No applicants disclosed that they had military training and qualified for licensure.

All other veteran applicants were licensed under provisions other than G.S. § 93B-15.1 because it was easier for them to be licensed under more lenient laws in the practice act.

9d. The number of applicants who are military spouses, the number granted a license, the number denied a license for any reason, and a summary of the reasons for denial. The information provided in accordance with this subdivision shall not disclose any identifying information of any applicant.

No applicants disclosed that they were military spouses.

All applicants were licensed under provisions other than G.S. § 93B-15.1 because it was easier for them to be licensed under more lenient laws in the practice act. Therefore, there were no applicants under the provisions of G.S. § 93B-15.1, and none who were granted or denied under those provisions.

10. The substance of any anticipated request by the occupational licensing board to the General Assembly to amend statutes related to the occupational licensing board

The board plans to request the following changes:

- Amend G.S. § 86B-24(b) to eliminate a six-month grace period for certain civil penalties for barbers who fail to renew their license before it expires;
- Amend G.S. 86B-23 to clarify that the requirements to attend barber school applies to apprentice barbers, not licensed barbers;
- Amend G.S. § 86B-31 to increase the maximum fees collectible by the board, perhaps based on the Consumer Price Index; and
- Eliminate the portion of G.S. § 86B-31 that requires the board to issue free licenses to barbers 70 years or older.

11. The substance of any anticipated change in rules adopted by the occupational licensing board or the substance of any anticipated adoption of new rules by the occupational licensing board

At the time this report was prepared, the board only had specific plans to adopt a rule about temporary licenses for electrologists. However, the board will be undergoing the periodic review process, which may require changes to rules. In addition, rules related to mobile barbershops or electrology apprenticeship programs may be changed in response to feedback from the public about the impact of the regulations.
