Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Trustees
Wake Forest University:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Wake Forest University (the University) as of June 30, 2010, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the University's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. The prior year summarized comparative information has been derived from the University's 2009 consolidated financial statements and, in our report dated October 8, 2009, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wake Forest University as of June 30, 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 13, 2010, on our consideration of the University's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be considered in assessing the results of our audit.

Our audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information included in the consolidated balance sheet, statement of activities, statement of cash flows, and the accompanying notes related to the College of Arts and Sciences, and Schools of Law, Management, and Divinity (collectively Reynolda Campus); Wake Forest Health Sciences; and the Reynolda House, Inc. is presented for purposes of additional analysis of the consolidated financial statements rather than to present the financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows of the individual entities. Such supplementary information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal and state awards is presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by U.S. Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations, and is not a required part of the basic consolidated financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

(1) Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Description of Wake Forest University

Wake Forest University (the University) is a private, coeducational, not-for-profit institution of higher education and research located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The consolidated financial statements of the University include the College of Arts and Sciences, Schools of Law, Management, and Divinity, and Reynolda House, Inc. (collectively, Reynolda Campus), and Wake Forest University Health Sciences (WFUHS), and all entities over which the University has control, including all of the subsidiaries of WFUHS. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

(b) Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

Net assets, revenues, and gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the University and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets – net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.
- Temporarily restricted net assets – net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that will be met either by actions of the University and/or the passage of time.
- Permanently restricted net assets – net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the University. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the University to use all, or part of, the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulations or by law. Expirations of restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

Income and realized and unrealized gains on investments of permanently restricted net assets are reported as follows:

- As increases in permanently restricted net assets if the terms of the gift require that they be added to the principal of a permanent endowment fund.
- As increases in temporarily restricted net assets until appropriated for expenditure by the University and donor restrictions for their use are met.

The University considers the following items to be nonoperating activities: net appreciation (depreciation) on investments and other assets, investment return net of amounts designated for current operations, actuarial gain (loss) on annuity obligations, unrealized gain (loss) on interest rate swap agreements, postretirement related changes other than net periodic cost, income (loss) from affiliates (equity method), and contribution of affiliates.

(c) Contributions

Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues in the period received. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value. Contributions to be received after one year, net of an allowance for uncollectible contributions receivable, are discounted to their present value at a risk-adjusted rate. Amortization of discounts is recorded as additional contribution revenue in accordance with donor-imposed restrictions, if any, on the contributions. An allowance for uncollectible contributions receivable is provided based upon management’s judgment, considering such factors as prior collection history, type of contribution, relationship with donor, and nature of fund-raising activity.

(d) Deposits with Bond Trustee

Deposits with bond trustee consist of unexpended proceeds of certain bonds payable. These funds are invested in a money rate savings account and are used for construction of certain facilities.

(e) Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include highly liquid investments with original maturities at date of purchase of three months or less and primarily consist of money market funds and accounts.

(f) Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts and clinical receivables, and accounts payable and accruals approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these financial instruments.

The carrying amounts of contributions receivable represent the present value of estimated future cash flows, which approximates fair value.

Annuities payable are recorded at fair value using a single discount rate equivalent to the University’s nonexempt borrowing rate.

A reasonable estimate of the fair value of notes receivable from students under government loan programs cannot be made because such loans are not sellable and can only be assigned to the U.S. government or its designees. The fair value of receivables from students under University loan programs approximates carrying value.

The carrying amounts of notes and bonds payable with variable interest rates approximate their fair value because substantially all of these financial instruments bear interest at rates which approximate current market rates for loans with similar maturities and credit quality.

