- 1 (25) Process. – Any operation or set of operations performed on personal data,
2 including collection, use, storage, disclosure, analysis, deletion, or 3 modification of personal data.
- 4 (26) Processor. – A person who processes personal data on behalf of a controller.
- 5 (27) Protected health information. – As defined in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.
- 6 (28) Pseudonymous data. – Personal data that cannot be attributed to a specific 7 individual without the use of additional information, if the additional 8 information is (i) kept separately from the consumer's personal data and (ii) 9 subject to appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure that the 10 personal data is not attributable to an identified or identifiable individual.
- 11 (29) Publicly available information. – Information that a person (i) lawfully obtains 12 from a record of a governmental entity, (ii) reasonably believes a consumer or 13 widely distributed media has lawfully made available to the general public, or 14 (iii) if the consumer has not restricted the information to a specific audience, 15 obtains from a person to whom the consumer disclosed the information.
- 16 (30) Right. – A consumer right described in G.S. 75F-4.
- 17 (31) Sale, sell, or sold. – The exchange of personal data for monetary consideration
18 by the controller to a third party. The terms do not include any of the 19 following:
- 20 a. A controller's disclosure of personal data to a processor who processes 21 the personal data on behalf of the controller.
- 22 b. A controller's disclosure of personal data to an affiliate of the 23 controller.
- 24 c. Considering the context in which the consumer provided the personal 25 data to the controller, a controller's disclosure of personal data to a 26 third party if the purpose is consistent with a consumer's reasonable 27 expectations.
- 28 d. The disclosure or transfer of personal data when a consumer directs a 29 controller to disclose the personal data or interact with one or more 30 third parties.
- 31 e. A consumer's disclosure of personal data to a third party for the 32 purpose of providing a product or service requested by the consumer
33 or a parent or legal guardian of a child.
- 34 f. The disclosure of information that the consumer intentionally makes 35 available to the general public via a channel of mass media and does 36 not restrict to a specific audience.
- 37 g. A controller's transfer of personal data to a third party as an asset that 38 is part of a proposed or actual merger, acquisition, or bankruptcy in 39 which the third party assumes control of all or part of the controller's 40 assets.
- 41 (32) Sensitive data. – Personal data that reveals any of the following:
- 42 a. An individual's (i) racial or ethnic origin, (ii) religious beliefs, (iii)
43 sexual orientation, (iv) citizenship or immigration status, or (v)

- 1 information regarding an individual's medical history, mental or 2 physical health condition, or medical treatment or diagnosis by a
3 health care professional. The term does not include personal data that 4 reveals an individual's racial or ethnic origin if the personal data are 5 processed by a video communication service. If the personal data are 6 processed by a person licensed to provide health care under State or 7 federal law, information regarding an individual's medical history,
8 mental or physical health condition, or medical treatment or diagnosis
9 by a health care professional, then the personal data is not sensitive 10 data.
- 11 b. The processing of genetic or biometric data if the processing is for the 12 purpose of identifying a specific individual.
- 13 c. Specific geolocation data.
- 14 (33) Specific geological location. – Information derived from technology,
15 including global positioning system level latitude and longitude coordinates,
16 that directly identifies an individual's specific location, accurate within a
17 radius of 1,750 feet or less. The term does not include (i) the content of a 18 communication or (ii) any data generated by or connected to advanced utility 19 metering infrastructure systems or equipment used by a utility.
- 20 (34) Targeted advertising. – Displaying an advertisement to a consumer where the 21 consumer is selected based upon personal data obtained from the consumer's 22 activities over time and across nonaffiliated websites or online applications to 23 predict the consumer's preferences and interests. The term does not include 24 any advertising:
- 25 a. Based upon a consumer's activities within the controller's website or 26 online application or any affiliated website or online application.
- 27 b. Based on the context of a consumer's current search query or visit to a 28 website or online application.
- 29 c. Directed to a consumer in response to the consumer's request for 30 information, a product, a service, or feedback.
- 31 d. Processing personal data solely to measure or report advertising 32 performance, reach, or frequency.
- 33 (35) Third party. – A person other than the consumer, controller, or processor or 34 an affiliate or contractor of the controller or processor.
- 35 (36) Trade secret. – Information, including a formula, pattern, compilation,
36 program, device, method, technique, or process that (i) derives independent 37 economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to and 38 not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can 39 obtain economic value from the information's disclosure or use and (ii) is the 40 subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain the 41 information's secrecy.

"§ 75F-2. Applicability.

