4	"§ 96A-8. Retaliatory personnel actions prohibited.
5	(a) It shall be unlawful for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain,
6	deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise any right protected under this Chapter.
7	(b) An employer, temporary help company, employment agency, employee organization,
8	or other person shall not take retaliatory personnel action or otherwise discriminate against a
9	person because he or she exercised rights protected under this Chapter. Such rights include, but
10	are not limited to, the right to request, file for, apply for, or use benefits provided for under this
11	Chapter; to take leave from work under this Chapter; communicate to the employer or any other
12	person or entity an intent to file a claim, a complaint with the Division or courts, or an appeal; or
13	has testified or is about to testify or has assisted in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding under
14	this Chapter, at any time, including during the period in which the person receives family and
15	medical leave insurance benefits under this Chapter; inform any person about any employer's
16	alleged violation of this Chapter; and the right to inform any person of his or her rights under this
17	Chapter.
18	(c) It shall be unlawful for an employer's absence control policy to count paid family and
19	medical leave taken under this Chapter as an absence that may lead to or result in discipline,
20	discharge, demotion, suspension, or any other adverse action.
21	(d) Protections of this section shall apply to any person who mistakenly, but in good faith,
22	alleges violations of this Chapter.

25	" § 96A-9. Coordination of benefits.
26	(a) Leave taken with wage replacement under this Chapter that also qualifies as leave
27 28	under the Family and Medical Leave Act shall run concurrently with leave taken under the Family and Medical Leave Act.
28 29	(b) An employer may require that payment made pursuant to this Chapter be made
30	concurrently or otherwise coordinated with payment made or leave allowed under the terms of
31	disability or family care leave under a collective bargaining agreement or employer policy. The
32	employer must give employees written notice of this requirement.
33	(c) This Chapter does not diminish an employer's obligation to comply with any of the
34	following that provide more generous leave:
35	(1) A collective bargaining agreement;
36	(2) An employer policy; or
37	$\underline{(3)}$ Any law.
38	(d) An individual's right to leave under this Chapter may not be diminished by a collective
39	bargaining agreement entered into or renewed, or an employer policy adopted or retained, after
40	the effective date of this Chapter. Any agreement by an individual to waive his or her rights under
41	this Chapter is void as against public policy.
42	" § 96A-10. Notice.
43	(a) Each employer shall provide written notice to each employee upon hiring and
44	annually thereafter. An employer shall also provide written notice to an employee when the
45	employee requests leave under this Chapter or when the employer acquires knowledge that an
46	employee's leave may be for a qualifying reason under G.S. 96A-2. Such notice shall include (i)
47 19	the employee's right to family and medical leave insurance benefits under this Chapter and the
48 40	terms under which it may be used, (ii) the amount of family and medical leave insurance benefits,
49 50	(iii) the procedure for filing a claim for benefits, (iv) the right to job protection and benefits continuation under G.S. 96A-7, (v) that discrimination and retaliatory personnel actions against

4	required by this section in English, Spanish, and any language that is the first language spoken
5	by at least five percent (5%) of the employer's workforce, provided that such notice has been
6	provided by the Division. The Assistant Secretary may adopt regulations to establish additional
7	requirements concerning the means by which employers shall provide such notice.
8	(b) Employees shall provide notice to their employers as soon as practicable of their
9	intention to take leave under this Chapter.
10	" § 96A-11. Enforcement.
11	(a) The Assistant Secretary shall establish a system for appeals in the case of a denial of
12	family and medical leave insurance benefits. In establishing such system, the Assistant Secretary
13	may utilize any and all procedures and appeals mechanisms established under G.S. 96-15.
14	(b) Judicial review of any decision with respect to family and medical leave insurance
15	benefits shall be permitted in a court of competent jurisdiction after a party aggrieved thereby
16	has exhausted all administrative remedies established by the Assistant Secretary.
17	(c) The Assistant Secretary shall implement procedures to ensure confidentiality of all
18	information related to any claims filed or appeals taken to the maximum extent permitted by
19	applicable laws.

21	(a) A covered individual is disqualified from family and medical leave insurance benefits
22	for one year if the individual is determined by the Assistant Secretary to have willfully made a
23	false statement or misrepresentation regarding a material fact or willfully failed to report a
24	material fact to obtain benefits under this Chapter.
25	(b) If family and medical leave insurance benefits are paid erroneously or as a result of
26	willful misrepresentation, or if a claim for family and medical leave insurance benefits is rejected
27	after benefits are paid, the Division may seek repayment of benefits from the recipient. The
28	Assistant Secretary shall exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount
29	of any such payments where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.
30	" § 96A-13. Elective coverage.
31	(a) A self-employed person, including a sole proprietor, partner, or joint venturer, may
32	elect coverage under this Chapter for an initial period of not less than three years. The
33	self-employed person must file a notice of election in writing with the Assistant Secretary, as
34	required by the Division. The election becomes effective on the date of filing the notice. As a
35	condition of election, the self-employed person must agree to supply any information concerning
36	income that the Division deems necessary.
37	(b) A self-employed person who has elected coverage may withdraw from coverage
38	within 30 days after the end of the three-year period of coverage, or at such other times as the
39	Assistant Secretary may prescribe by rule, by filing written notice with the Assistant Secretary,
40	such withdrawal to take effect not sooner than 30 days after filing the notice.