The fair value of fixed-rate debt maturities is determined using a relative price approach, by discounting future principal and interest payments at the market yield to maturity, and at the market yield to each call date. The fair value of the Series 2009 fixed-rate tax-exempt bonds was $114,087 and $107,769 at June 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

(g) Split-Interest Agreements

The University's split-interest agreements with donors consist primarily of irrevocable charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities for which the University serves as trustee. Assets held in these trusts are stated at fair value and are included in investments or investments in real estate. Contribution revenue is recognized at the dates the trusts are established. The University recognizes the change in value of split-interest agreements according to the fair value of assets that are associated with each trust and recalculates the liability for the present value of annuity obligations. Any change in fair value is recognized in the consolidated statement of activities.

The University is also the beneficiary of certain trusts and other assets held and administered by others. The University's share of these assets is recognized in investments at fair value.

(h) Investments

Investments in readily marketable debt and equity securities are stated at their fair values, which are determined based on quoted market prices. Investments in private equity and absolute return funds are reported at estimated fair value, utilizing their net asset values. Those net asset values are determined by the investment managers and are reviewed and evaluated by the University's Investment Office. These estimated fair values may differ from the values that would have been used had a ready market existed for these investments. Investments in equity method affiliates are accounted for using the equity method.

(i) Investments in Real Estate

Investments in real estate that are considered operating assets of the University are valued at the lower of cost or market. Accordingly, if there is a decline in market value the carrying amount of the investment is reduced to market value. The University records depreciation on rental properties over 40 years. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method. Real estate gifts held for sale are recorded at fair value. Such fair value is primarily based on periodic external appraisals.

(j) Land, Buildings, and Equipment

Land, buildings, and equipment are recorded at cost at date of acquisition or estimated fair market value on the date received for donated items. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of each class or component of depreciable asset. Estimated lives range from 3 to 60 years. Depreciation is not calculated on land and construction in progress.

Gains or losses on the disposal of land, buildings, and equipment are included in the consolidated statement of activities.

(k) Asset Retirement Obligations

The University has asset retirement obligations (AROs) arising from regulatory requirements to perform certain asset retirement activities at the time that certain buildings and equipment are disposed of or renovated. The liability was initially measured at fair value and subsequently is adjusted for accretion expense and changes in the amount or timing of the estimated cash flows. The corresponding asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the related long-lived asset and depreciated over the asset's useful life.

(l) Clinical Services Revenue

WFUHS records clinical services revenue, net of contractual adjustments. WFUHS has agreements with third-party payors that provide for payments to WFUHS at amounts different from its established rates. Payment arrangements include prospectively determined rates per discharge, reimbursed costs, discounted charges, and per diem payments. Clinical services revenue is reported at the estimated net realizable amounts from patients, third-party payors, and others for services rendered, including estimated retroactive adjustments under reimbursement agreements with third-party payors. Retroactive adjustments are accrued on an estimated basis in the period the related services are rendered and adjusted in future periods, as final settlements are determined. The clinical receivables are recorded net of allowances for contractual adjustments and uncollectible accounts of $64,444 and $41,246, respectively, at June 30, 2010.

The healthcare industry is subject to numerous laws and regulations of federal, state, and local governments. These laws and regulations include, but are not necessarily limited to, matters such as licensure, accreditation, government healthcare program participation requirements, reimbursement for patient services, and Medicare and Medicaid fraud and abuse. Recently, government activity has increased with respect to investigations and allegations concerning possible violations of fraud and abuse statutes and regulations by healthcare providers. Violations of these laws and regulations could result in expulsion from government healthcare programs together with the imposition of significant fines and penalties, as well as significant repayments for patient services previously billed. Compliance with these and other laws and regulations can be subject to future government review and interpretation, as well as regulatory actions unknown or unasserted at this time.

(m) Bond Issuance Costs

Costs related to the registration and issuance of bonds are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and are amortized over the life of the bonds on a method that approximates the effective-interest method. Bond issuance costs are included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheet.

(n) Government Grants Refundable

Funds provided by the U.S. government under the Federal Perkins and Health Professions Student Loan Programs are loaned to qualified students and may be reloaned after collections. These funds are ultimately refundable to the government and are reported as liabilities.

