moves to amend the bill on page 1, line 7, by rewriting that line to read:

"(a) Pursuant to the process for establishing reasonable qualifications for each class of positions in G.S. 126-4(3), the Office of State Human Resources, under the oversight of the State Human Resources Commission, shall do all of the following:";

and on page 1, lines 11-18, by rewriting those lines to read:

- "(2) Determine when practical experience and training, such as military service, an apprenticeship, directly related on-the-job experience, a certification from a Comprehensive Transition and Postsecondary Education program, or a trade school education, is appropriate to make equivalent to an academic degree in the qualification for a position.
- (3) Identify jobs for which the educational, experiential, and training requirements could be reduced from their present level, as well as jobs for which knowledge, skill, and ability requirements could be made less specific.
- (4) Remove requirements for an academic degree, to the extent practicable, when an academic degree is not necessary for the position.";
