- Both a wage claim and an action to enforce a lien under this section may be brought by the employee individually or by the Commissioner or any representative of the employee on behalf of the employee, including collective bargaining representatives.
- If no lien has been recorded at the time the employee files his or her complaint with the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall record and provide notice of the lien on behalf of the employee.
- Any number of wage claims or wage deficiencies against the same employer may be (d) joined in a single proceeding, but the court may order separate trials or hearings. - (e) An employee's lien upon personal property shall be limited to such property as can be made subject to a security interest under the Commercial Code by the filing of a financing statement.
- In order to enforce a lien under this section upon real property, a claim of lien must (f) be recorded with the county recorder in the county where the property is located, as follows:
 - The claim shall include all of the applicable information set forth under (1) G.S. 44A-12.

The notice shall specify the nature and amount of the claim, describe the property on which the lien is made, and state that the person filing the notice claims a lien on that property.
- The lien may be filed at any time prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations for a wage claim on the same wages pursuant to G.S. 95-25.22(f).
- Mistakes or errors in the claimed amount owed shall not invalidate the lien unless made with the intent to defraud.
- If a lien is recorded pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and an action to recover unpaid wages has been filed, then that action shall also be deemed an action to foreclose upon any property subject to the recorded lien. In the judgment resulting from such an action, the court may order the sale at sheriff's auction or the transfer to the plaintiff of title or possession of any property subject to the lien. Whether or not the court makes such an order as part of the judgment, a writ of sale may be issued for any property subject to the lien at any point after a judgment for unpaid wages is issued.
- If judgment is entered in favor of the employer in an action for unpaid wages or if the case is dismissed with prejudice, the lien shall be extinguished upon expiration of the applicable appeals period if no appeal is filed. If an appeal is filed, the lien shall continue in force until all issues on appeal have been decided.
- If an action to recover the wages is not brought within one year of the filing of the lien, the lien created by this section shall be extinguished.
