Amends Title [NO]
First Edition

Senator Grafstein moves to amend the bill on page 1, lines 34-35, by inserting the following between the lines:

"(a1) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(a2) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:
(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member’s spouse.
(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member’s spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.
(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist’s spouse.
(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment."

and on page 3, lines 48-49, by inserting the following between the lines:

"(a1) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(a2) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:
(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member’s spouse."
(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.

(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.

(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment.

"(a2) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(a3) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.

(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.

(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.

(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment.

"(a1) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(a2) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.

(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.
(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.

(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment."

and on page 8, lines 14-15, by inserting the following between the lines:

"(b1) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(b2) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.

(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.

(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.

(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment."

and on page 9, lines 47-48, by inserting the following between the lines:

"(b2) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(b3) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.

(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.

(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.
(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment.

and on page 11, lines 19-20, by inserting the following between the lines:

"Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.
(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.
(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.
(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment.";

and on page 11, lines 48-49, by inserting the following between the lines:

"Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.
(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.
(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.
(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment.";
and on page 12, lines 31-32, by inserting the following between the lines:

"(a1) Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate.

(a2) The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

(1) A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse.

(2) A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.

(3) A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.

(4) An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment."

and on page 14, lines 7-22, by rewriting those lines to read:

"d. All at-large positions shall serve four-year terms beginning November 1 of the year of appointment. At-large positions shall be filled by the appointment of persons from the business and professional public at large who have special competence in business management, hospital administration, health care delivery, or medical practice or who otherwise have demonstrated dedication to the improvement of health care in North Carolina, and who are neither members of the Board of Governors, members of the board of trustees of a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina, nor officers or employees of the State. No member may be appointed to more than two full four-year terms in succession, including members serving as of June 30, 2012, succession. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the House of Representatives. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall, to the degree practicable, be proportional to the party representation in the Senate. The General Assembly shall not appoint any of the following individuals:

1. A member of the General Assembly serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse,

2. A member of the Council of State, serving currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that member's spouse. This restriction shall not bar a member of the Council of State from serving in an ex officio capacity.

3. A lobbyist registered with the Secretary of State currently or in the five years prior to appointment, or that lobbyist's spouse.

4. An individual who made a campaign donation to the campaign committee of any individual running for statewide office or for the General Assembly in the two years prior to the appointment.

e. Any vacancy in an unexpired term shall be filled by the appointing authority for the balance of the term remaining after the unexpired term. Vacancies for members appointed by the General Assembly shall be filled as provided in G.S. 120-122."

SIGNED ___________________________________________

Amendment Sponsor

SIGNED ___________________________________________

Committee Chair if Senate Committee Amendment

ADOPTED ____________  FAILED ____________  TABLED ____________