moves to amend the bill on page 1, line 2, through page 3, line 43, by rewriting the lines to read:

"AN ACT TO AMEND THE NORTH CAROLINA CONSTITUTION TO PROVIDE FOR AN INDEPENDENT REDISTRICTING PROCESS, TO ESTABLISH THE NORTH CAROLINA CITIZENS REDISTRICTING COMMISSION, AND TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES TO THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. INDEPENDENT REDISTRICTING PROCESS

SECTION 1.(a) Section 3 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 3. Senate districts; apportionment of Senators.

The Senators shall be elected from districts. The General Assembly, at the first regular session convening after the return of every decennial census of population taken by order of Congress, shall revise the senate districts and the apportionment of Senators among those districts, subject to the following requirements: Assembly shall establish an independent process to revise the senate districts and the apportionment of Senators among those districts pursuant to Section 25 of this Article.

(1) Each Senator shall represent, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, the number of inhabitants that each Senator represents being determined for this purpose by dividing the population of the district that he represents by the number of Senators apportioned to that district;

(2) Each senate district shall at all times consist of contiguous territory;

(3) No county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district;

(4) When established, the senate districts and the apportionment of Senators shall remain unaltered until the return of another decennial census of population taken by order of Congress."

SECTION 1.(b) Section 5 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 5. Representative districts; apportionment of Representatives.

The Representatives shall be elected from districts. The General Assembly, at the first regular session convening after the return of every decennial census of population taken by order of Congress, shall revise the representative districts and the apportionment of Representatives matter shall be read three times in each house before it becomes law and shall be signed by the presiding officers of both houses."

SECTION 1.(e) The amendments set out in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at the general election in November 2026, which election shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. The question to be used in the voting systems and ballots shall be:

"[] FOR [] AGAINST

A constitutional amendment providing for an independent redistricting process for electoral districts for Congress and the General Assembly. The General Assembly would establish the process but have no role in the revising of districts."

SECTION 1.(f) If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor of the amendments set out in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section, the State Board of Elections shall certify the amendments to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendments so certified among the permanent records of that office. The amendments set out in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section are effective upon certification.

SECTION 1.(g) Chapter 120 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

this subsection, the State Ethics Commission may submit additional eligible applications to the General Assembly, as necessary, to reach a total of 60 applications.

(4) Of the pool of candidates submitted to the General Assembly pursuant to subdivision (3) of this subsection, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the minority leader in the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the minority leader in the House of Representatives may each strike up to six candidates.

(d) Appointment. – The Commission shall be composed of 15 members appointed from the pool of candidates that remains after the leaders of the General Assembly have made their strikes pursuant to subdivision (4) of subsection (c) of this section, as follows:

(1) Two members affiliated in each of the three ways identified in sub-subdivision b. of subdivision (3) of subsection (c) of this section, appointed by the State Ethics Commission, for a total of six members.

(2) Three members affiliated in each of the three ways identified in sub-subdivision b. of subdivision (3) of subsection (c) of this section, by the six members appointed pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, for a total of nine members.

(3) All appointing authorities shall consider the importance of diversity, as defined in sub-subdivision (c)(3)a. of this section, when making their appointments.

(e) Term of Office. – The term of office for members of the Commission shall begin on July 1 of each year ending in zero. The members shall continue in office for 10 years until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(f) Chair. – The position of chair of the Commission shall rotate every three months, following a schedule randomly generated at the beginning of the redistricting cycle. No two members who share the same party affiliation, or lack thereof, shall serve as chair in the same six-month period. No member shall serve as chair more than once in a 12-month period.

(g) Removal from Office. – A member of the Commission may be removed from office, as follows:

(1) By the authority that appointed the member for any of the following:

a. Failure to comply with G.S. 120-4.65.

b. Ineligibility pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(2) By a vote of at least 11 members of the Commission, including at least one commissioner appointed from the same sub-sub-subdivision of sub-subdivision b. of subdivision (3) of subsection (c) of this section, in open session at any duly held meeting, for any cause that renders the member incapable or unfit to discharge the duties of the office, including neglect of duty or gross misconduct. All Commission member votes on removal of a member pursuant to this subdivision shall be recorded in the record.

(h) Vacancies. – Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the Commission shall be filled in the manner prescribed in this section by the authority that made the initial appointment. Vacancies shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(i) Stipend. – Members of the Commission shall receive a stipend of one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) for each month that the Commission meets. Beginning July 1, 2040, and every 10 years thereafter, the Legislative Services Officer shall adjust the monthly stipend amount, as necessary, to ensure that the value of the stipend remains equivalent to the value provided in the previous decade. The Legislative Services Officer shall base this adjustment on the change in the Employment Cost Index (ECI) reported by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics or an equivalent measure of inflation.

(j) Other Expenses. – Members of the Commission may receive travel and subsistence, as follows:

(1) Members who are officials or employees of a State agency or unit of local government, in accordance with G.S. 138-6.

(2) All other members at the rate established in G.S. 138-5.

