds applied for more than three years after the due date are barred."

29 SECTION 4. G.S. 105-236(a)(5a) reads as rewritten:

30 "(5a) Misuse of Exemption Certificate. – For misuse of an exemption certificate by 31 a purchaser, the Secretary shall assess a penalty equal to two hundred fifty 32 dollars ($250.00). An exemption certificate is a certificate issued by the 33 Secretary that authorizes a retailer to sell tangible personal property to the 34 holder of the certificate and either collect tax at a preferential rate or not collect 35 tax on the sale. Examples of an exemption certificate include a certificate of 36 exemption, a direct pay certificate, and a conditional exemption certificate.
37 Misuse under this subdivision includes improper use of a certificate of 38 exemption issued to a nonprofit entity pursuant to G.S. 105-164.29C for direct 39 and indirect purchases by the entity or another person."

40 SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2019, and applies to sales and 41 purchases made on or after that date and expires July 1, 2021, for sales and purchase made on or 42 after that date. This act does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another 43 person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this act before the effective date of its 44 amendment or repeal, nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued
45 under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal.
