Representative Blackwell

1 moves to amend the bill on page 4, lines 30-31, by inserting the following between those lines:
2
3 "SECTION 1.6A. Residential Schools. - To the extent funds are made available, the 4 residential schools authorized by Article 9C of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes shall offer
5 a school extension learning recovery and enrichment program outside of the instructional school
6 calendar to students regularly enrolled in those schools. The program shall provide in-person
7 instruction in core subjects to address learning losses and negative impacts that students have 8 experienced due to COVID-19 during the 2020-2021 school year in a manner best suited to those 9 students' needs. The program shall include a minimum of 150 hours or 30 days of instruction.
10 Each residential school shall develop and submit a plan for its program to the Department of 11 Public Instruction no later than 30 days prior to the final instructional day of the 2020-2021
12 school year."
