"§ 95-271. Scope of Article; other remedies available.available; severability.

6 This Article does not expand, diminish, alter, or modify any duty of any employer to (a) 7 provide a safe workplace for employees and other persons. This Article does not limit the ability 8 of an employer, employee, or victim to pursue any other civil or criminal remedy provided by 9 law. This Article does not apply in circumstances where an employee or representative of 10 employees is engaged in union organizing, union activity, a labor dispute, or any activity or action 11 protected by the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. § 151, et seq. Nothing in this Article is 12 intended to change the National Labor Relations Act's preemptive regulation of legally protected 13 activities, nor to change the right of the State and its courts to regulate activities not protected by 14 the National Labor Relations Act. 15 (b) Nothing in this Article is intended, or shall be construed, to conflict with, restrict, limit, or infringe upon rights protected by the North Carolina or United States Constitution. 16 17 If any provision of this Article is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be (c) invalid, void, or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the decision shall not affect the validity, enforceability, or applicability of the remaining provisions of this Article, which shall remain in full force and effect as if the provision held invalid, void, or unenforceable had not been

- 21 included."
- SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to acts or omissions occurring on or after that date.
