15          the respondent may be permitted to remove or retain the child.

16          "§ 50A-418. Provisions and measures to prevent abduction.

31          of this section and measures and conditions, including those in subsections (c), (d), and (e) of 32          this section, that are reasonably calculated to prevent abduction of the child, giving due
33          consideration to the custody and visitation rights of the parties. The court must consider the age
34          of the child, the potential harm to the child from an abduction, the legal and practical difficulties
35          of returning the child to the jurisdiction if abducted, and the reasons for the potential abduction,

5                   to allowing the child to travel to that state.
6           (4)    With regard to the child's passport, one or more of the following:
7                   a.     A direction that the petitioner place the child's name in the United

9                   b.     A requirement that the respondent surrender to the court or the 10                         petitioner's attorney any United States or foreign passport issued in the 12                         and the child.

14                         for a new or replacement passport or visa.

16                   respondent provide all of the following:
17                   a.     To the United States Department of State Office of Children's Issues
18                         and the relevant foreign consulate or embassy, an authenticated copy
19                         of the order detailing passport and travel restrictions for the child.
20                   b.     To the court, both of the following:
21                         1.     Proof that the respondent has provided the information in 22                                 sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.
23                         2.     An acknowledgment in a record from the relevant foreign 24                                 consulate or embassy that no passport application has been
25                                 made, or passport issued, on behalf of the child.
26                   c.     To the petitioner, proof of registration of the order with the United 27                         States Embassy or other United States diplomatic presence in the 28                         destination country and with the Central Authority for the Hague
29                         Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, if 30                         that Convention is in effect between the United States and the 31                         destination country, unless one of the parties objects.
32                   d.     A written waiver under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, with respect
33                         to any document, application, or other information pertaining to the 34                         child authorizing its disclosure to the court and the petitioner.
35           (6)    Upon the petitioner's request, a requirement that the respondent obtain an 36                   order from the relevant foreign country containing terms identical to the 37                   child-custody determination issued in the United States.
38       (d)    In an abduction prevention order, the court may impose conditions on the exercise of 39                   custody or visitation that do one or more of the following:
40                   (1)    Limit visitation or require that visitation with the child by the respondent be 41                         supervised until the court finds that supervision is no longer necessary and 42                         order the respondent to pay the costs of supervision.
43                   (2)    Require the respondent to post a bond or provide other security in an amount
44                         sufficient to serve as a financial deterrent to abduction, the proceeds of which
45                         may be used to pay for the reasonable expenses of recovery of the child,
46                         including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs if there is an abduction.
47                   (3)    Require the respondent to obtain education on the potentially harmful effects
48                         to the child from abduction.
49       (e)    To prevent imminent abduction of a child, a court may do any of the following:
50                   (1)    Issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child under G.S. 50A-419 or
51                         other State law.

1           (2)     Direct the use of law enforcement to take any action reasonably necessary to
2                 locate the child, obtain return of the child, or enforce a custody determination
3                 under this Article or other State law.

4           (3)     Grant any other relief allowed under other State law.

5         (f)     The remedies provided in this Article are cumulative and do not affect the availability
6         of other remedies to prevent abduction.

7         "§ 50A-419. Warrant to take physical custody of child.

8           (a)     If a petition under this Article contains allegations, and the court finds, that there is a
9                 credible risk that the child is imminently likely to be wrongfully removed, the court may issue
10                an ex parte warrant to take physical custody of the child.

11          (b)     The respondent on a petition under subsection (a) of this section must be afforded an
12                 opportunity to be heard at the earliest possible time after the ex parte warrant is executed, but not
13                 later than the next judicial day unless a hearing on that date is impossible. In that event, the court
14                 must hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible.

15          (c)     An ex parte warrant under subsection (a) of this section to take physical custody of a
16                 child must do all of the following:

17                (1)     Recite the facts upon which a determination of a credible risk of imminent
18                        wrongful removal of the child is based.

19                (2)     Direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child
20                        immediately.

21                (3)     State the date and time for the hearing on the petition.

22                (4)     Provide for the safe interim placement of the child pending further order of 23                        the court.

24          (d)     If feasible, before issuing a warrant and before determining the placement of the child
25                 after the warrant is executed, the court may order a search of the relevant databases of the 26                 National Crime Information Center system and similar databases of this State or another state to 27                 determine if either the petitioner or respondent has a history of domestic violence, stalking, or 28                 child abuse or neglect.

29          (e)     The petition and warrant must be served on the respondent when or immediately after 30                 the child is taken into physical custody.

31          (f)     A warrant to take physical custody of a child, issued by this State or another state, is 32                 enforceable throughout this State. If the court finds that a less intrusive remedy will not be 33                 effective, it may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical
34                 custody of the child. If required by exigent circumstances, the court may authorize law
35                 enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

36          (g)     If the court finds, after a hearing, that a petitioner sought an ex parte warrant under
37                 subsection (a) of this section for the purpose of harassment or in bad faith, the court may award
38                 the respondent reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses.

39          (h)     This Article does not affect the availability of relief allowed under other State law.

40         "§ 50A-420. Duration of abduction prevention order.

41                 An abduction prevention order remains in effect until the earliest of the following:

42                        (1)     The time stated in the order.

43                        (2)     The emancipation of the child.

44                        (3)     The child's attaining 18 years of age.

45                        (4)     The time the order is modified, revoked, vacated, or superseded by a court
46                        with jurisdiction under G.S. 50A-201 through G.S. 50A-203.

47         "§ 50A-421. Uniformity of application and construction.

48                 In applying and construing this Article, consideration must be given to the need to promote
49                 uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact the Uniform Child
50                 Abduction Prevention Act.

51         "§ 50A-422. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

1 This Article modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and
2 National Commerce Act, Chapter 96 of Title 15 of the United States Code, but does not modify,
3 limit, or supersede section 101(c) of the act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery
4 of any of the notices described in section 103(b) of the act, 15 U.S.C. § 7003(b)."
