(2) Conduct a check through the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS).

(d) It is unlawful for a federally licensed firearm dealer to sell, transfer, or deliver any firearm to any other person if a NICS check reveals that the possession of any firearm by the person would violate state or federal law or if the federally licensed firearm dealer knows or has reason to know that the private person is prohibited from possessing any firearm by state or federal law.

(e) If is a Class F felony for any federally licensed firearm dealer to sell, transfer, or deliver any firearm to any person in violation of this article. It is a Class F felony for any person to provide any materially false information to a federally licensed firearm dealer with the intent to obtain a firearm in violation of state or federal law.
"§ 14-409.51. Background checks required for the sales of firearms- private persons.
(a) It shall be unlawful for a private person to transfer any firearm to any other private person without conducting a background check of that person through a federally licensed firearm dealer as provided by G.S. 14-409.50(c) and the federally licensed firearm dealer verifying that the transfer would not violate state or federal law.
(b) A federally licensed firearm dealer may charge a fee for conducting the background check required by subsection (a) of this section.
(c) For the purposes of this section "Transfer" means assigning, pledging, leasing, loaning, selling, giving away, or otherwise disposing of, but does not include any of the following:
(1) The loan of a firearm for any lawful purpose, for a period of 14 days or less, by the owner of the firearm to a person known personally to the owner, (2) A temporary transfer for any lawful purpose that occurs while in the continuous presence of the owner of the firearm, if the temporary transfer does not exceed 24 hours in duration.
(3) The transfer of a firearm for repair, service, or modification to a licensed gunsmith or other person lawfully engaged in such activities as a regular course of trade or business.
(4) A transfer that occurs by operation of law or because of the death of a person for whom the prospective transferor is an executor or administrator of an estate or a trustee of a trust created in a will.
(d) This section does not apply to transactions in which the private person the firearm being transferred to is a parent, mother-in-law, father-in-law, stepparent, legal guardian, grandparent, child, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, stepchild, grandchild, sibling, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, spouse, or civil union partner of the private person.
(e) Any violation of this section shall be punished as a Class F felony."

SECTION 2.(b) This section becomes effective December 1, 2023, and applies to transfers of firearms that occur on or after that date.".