"§ 120-4.60. Staff.

(a) The Commission shall be administratively housed in the Legislative Services Office of the General Assembly.

(b) The Commission may exercise its prescribed powers independently of the General Assembly and the Legislative Services Officer. In order to pay expenses incidental to implementing its purposes, the Commission may enter into contracts, own property, and accept funds, grants, and gifts from academic and nonprofit entities that have never contributed to political parties, persons holding public office, or candidates for public office.

(c) The Legislative Services Officer shall provide general administrative support to the Commission, including purchasing, payroll, and similar administrative services.

(d) The Commission shall retain independent staff under contract, including an executive secretary and any additional necessary supporting staff. As a whole, the political affiliations of staff members, or lack thereof, shall be divided approximately into thirds among the two political parties with the highest number of affiliates and among persons unaffiliated with a political party. A person is ineligible to serve as a staff member to the Commission if that person would be ineligible to serve as a member of the Commission pursuant to G.S. 120-4.55(b). Staff shall be selected as follows:

(1) If there are at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b., staff shall be selected by a vote of at least nine members composed of at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b.

(2) If there are not at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b., staff shall be selected by a vote of all of the following:

a. At least three members from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b. with more than three members appointed to the Commission.

b. A unanimous vote from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b. with three or fewer members appointed to the Commission.

The Commission shall be subject to the Public Records Act, Chapter 132 of the General Statutes, and the Open Meetings Law, Article 33C of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes, except to the extent those enactments conflict with the below requirements:

- (1) Members of the Commission and staff shall not discuss the business of the Commission outside public meetings.
- (2) If a member of the Commission violates subdivision (1) of this section, he or she shall place in the public records of the Commission (i) any violating written communication and (ii) a written description of any violating oral communication. The written description of an oral communication must include the name of the parties to the communication, the date and approximate time of the communication, and a description of the nature and substance of the communication.
- (3) The Commission shall provide at least 14 days' notice prior to any meeting in which votes will be taken.

"§ 120-4.70. Redistricting criteria.

All plans shall meet the following goals, in order of priority:

- (1) Each identified representative shall represent, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants.
- (2) Compliance with the North Carolina Constitution, State law, the Constitution of the United States, including the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and federal law, to ensure that everyone, including members of minority groups, have an equal opportunity to elect representatives of their choice. A plan shall not diminish or dilute the ability of a member of a minority from electing a candidate of his or her choice, whether alone or in coalition with others.
- (3) In accordance with subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section, the population for a legislative district shall be within five percent (5%) of the ideal population for that district. Congressional districts shall each have a population that is as nearly equal as practicable to the ideal population but in all cases within one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the ideal population for that district.
- (4) All districts shall be contiguous. Areas that meet only at the points of adjoining corners are not contiguous.
- (5) Minimizing the number of split communities of interest with the following communities of interest prioritized above all others and in the following order:
 - a. Municipalities and census designated places.
 - b. Precincts.
 - c. Counties.
- (6) The Commission shall not consider electoral results or political considerations in the preparation of a preliminary, proposed, or alternative plan. In order to ensure that each citizen of the State has substantially equal voting power on the basis of party affiliation, the Commission shall evaluate every proposed and alternative plan after the plan is created to avoid inadvertently diminishing or diluting a voter's opportunity to aggregate with likeminded voters to elect a governing majority based on party affiliation. Before adopting a final plan, the Commission shall revise any plan that it deems to have violated this subdivision to the minimum extent necessary to remedy that violation.

(7) Districts shall not favor or disfavor an incumbent, and the Commission shall not consider member residency in the preparation of a plan.

(8) To the extent practicable, all districts shall be compact. Districts should not bypass nearby communities for more distant communities.

"§ 120-4.75. Adoption of redistricting plans by the Commission.

(a) Duties. – The Commission shall adopt preliminary, proposed, alternative, and final plans, as follows:

(1) If there are at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b., plans shall be adopted by a vote of at least nine members composed of at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b.

(2) If there are not at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b., plans shall be adopted by a vote of all of the following:

a. At least three members from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b. with more than three members appointed to the Commission.

b. A unanimous vote of the members from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b. with three or fewer members appointed to the Commission.

(b) Special Master. – At the beginning of the redistricting cycle, the State Ethics Commission shall submit to the Commission a list of names of persons with an expertise in redistricting who are qualified to serve as a special master. A person is ineligible to serve as a special master if that person would be ineligible to serve as a member of the Commission pursuant to G.S. 120-4.55(b). In the event a plan cannot be adopted pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Commission shall appoint a special master from the list of names provided by the State Ethics Commission, and the special master shall draw a plan and submit the plan, along with the rationale for the plan, to the Commission, which shall adopt that plan. The special master shall be appointed as follows:

(1) If there are at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b., the special master shall be appointed by a vote of at least nine members composed of at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b.