- 1 (8) Information originating from, and intermingled to be indistinguishable with,
2 information under subdivision (7) of this subsection that is maintained by a (i)
3 health care facility or health care provider or (ii) program or a qualified service
4 organization as defined in 42 C.F.R. § 2.11.
5 (9) Information used only for public health activities and purposes as described
6 in 45 C.F.R. § 164.512.
7 (10) An activity:
8 a. Subject to regulation under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15
9 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq., by one of the following:
10 1. A consumer reporting agency, as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 1681a;
11 2. A furnisher of information, as set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2, 12 who provides information for use in a consumer report, as 13 defined in 15 U.S.C. § 1681a; or
14 3. A user of a consumer report, as set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 1681b; 15 and
16 b. Involving the collection, maintenance, disclosure, sale,
17 communication, or use of any personal data bearing on a consumer's
18 credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general
19 reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living.
20 (11) A financial institution or an affiliate of a financial institution governed by, or 21 personal data collected, processed, sold, or disclosed in accordance with Title
22 V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6801 et seq., and related 23 regulations.
24 (12) Personal data collected, processed, sold, or disclosed in accordance with the 25 federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994, 18 U.S.C. § 2721 et seq.
26 (13) Personal data regulated by the federal Family Education Rights and Privacy
27 Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, and related regulations.
28 (14) Personal data collected, processed, sold, or disclosed in accordance with the 29 federal Farm Credit Act of 1971, 12 U.S.C. § 2001 et seq.
30 (15) Data that are processed or maintained:
31 a. In the course of an individual applying to, being employed by, or 32 acting as an agent or independent contractor of a controller, processor, 33 or third party to the extent the collection and use of the data are related 34 to the individual's role;
35 b. As the emergency contact information of an individual described in 36 sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision and used for emergency contact 37 purposes; or
38 c. To administer benefits for another individual relating to an individual 39 described in sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision and used for the 40 purpose of administering the benefits.
41 (16) An individual's processing of personal data for purely personal or household
42 purposes.
43 (17) An air carrier.

1 (c) A controller is in compliance with any obligation to obtain parental consent under this
2 Chapter if the controller complies with the verifiable parental consent mechanisms under the 3 Children's Online Privacy Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6501 et seq., and the act's implementing 4 regulations and exemptions.

5 (d) This Chapter does not require a person to take any action in conflict with the federal 6 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 42 U.S.C. § 1320d et seq., or related
7 regulations.

8 § 75F-3. Preemption; reference to other laws.

9 (a) This Chapter supersedes and preempts any ordinance, resolution, rule, or other 10 regulation adopted by a local political subdivision of the State regarding the processing of 11 personal data by a controller or processor.

12 (b) Any reference to federal law in this Chapter includes any rules or regulations
13 promulgated under the federal law.

14 § 75F-4. Consumer rights; access; deletion; portability; opt out of certain processing.

15 (a) A consumer has the right to:

16 (1) Confirm whether a controller is processing the consumer's personal data and 17 access the consumer's personal data.

18 (2) Delete the consumer's personal data that the consumer provided to the 19 controller.

20 (3) Obtain a copy of the consumer's personal data that the consumer previously
21 provided to the controller, in a format that to the extent technically feasible,
22 that is readily usable and allows the consumer to transmit the data to another 23 controller without impediment where the processing is carried out by 24 automated means.

25 (4) Opt out of the processing of the consumer's personal data for purposes of 26 targeted advertising or the sale of personal data.

27 (b) Nothing in this section requires a person to cause a breach of security system.

28 § 75F-5. Exercising consumer rights.

29 (a) A consumer may exercise a right by submitting a request to a controller, by means
30 prescribed by the controller, specifying the right the consumer intends to exercise.

31 (b) In the case of processing personal data concerning a known child, the parent or legal 32 guardian of the known child shall exercise a right on the child's behalf.

33 (c) In the case of processing personal data concerning a consumer subject to 34 guardianship, the guardian of the consumer shall exercise a right on the consumer's behalf.

35 § 75F-6. Controller's response to requests.

36 (a) Subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, a controller shall comply with a 37 consumer's request under G.S. 75F-5 to exercise a right.

38 (b) Within 45 days after the day on which a controller receives a request to exercise a 39 right, the controller shall take action on the consumer's request and inform the consumer of any 40 action taken on the consumer's request.

41 (c) The controller may extend once the initial 45-day period by an additional 45 days if 42 reasonably necessary due to the complexity of the request or the volume of the requests received
43 by the controller. If a controller extends the initial 45-day period, before the initial 45-day period

1 expires, the controller shall (i) inform the consumer of the extension, including the length of the 2 extension, and (ii) provide the reasons the extension is reasonably necessary.

