Re: Report on Pending Cases Challenging the Constitutionality of a North Carolina Law and Pending Cases Seeking $1,000,000 or more in Damages

Dear Chairs:

In accordance with NC Gen. Stat. §114-2.6, please find the attached reports which include any lawsuit in which the constitutionality of a North Carolina law has been challenged and any case in which plaintiffs seek in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000) in damages.

Please let our team know if you have any questions. Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Eric Wilson
Chief of Staff

CAPE COD CHARTER BOAT ASS'N et al. v. BURGUM et al. (ASMFC)	1:25-cv-01457-TNM	Federal District Court			X	Challenge regarding the State's role (along with 14 other States—all named as defendants) in amending the interstate fishery management plan for Atlantic striped bass.	The plaintiffs allege that the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission erred in amending the Atlantic striped bass fishery management plan. They argue that the amendments resulted in recreational fishing restrictions that negatively affect them. NC and 14 other States are voting members of the Commission. The plaintiffs allege violations of the Anti-Commandeering Doctrine (US Const., amend. X), the Takings Clause (US Const., amends. V & XIV), and the Compact Clause (US Const., art. I, § 10, cl. 3)

COASTAL CONSERVATION ASSOCIATION D/B/A CCA NORTH CAROLINA, ET AL. v. STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA	20 CVS 12925	NC Superior Court			X	Challenge to the state's alleged failure to take action to protect recreational marine fisheries	The plaintiffs contend, under article I, section 38 and article XIV, section 5 of the State Constitution, that the State has failed to take sufficient action to protect fish stocks of certain marine fish species. Their contention does not appear to be that any particular law or rule is unconstitutional, but that the State has unconstitutionally failed to do more than the laws and rules require.

The plaintiff contends that DEQ violated substantive due process rights when it failed to issue a stormwater permit in a timely fashion. DEQ's actions constituted an actual or de facto taking of LDI's property without just compensation, by failing to take appropriate action in issuing/modifying a stormwater permit application. LDI alleges that DEQ's actions did not constitute a legitimate exercise of the State's powers.

NCSU, et al. v. Jacobs Engineering Group, Inc., et al.	24CV013014-910	NC Civil Superior	$1,000,000	X			NCSU contracted with various parties to expand an existing electrical substation on campus. On April 27, 2021, an electrical fault occurred within the substation. Due to Defendants' work for the Project, the equipment did not respond to the electrical fault properly, allowing the fault to be fed for an extended time resulting in damage to the substation. The State Property Fire Insurance Fund ("Fund") paid policy limits to NCSU to design and construct a new substation. Both NCSU and the Fund sued the Defendants to recover the amounts paid by the Fund and to recover any additional amounts required to construct the substation.