(o) Sponsored Grants and Contracts

Revenues under grants and contracts with sponsoring organizations are recognized as expenses as incurred. The revenues include recoveries of direct and indirect costs, which are generally determined as a negotiated or agreed-upon percentage of direct costs with certain exclusions.

(p) Derivative Instruments

The University records all derivative instruments on the consolidated balance sheet at their respective fair values. All changes in fair value are reflected in the consolidated statement of activities.

(q) Postretirement Plans

The University records annual amounts relating to its postretirement plans based on calculations that incorporate various actuarial and other assumptions including discount rates, mortality, assumed rates of return, turnover rates, and healthcare cost trend rates. The University reviews its assumptions on an annual basis and makes modifications to the assumptions based on current rates and trends when it is appropriate to do so. The effect of modifications to those assumptions is recorded in nonoperating activities and amortized to net periodic benefit cost over future periods using the corridor method. The University believes that the assumptions utilized in recording its obligations under its plans are reasonable based on its experience and market conditions. The net periodic benefit costs are recognized as employees render the services necessary to earn the postretirement benefits.

(r) Use of Estimates

The University prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP that requires management to make estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the carrying amount of land, buildings, and equipment, and the valuation of investments, investments in real estate, allowances for receivables, AROs, and obligations related to employee benefits. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(s) Income Taxes

The University is a tax-exempt organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and is generally exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in the consolidated financial statements. Unrelated business income of the University is reported on Form 990-T. The University recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained.

(t) Reclassifications

In certain instances, amounts previously reported in the 2009 consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2010 presentation. Such reclassifications have no effect on total assets, liabilities or net assets as previously reported.

(u) Comparative Financial Information

The consolidated financial statements include certain prior year information for comparative purposes, which does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with GAAP. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the University's consolidated financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2009 from which this information was derived.

(v) Subsequent Events

The University has evaluated events occurring after June 30, 2010 through October 13, 2010, which represents the date the consolidated financial statements were issued and determined that all significant events and disclosures are included in the consolidated financial statements.

(2) Accounts Receivable

The following is an analysis of accounts receivable at June 30, 2010 and 2009:

		2010

(4) Investments

Investments at June 30, 2010 and 2009 consist of the following:

		2010	2009
Short-term investments	$	74,342	47,527
Absolute return		229,712	229,393
Commodities		64,240	52,128

Other		13,066	13,741
Total investments	$	1,143,349	1,071,183

The University invests a substantial portion of assets into a pool on a fair value basis, with each individual fund subscribing to or disposing of units on the basis of the fair value per unit at the beginning of each quarter within which the transaction took place. At June 30, 2010, a total of 19,281,288 units existed in the pool with a fair value of $46.09 per unit. At June 30, 2009, a total of 18,892,577 units existed in the pool with a fair value of $44.38 per unit.

The pooled endowment's four main asset segments are:

> Absolute return – Absolute return investments generally include various hedged strategies, such as long/short, event driven, global macro, and multi-strategy.
>
> Equities – Equity investments generally include both long only and hedged equity investments on a global basis, as well as private equity strategies.
>
> Fixed income – Fixed income investments generally include various long only as well as hedged strategies across the credit quality spectrum, both domestic and international.
> Inflation hedges – These investments generally include real estate and commodity strategies, both public and private.

Each of these asset segments has a target (default) allocation as well as ranges around the target allocation to allow for tactical adjustments to take advantage of market opportunities.

In addition to the pooled endowment, the University also manages other investment portfolios. Generally, these portfolios are invested in mutual funds with daily liquidity. Each portfolio's asset allocation is customized based upon the return and risk objectives and distribution requirements of the portfolio.