3 (d) The 45-day period does not apply if the controller reasonably suspects the consumer's
4 request is fraudulent and the controller is not able to authenticate the request before the 45-day
5 period expires.

6 (e) If, in accordance with this section, a controller chooses not to take action on a 7 consumer's request, the controller shall within 45 days after the day on which the controller
8 receives the request inform the consumer of the reasons for not taking action.

9 (f) A controller may not charge a fee for information in response to a request, unless the 10 request is the consumer's second or subsequent request during the same 12-month period.
11 However, a controller may charge a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying 12 with a request or refuse to act on a request if:

13 (1) The request is excessive, repetitive, technically infeasible, or manifestly
14 unfounded;

15 (2) The controller reasonably believes the primary purpose in submitting the 16 request was something other than exercising a right; or

17 (3) The request, individually or as part of an organized effort, harasses, disrupts,
18 or imposes undue burden on the resources of the controller's business.

19 (g) A controller that charges a fee or refuses to act in accordance with this section bears
20 the burden of demonstrating the request satisfied one or more of the criteria described in this 21 section.

22 (h) If a controller is unable to authenticate a consumer request to exercise a right
23 described in G.S. 75F-4 using commercially reasonable efforts, the controller is not required to 24 comply with the request and may request that the consumer provide additional information
25 reasonably necessary to authenticate the request.

26 "§ 75F-7. Responsibilities according to role.

27 (a) A processor shall adhere to the controller's instructions, and taking into account the 28 nature of the processing and information available to the processor, by the appropriate technical 29 and organizational measures, insofar as reasonably practicable, assist the controller in meeting
30 the controller's obligations, including obligations related to the security of processing personal 31 data and notification of a breach of security system.

32 (b) Before a processor performs processing on behalf of a controller, the processor and 33 controller shall enter into a contract that does all of the following:

34 (1) Clearly sets forth instructions for processing personal data, the nature and 35 purpose of the processing, the type of data subject to processing, the duration
36 of the processing, and the parties' rights and obligations.

37 (2) Requires the processor to ensure each person processing personal data is 38 subject to a duty of confidentiality with respect to the personal data.

39 (3) Requires the processor to engage any subcontractor pursuant to a written 40 contract that requires the subcontractor to meet the same obligations as the 41 processor with respect to the personal data.

42 (c) Determining whether a person is acting as a controller or processor with respect to a 43 specific processing of data is a fact-based determination that depends upon the context in which

2 respect to a specific processing of personal data remains a processor.

3 "§ 75F-8. Responsibilities of contractors; transparency; purpose specification and data
4 minimization; consent for secondary use; security; nondiscrimination.

5 (a) A controller shall provide consumers with a reasonably accessible and clear privacy
6 notice that includes all of the following:

7 (1) The categories of personal data processed by the controller.

8 (2) The purposes for which the categories of personal data are processed.

9 (3) How consumers may exercise a right.

10 (4) The categories of personal data that the controller shares with third parties, if 11 any.

12 (5) The categories of third parties, if any, with whom the controller shares
13 personal data.

14 If a controller sells a consumer's personal data to one or more third parties or engages in targeted 15 advertising, the controller shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the consumer the manner
16 in which the consumer may exercise the right to opt out of the sale of the consumer's personal 17 data or processing for targeted advertising.

18 (b) A controller shall establish, implement, and maintain reasonable administrative,
19 technical, and physical data security practices designed to protect the confidentiality and integrity 20 of personal data and reduce reasonably foreseeable risks of harm to consumers relating to the 21 processing of personal data. Considering the controller's business size, scope, and type, a 22 controller shall use data security practices that are appropriate for the volume and nature of the 23 personal data at issue.

24 (c) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, a controller may not process sensitive 25 data collected from a consumer without first presenting the consumer with clear notice and an 26 opportunity to opt out of the processing or, in the case of the processing of personal data
27 concerning a known child, processing the data in accordance with the federal Children's Online
28 Privacy Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6501 et seq., and the act's implementing regulations and 29 exemptions.

30 (d) A controller may not discriminate against a consumer for exercising a right by (i)
31 denying a good or service to the consumer, (ii) charging the consumer a different price or rate 32 for a good or service, or (iii) providing the consumer a different level of quality of a good or 33 service. Nothing in this subsection prohibits a controller from offering a different price, rate,
34 level, quality, or selection of a good or service to a consumer, including offering a good or service
35 for no fee or at a discount, if the consumer has opted out of targeted advertising or the offer is 36 related to the consumer's voluntary participation in a bona fide loyalty, rewards, premium
37 features, discounts, or club card program.

