Referred to:
	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO ENACT THE UNIFORM WORKER CLASSIFICATION ACT.
The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
SECTION 1.1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Uniform Worker Classification Act."
SECTION 1.2. Chapter 95 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read
	"Article 24.
	"Uniform Worker Classification Act.
"§ 95-275. Legislative findings; purpose; effect on other laws and policies.
(a) Th	e General Assembly finds that:
(1)	•
	advent of the so-called "gig," "entrepreneurial," or "shari highlighted the uncertainty that currently exists with dete	rmining the correct classification of workers as independent contractors or em	ployees. The proper classification of workers as employees or independer	nt contractors is a complex legal issue that vexes workers and businesses, as	well as lawyers and the courts.
(2)	Not only are the legal standards used to differentiate	e employees from independent contractors generally subjective in nature, l	but those standards differ based on the particular law at issue. As a result, so	me workers may be found to be employees under one law but independent	t contractors under another law, leaving the same person classified as an e	employee for some purposes but as an independent contractor for other purpo	ses.
(3)	It is in the best interests of this State, workers, and busine	esses for there to be certainty regarding the legal status of workers and their a	pplicable rights and obligations. Clarity in a worker's classification allows but	isinesses to comply with applicable laws, provides workers with certainty as t	to their benefits and obligations, and minimizes unnecessary mistakes, litigat	ion, risk, and legal exposure.	_
(4)	It is in the best interests of workers, business, and govern	It is in the best interests of workers, business, and government to have clear, objective, and uniform standards for determining who is an employee and who is an independent contractor.
(5)	(5) The State must ensure that workers who are indeed "employees" are properly
 -	classified as such and will be afforded with the leg	al protections and obligations that apply to such status, and that workers wh	_ meet the standards of being, independent contractors will be entitled to the freedoms that such a relationship provides, all of which will reduce unnecessary and costly litigation and confusion in the workforce marketplace and in the courts.

- (b) The purpose of this Article is to bring clarity, certainty, and uniformity under the laws of this State with regard to differentiating employees from independent contractors in employment and by imposing objective and uniform standards for making that distinction. Consequently, all laws where the application thereof is contingent upon the classification of a worker as being an employee are superseded to the extent necessary by this Article, including, but not limited to, Article 83 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes as it applies to reviewing or determining employee classification for the purposes of workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, employee wages and hours, taxation, or other purposes under the General Statutes." § 95-276. Classification of independent contractors and employees.
- (a) Subject only to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, a person shall be classified as an independent contractor under the laws of this State if any of the following conditions are met:
 - (1) The person signs a written contract with the principal, in substantial compliance with the terms of this subsection, that states the principal's intent to retain the services of the person as an independent contractor and contains acknowledgements that the person understands that the person is:
 - a. Providing services for the principal as an independent contractor;
 - b. Not going to be treated as an employee of the principal;
 - c. Not going to be provided by the principal with either workers' compensation or unemployment compensation benefits;
 - d. Obligated to pay all applicable federal and State income taxes, if any, on any monies earned pursuant to the contractual relationship, and that the principal will not make any tax withholdings from any payments from the principal; and
 - e. Responsible for the majority of supplies and other variable expenses that the person incurs in connection with performing the contracted for services unless the expenses are for travel that is not local, the expenses are reimbursed under an express provision of the contract, or the supplies or expenses reimbursed are commonly reimbursed under industry practice.
 - (2) The person has either filed, intends to file, or is contractually required to file, in regard to the fees earned from the work, an income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service for a business or for earnings from self-employment.
 - (3) The person provides services through a business entity, including, but not limited to, a partnership, limited liability company or corporation, or through a sole proprietorship registered as required under State or local law.
 - With the exception of the exercise of control by the party that engages the worker necessary to ensure the worker's compliance with statutory, regulatory, licensing, permitting, or other similar obligations required by a governmental or regulatory entity, or to protect persons or property, or to protect a franchise brand (such as evaluating a worker's compliance with a franchise brand's standards), the worker has the right to control the manner and means by which the work is to be accomplished, even though he or she may not have control over the final result of the work. This provision is satisfied even though the party that engages the worker provides orientation, information, guidance, or suggestions about products, business, processes,
