SENATE BILL DRS45430-NDa-173

Short Title: Protect Whistleblower LEOs from Retaliation. (Public)

Sponsors: Senators Batch, Grafstein, and Smith (Primary Sponsors).

Referred to:

1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT PROTECTING FROM RETALIATION LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS THAT
3 REPORT THE USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE OR OTHER IMPROPER OR UNLAWFUL
4 ACTIVITY AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS.

5 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

6 SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-401 reads as rewritten:

7 "§ 15A-401. Arrest by law-enforcement officer.

8 ...

9 (d1) Duty to Intervene and Report Excessive Use of Force. – A law enforcement officer,
10 while in the line of duty, who observes another law enforcement officer use force against another
11 person that the observing officer reasonably believes exceeds the amount of force authorized by 12 subsection (d) of this section and who possesses a reasonable opportunity to intervene, shall, if 13 it is safe to do so, attempt to intervene to prevent the use of excessive force. Additionally, the 14 observing officer shall, within a reasonable period of time not to exceed 72 hours thereafter,
15 report what the officer reasonably believes to be an unauthorized use of force to a superior law
16 enforcement officer within the agency of the observing officer, even if the observing officer did
17 not have a reasonable opportunity to intervene. If the head of the law enforcement agency of the 18 observing officer was involved or present during what the observing officer reasonably believes
19 to be unauthorized use of force, the observing officer shall make the report to the highest ranking
20 law enforcement officer of that officer's agency who was not involved in or present during the 21 use of force.

22 Making a knowingly false report under this subsection shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor.

23 (d2) Protection from Retaliation. – The observing officer reporting an alleged
24 unauthorized use of force pursuant to subsection (d1) of this section shall not be terminated,
25 disciplined, or otherwise retaliated against for making that report, provided that nothing in this
26 subsection shall prohibit councils, supervisors, department heads, or other appropriate authorities
27 from taking disciplinary action against the observing officer for conduct that occurred prior to 28 making the report.

29"

30 SECTION 2.(a) Article 1 of Chapter 17C of the General Statutes is amended by
31 adding a new section to read:

32 "§ 17C-17. Duty to intervene and report certain conduct; protection from retaliation.

33 (a) A criminal justice officer, while in the line of duty, that observes any of the following
34 conduct and possesses a reasonable opportunity to intervene shall, if it is safe to do so, attempt 35 to intervene to prevent the continuation of the conduct:

36 (1) Violations of federal, State, city, or county laws, ordinances, or regulations.

- 1 (2) Fraud.
- 2 (3) Misappropriation of State, city, or county resources.
- 3 (4) Activity that poses a substantial danger to public health and safety.
- 4 (5) Gross mismanagement, including the gross waste of public monies or the
- 5 gross abuse of authority.

6 (b) A criminal justice officer that observes conduct the criminal justice officer reasonably
7 believes to be conduct specified in subdivisions (1) through (5) of subsection (a) of this section
8 shall, within a reasonable period of time not to exceed 72 hours after the conduct occurred, report
9 the conduct to an immediate supervisor, department head, or appropriate authority, even if the 10 criminal justice officer did not have a reasonable opportunity to intervene. If the immediate 11 supervisor, department head, or appropriate authority was involved in or present during the 12 observed conduct, the criminal justice officer shall make the report to the highest ranking
13 supervisor, department head, or appropriate authority of the criminal justice officer's agency that 14 was not involved in or present during the conduct.

15 (c) A criminal justice officer that makes a report pursuant to subsection (b) of this section
16 shall not be terminated, disciplined, or otherwise retaliated against for making that report.

17 (d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit agencies, supervisors, department heads, or 18 appropriate authorities from taking disciplinary action against a criminal justice officer for any 19 violation, fraud, misappropriation, gross mismanagement, or other activity specified in 20 subdivisions (1) through (5) of subsection (a) of this section that occurred prior to the criminal
21 justice officer making a report under subsection (b) of this section.

22 (e) Making a knowingly false report under this section shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor."

23 SECTION 2.(b) Article 2 of Chapter 17E of the General Statutes is amended by
24 adding a new section to read:

25 "§ 17E-17. Duty to intervene and report certain conduct; protection from retaliation.

26 (a) A justice officer, while in the line of duty, that observes any of the following conduct
27 and possesses a reasonable opportunity to intervene shall, if it is safe to do so, attempt to intervene
28 to prevent the continuation of the conduct:

- 29 (1) Violations of federal, State, city, or county laws, ordinances, or regulations.
- 30 (2) Fraud.
- 31 (3) Misappropriation of State, city, or county resources.
- 32 (4) Activity that poses a substantial danger to public health and safety.
- 33 (5) Gross mismanagement, including the gross waste of public monies or the
- 34 gross abuse of authority.

35 (b) A justice officer that observes conduct the justice officer reasonably believes to be
36 conduct specified in subdivisions (1) through (5) of subsection (a) of this section shall, within a
37 reasonable period of time not to exceed 72 hours after the conduct occurred, report the conduct
38 to an immediate supervisor, department head, or appropriate authority, even if the justice officer
39 did not have a reasonable opportunity to intervene. If the immediate supervisor, department head,
40 or appropriate authority was involved in or present during the observed conduct, the justice
41 officer shall make the report to the highest ranking supervisor, department head, or appropriate
42 authority of the justice officer's agency that was not involved in or present during the conduct.

43 (c) A justice officer that makes a report pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall 44 not be terminated, disciplined, or otherwise retaliated against for making that report.

45 (d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit agencies, supervisors, department heads, or
46 appropriate authorities from taking disciplinary action against a justice officer for any violation,
47 fraud, misappropriation, gross mismanagement, or other activity specified in subdivisions (1)
48 through (5) of subsection (a) of this section that occurred prior to the justice officer making a
49 report under subsection (b) of this section.

50 (e) Making a knowingly false report under this section shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor."

1 SECTION 3.(a) There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of
2 Justice the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in nonrecurring funds for the 2024-2025 fiscal
3 year to be allocated to the Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission to be
4 used to train criminal justice officers regarding the statutory changes made in this act.

5 SECTION 3.(b) There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of
6 Justice the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in nonrecurring funds for the 2024-2025 fiscal
7 year to be allocated to the Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission to be used to 8 train justice officers regarding the statutory changes made in this act.

9 SECTION 4. This act becomes effective December 1, 2024, and applies to offenses
10 committed and retaliatory actions taken on or after that date.