38 (e) A controller is not required to provide a product, service, or functionality to a
39 consumer if the consumer's personal data are, or the processing of the consumer's personal data 40 is, reasonably necessary for the controller to provide the consumer the product, service, or 41 functionality and the consumer does not provide the consumer's personal data to the controller
42 or allow the controller to process the consumer's personal data. Any provision of a contract that 43 purports to waive or limit a consumer's right under this Chapter is void.

1 "§ 75F-9. Processing de-identified data or pseudonymous data.

2 (a) The provisions of this Chapter do not require a controller or processor to do any of 3 the following:

4 (1) Reidentify de-identified data or pseudonymous data.

5 (2) Maintain data in identifiable form or obtain, retain, or access any data or 6 technology for the purpose of allowing the controller or processor to associate 7 a consumer request with personal data.

8 (3) Comply with an authenticated consumer request to exercise a right described 9 in G.S. 75F-4, if the controller:

10 a. Is not reasonably capable of associating the request with the personal 11 data or it would be unreasonably burdensome for the controller to 12 associate the request with the personal data.

13 b. Does not (i) use the personal data to recognize or respond to the 15 personal data with other personal data about the consumer.

16 c. Does not sell or other otherwise disclose the personal data to any third 17 party other than a processor, except as otherwise permitted in this 18 section.

19 (b) The rights described in G.S. 75F-4(a)(1) through (a)(3) do not apply to pseudonymous
20 data if a controller demonstrates that any information necessary to identify a consumer is kept 21 separately and subject to appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure the 22 personal data are not attributed to an identified individual or an identifiable individual.

23 (c) A controller who uses pseudonymous data or de-identified data shall take reasonable 24 steps to ensure the controller complies with any contractual obligations to which the 25 pseudonymous data or de-identified data are subject and promptly addresses any breach of a 26 contractual obligation.

27 "§ 75F-10. Limitations.

28 (a) The requirements described in this Chapter do not restrict a controller's or processor's
29 ability to do any of the following:

30 (1) Comply with a State, federal, or local law, rule, or regulation.

31 (2) Comply with a civil, criminal, or regulatory inquiry, investigation, subpoena,
32 or summons by a federal, State, local, or other governmental entity.

33 (3) Cooperate with a law enforcement agency concerning activity that the 34 controller or processor reasonably and in good faith believes may violate 35 federal, State, or local laws, rules, or regulations.

36 (4) Investigate, establish, exercise, prepare for, or defend a legal claim.

37 (5) Provide a product or service requested by a consumer or a parent or legal 38 guardian of a child.

39 (6) Perform a contract to which the consumer or the parent or legal guardian of a 40 child is a party, including fulfilling the terms of a written warranty or taking 41 steps at the request of the consumer or parent or legal guardian before entering 42 into the contract with the consumer.

- 1 (7) Take immediate steps to protect an interest that is essential for the life or 2 physical safety of the consumer or of another individual.
3 (8) Detect, prevent, protect against, or respond to a security incident, identity
4 theft, fraud, harassment, malicious or deceptive activity, or any illegal activity
5 or investigate, report, or prosecute a person responsible for an action described 6 in this subdivision.
7 (9) Preserve the integrity or security of systems or investigate, report, or prosecute 8 a person responsible for harming or threatening the integrity or security of 9 systems.
10 (10) If the controller discloses the processing in a notice described in G.S. 75F-8,
11 engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific, historical, or statistical research
12 in the public interest that adheres to all other applicable ethics and privacy 13 laws.
14 (11) Assist another person with an obligation described in this subsection.
15 (12) Process personal data to do any of the following:
16 a. Conduct internal analytics or other research to develop, improve, or 17 repair a controller's or processor's product, service, or technology.
18 b. Identify and repair technical errors that impair existing or intended 19 functionality.
20 c. Effectuate a product recall.
21 (13) Process personal data to perform an internal operation that is (i) reasonably 22 aligned with the consumer's expectations based on the consumer's existing 23 relationship with the controller or (ii) otherwise compatible with processing 24 to aid the controller or processor in providing a product or service specifically 25 requested by a consumer or a parent or legal guardian of a child or the 26 performance of a contract to which the consumer or a parent or legal guardian
27 of a child is a party.
28 (14) Retain a consumer's email address to comply with the consumer's request to 29 exercise a right.
30 (b) This Chapter does not apply if a controller's or processor's compliance with this 31 Chapter:
32 (1) Violates an evidentiary privilege under North Carolina law.
33 (2) As part of a privileged communication, prevents a controller or processor from 34 providing personal data concerning a consumer to a person covered by an 35 evidentiary privilege under North Carolina law.
36 (3) Adversely affects the privacy or other rights of any person.
37 (c) A controller or processor is not in violation of this Chapter if:
38 (1) The controller or processor discloses personal data to a third-party controller
39 or processor in compliance with this Chapter.
40 (2) The third party processes the personal data in violation of this Chapter.
41 (3) The disclosing controller or processor did not have actual knowledge of the 42 third party's intent to commit a violation of this Chapter.

