* S 1 5 6 - P C S 4 5 4 9 7 - T C - 7 1 *

1 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to G.S. 116-312, an 2 institution of higher education shall have immunity from claims by an individual, if all of the 3 following apply:

4 (1) The claim arises out of or is in connection with tuition or fees paid to the 5 institution of higher education for the spring academic semester of 2020.

6 (2) The claim alleges losses or damages arising from an act or omission by the 7 institution of higher education during or in response to COVID-19, the 8 COVID-19 emergency declaration, or the COVID-19 essential business
9 executive order.

10 (3) The alleged act or omission by the institution of higher education was 11 reasonably related to protecting the public health, safety, or welfare in 12 response to the COVID-19 emergency declaration, COVID-19 essential
13 business executive order, or applicable guidance from the Centers for Disease
14 Control and Prevention.

15 (4) The institution of higher education offered remote learning options for 16 enrolled students during the spring academic semester of 2020 that allowed 17 students to complete the semester coursework.

18 (b) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to losses or damages that resulted solely 19 from a breach of an express contractual provision allocating liability in the event of a pandemic
20 event.

21 (c) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to losses or damages caused by an act or 22 omission of the institution of higher education that was in bad faith or malicious.

23 "§ 116-312. Applicability.

24 This Article applies to alleged acts or omissions occurring on or after the issuance of the 25 COVID-19 emergency declaration until June 1, 2020. The provisions of this Article shall be in 26 addition to all other immunities provided by applicable State law.

27 "§ 116-313. Severability.

28 It is a matter of vital State concern affecting the public health, safety, and welfare that 29 institutions of higher education continue to be able to fulfill their educational missions during the 30 COVID-19 pandemic without civil liability for any acts or omissions for which immunity is 31 provided in this Article. This Article shall be liberally construed to effectuate those public
32 purposes. The provisions of this Article are severable. If any part of this Article is declared to be 33 invalid by a court, the invalidity does not affect other parts of this Article that can be given effect
34 without the invalid provision."

35 SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to all actions
36 commenced on or after March 27, 2020.
