1 § 1101(a)(20) may bring an action in the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice
2 seeking such an injunction, and the plaintiff need not allege or prove special damage different 3 from that suffered by the public at large. It is not a defense to such an action that there is an 4 adequate remedy at law. Any injunction entered pursuant to this subsection shall describe the 5 acts enjoined with reference to the violations of this section that have been proved in the action.
6 Actions brought pursuant to this subsection shall be set down for immediate hearing, and 7 subsequent proceedings in such actions shall be accorded priority by the trial and appellate courts.

8 (d) In any action brought pursuant to subsection (c) of this section in which a party
9 successfully obtains injunctive relief, the court may allow that party to recover its reasonable 10 attorneys' fees. The court shall not assess attorneys' fees against the governmental body or 11 governmental unit if the court finds that the governmental body or governmental unit acted in 12 reasonable reliance on a judgment or an order entered in a case to which the governmental unit 13 or governmental body is a party.

14 (e) If the court determines that an action brought pursuant to subsection (c) of this section 15 was filed in bad faith or was frivolous, the court shall assess a reasonable attorney's fee against 16 the person or persons instituting the action and award it to the governmental unit or governmental 17 body as part of the costs."

18 SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to actions filed 19 on or after that date.