1 (d) If a controller processes personal data under an exemption described in subsection (a)
2 of this section, the controller bears the burden of demonstrating that the processing qualifies for 3 the exemption.

4 (e) Nothing in this Chapter requires a controller, processor, third party, or consumer to 5 disclose a trade secret.

6 "§ 75F-11. No private cause of action.

7 A violation of this Chapter does not provide a basis for, nor is a violation of this Chapter
8 subject to, a private right of action under this Chapter or any other law.

9 "§ 75F-12. Enforcement.

10 (a) The Division shall establish and administer a system to receive consumer complaints
11 regarding a controller's or processor's alleged violation of this Chapter.

12 (b) The Division may investigate a consumer complaint to determine whether the 13 controller or processor violated or is violating this Chapter.

14 "§ 75F-13. Enforcement powers of the Attorney General.

15 (a) The Attorney General has the exclusive authority to enforce this Chapter. Upon 16 referral from the Division, the Attorney General may initiate an enforcement action against a 17 controller or processor for a violation of this Chapter.

18 (b) At least 45 days before the day on which the Attorney General initiates an 19 enforcement action against a controller or processor, the Attorney General shall provide the 20 controller or processor with the following:

21 (1) Written notice identifying each provision of this Chapter the Attorney General 22 alleges the controller or processor has violated or is violating.

23 (2) An explanation of the basis for each allegation.

24 (c) The Attorney General may not initiate an action if the controller or processor:

25 (1) Cures the noticed violation within 45 days after the day on which the 26 controller or processor receives the written notice described in subsection (b)
27 of this section.

28 (2) Provides the Attorney General an express written statement that the violation
29 has been cured and no further violation of the cured violation will occur.

30 (d) The Attorney General may initiate an action against a controller or processor who (i)
31 fails to cure a violation after receiving the notice described in subsection (b) of this section or (ii)
32 after curing a noticed violation and providing a written statement in accordance with subsection
33 (b) of this section, continues to violate this Chapter.

34 (e) In an action described in subsection (d) of this section, the Attorney General may 35 recover actual damages to the consumer; and for each violation described in subsection (d) of 36 this section, an amount not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500).

37 (f) All money received from an action under this Chapter shall be deposited into the 38 Consumer Privacy Account established in G.S. 75F-14.

39 (g) If more than one controller or processor are involved in the same processing in 40 violation of this Chapter, the liability for the violation shall be allocated among the controllers or 41 processors in proportion to the comparative fault of each controller or processor.

1 (a) There is created a restricted account known as the "Consumer Privacy Account." The 2 account shall be funded by money received through civil enforcement actions under this Chapter.

3 (b) Upon appropriation by the General Assembly, the account funds may be used by the 4 Attorney General for these purposes:

5 (1) Investigation and administrative costs incurred by the Division in 6 investigating consumer complaints alleging violations of this Chapter.

7 (2) Recovery of costs and attorneys' fees accrued by the Attorney General in 8 enforcing this Chapter.

9 (3) Providing consumer and business education regarding consumer rights under 10 this Chapter and compliance with the provisions of this Chapter for controllers
11 and processors.

12 (c) If the balance in the account exceeds four million dollars ($4,000,000) at the close of 13 any fiscal year, the State Budget Director shall transfer the amount that exceeds four million
14 dollars ($4,000,000) into the General Fund.

15 "§ 75F-15. Attorney General report.

16 (a) The Attorney General and the Division shall compile a report evaluating the liability
17 and enforcement provisions of this Chapter, including the effectiveness of the Attorney General's 18 and the Division's efforts to enforce this Chapter and summarizing the data protected and not 19 protected by this Chapter, including, with reasonable detail, a list of the types of information that 20 are publicly available from State, local, and federal government sources.

21 (b) The Attorney General and the Division may update the report as new information
22 becomes available.

23 (c) The Attorney General and the Division shall submit the report to the Joint Legislative 24 Oversight Commission on Governmental Operations by July 1, 2028."

25 SECTION 5A.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2027."