(2) If there are not at least three members appointed to the Commission from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b., the special master shall be appointed by a vote of all of the following:

a. At least three members from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b. with more than three members appointed to the Commission.

b. A unanimous vote of the members from each sub-sub-subdivision of G.S. 120-4.55(c)(3)b. with three or fewer members appointed to the Commission.

(c) Time Line. – The Commission shall adopt all plans no later than October 1 of the year following each federal census. Prior to the adoption of a plan, the Commission shall adhere to the following maximum time line:

(1) Within 30 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall hold at least 10 initial public hearings pursuant to G.S. 120-4.80.

(2) Within 50 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall release to the public preliminary plans for revising the congressional and legislative districts.

(3) Within 70 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall hold at least an additional 10 public hearings pursuant to G.S. 120-4.80.

(4) Within 90 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall release to the public all of the following:

a. Proposed plans for revising the congressional and legislative districts.

b. Alternative plans for revising the congressional and legislative districts.

c. A summary of public input provided pursuant to G.S. 120-4.80.

(5) Within 110 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall vote to adopt final plans from its proposed or alternative plans for revising the congressional and legislative districts.

(6) If the Commission fails to adopt any plan pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection, the Commission shall adhere to the following extended maximum time line:

a. Within 130 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall select from the list of names provided by the State Ethics Commission pursuant to subsection (b) of this section a special master to complete the plan or plans. The Commission shall provide the special master with its proposed and alternative plans and all supporting data.

b. Within 150 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the special master shall prepare and release a plan and a rationale for any changes from the plans released by the Commission. The special master shall present the plan to the Commission.

c. Within 170 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall hold at least 10 public hearings pursuant to G.S. 120-4.80 on the plan or plans presented by the special master.

d. Within 180 days of receipt of data from the Census Bureau, the Commission shall adopt as a final plan the plan presented by the special master.

(7) Notwithstanding subdivisions (1) through (6) of this subsection, the Commission may extend the maximum number of days between any event required in this subsection by as many as seven days, up to a total of 40 days over the course of a year, for good cause.

"§ 120-4.80. Public input.

(a) Public Hearings. – For each redistricting cycle, the Commission shall engage in a minimum of 25 public hearings. At least one public hearing shall occur in each of the metropolitan and micropolitan statistical areas of the State. Of the total public hearings, at least 10 hearings shall occur before a preliminary plan is released to the public, and at least 10 hearings shall occur after a preliminary plan is released to the public but before a proposed or alternative plan is released to the public.

(b) Public Input. – To the extent possible, the Commission shall facilitate the ability of members of the public to provide substantive comments on any plan released to the public. To achieve that goal, the Commission shall provide members of the public with all of the following:

(1) Sufficient time to review any plan released to the public.

(2) The opportunity to communicate comments, questions, and recommendations on any plan released to the public, at a minimum, in person, online, and through the mail. The Commission shall reserve time at the end of every meeting for in-person and virtual public comment.

(3) Access to the same demographic data that is used by the Commission in a machine-readable form.

(4) Access to mapping software and census data in a minimum of 30 public library facilities in the State within 20 days of receipt of that data from the United States Bureau of the Census.

(5) A public, written response to every substantive comment or recommendation regarding a specific component of a plan released to the public. The response shall address the viability of any recommendation and indicate whether it was or will be incorporated in any other plan. A single response may be provided for one or more comments or recommendations on the same topic.

(6) At the conclusion of the redistricting process, the Commission shall publish a written evaluation of each final plan, including at least the following information:

"§ 120-4.85. Local redistricting.

The General Assembly may by law assign to the Commission the duty to prepare district plans for any county, city, town, special district, and other governmental subdivision, if the governing board of the unit or a court of appropriate jurisdiction so requests."

SECTION 1.(h) Notwithstanding G.S. 120-4.55(e), as enacted by this act, for any redistricting that may occur prior to the return of the 2030 federal census, the term of office for members of the North Carolina Citizens Redistricting Commission shall begin on January 1, 2027, and conclude on June 30, 2030.

PART II. CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 120-2.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 120-2.3. Contents of judgments invalidating apportionment or redistricting acts.

Every order or judgment declaring unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, in whole or in part and for any reason, any ~~act of the General Assembly plan~~ that apportions or redistricts State legislative or congressional districts shall find with specificity all facts supporting that declaration, shall state separately and with specificity the court's conclusions of law on that declaration, and shall, with specific reference to those findings of fact and conclusions of law, identify every defect found by the court, both as to the plan as a whole and as to individual districts."

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 120-2.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 120-2.4. Opportunity for General Assembly to remedy defects.

(a) ~~If the General Assembly enacts a plan apportioning or redistricting State legislative or congressional districts, districts becomes effective, in no event may a court impose its own substitute plan unless the court first gives the General Assembly North Carolina Citizens Redistricting Commission a period of time to remedy any defects identified by the court in its findings of fact and conclusions of law. That period of time shall not be less than two weeks, provided, however, that if the General Assembly is scheduled to convene legislative session within 45 days of the date of the court order that period of time shall not be less than two weeks from the convening of that legislative session weeks.~~