(Dollars in thousands)

The components of total investment return as reflected in the accompanying consolidated statement of activities are as follows:

		2010	2009
Operating:
Investment return designated for current operations	$	66,964	65,265
Total operating investment return		66,964	65,265
Nonoperating:

Net appreciation (depreciation) on investments and other assets		62,913	(183,579)
Investment return net of amounts designated for current operations		(25,628)	(25,441)
Temporarily restricted investment return		15,686	(133,523)
Permanently restricted investment return		5,207	(20,088)
Total nonoperating investment return		58,178	(362,631)
Total investment return	$	125,142	(297,366)

Net realized and unrealized appreciation on investments is decreased by $7,671 in investment fees in 2010 and $7,268 in 2009.

(5) Endowment

The University's pooled endowment consists of approximately 1,400 individual funds established for a variety of purposes including both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments. Net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Gift annuities, beneficial interest in perpetual trusts and assets held by others, and contributions receivable are not considered components of the endowment.

Effective March 19, 2009, the State of North Carolina adopted legislation that incorporates the provisions outlined in the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA). The statutory guidelines therein relate to prudent management, investment, and expenditure of donor-restricted endowments held by charitable organizations. The Board of Trustees has interpreted UPMIFA as allowing the University to appropriate for expenditure or accumulate so much of an endowment fund as the University determines is prudent for the uses, benefits, purposes, and duration for which the endowment fund is established, subject to the intent of the donor as expressed in the gift instrument. As a result of this interpretation, the University's policy is to report as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the University in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Board of Trustees considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of the University and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of the University
7. The investment policies of the University

The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that support the objectives of optimizing long-term returns and providing a sustainable level of endowment income distribution to support the University's activities through the annual operating budget while preserving the real (inflation adjusted) purchasing power of the endowment. The University's primary investment objective is to maximize total return within reasonable and prudent levels or risk while maintaining sufficient liquidity to meet disbursement needs.

The portfolio is constructed on a foundation of modern portfolio theory and strategic asset allocation. The University diversifies its investments among various asset classes incorporating multiple strategies and investment advisors to help manage risk. Major investment decisions are approved by the Board's Investment Policy Committee, which oversees the University's investments in accordance with established guidelines. Management and investment decisions are not made in isolation, but in the context of the portfolio of investments as a whole and as part of the overall investment strategy.

The endowment spending rate for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009 was 5.3%, calculated as a percentage of the average of the previous three-year semiannual moving market value per unit.

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the value of the original gift. Deficiencies of this nature are reported in unrestricted net assets as follows: Reynolda Campus and WFUHS, respectively, were $9,157 and $2,794, as of June 30, 2010; and $11,785 and $4,327 as of June 30, 2009.

(6) Fair Values of Assets and Liabilities

Fair value is defined by GAAP as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. GAAP also prioritizes, with the measurement of fair value, the use of market-based information over entity-specific information and establishes a three-level hierarchy for fair value based on the transparency of information used in the valuation of an asset or liability as of the measurement date. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

Assets and liabilities measured and reported at fair value are classified and disclosed within one of the following categories:

> Level 1 – Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets as of the reporting date. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets or liabilities.
>
> Level 2 – Valuations for assets and liabilities are determined through direct or indirect observations other than quoted market prices.
> Level 3 – Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies including discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer or broker traded transactions.

In 2010, the University adopted the provisions of Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-12, Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent) (ASU 2009-12), to certain investments in funds that do not have readily determinable fair values including private investments, hedge funds, real estate, and other funds. ASU 2009-12 allows for the estimation of the fair value of investments in investment companies for which the investment does not have a readily determinable fair value using net asset value per share or its equivalent, as provided by the investment managers. The University reviews and evaluates the values provided by the investment managers and agrees with the valuation methods and assumptions used in determining the net asset values of the alternative investments. Those estimated fair values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for these securities existed.

Most investments classified in Levels 2 and 3 consist of shares or units in investment funds as opposed to direct interests in the University underlying holdings, which may be marketable. Because the net asset value reported by each fund is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value of the University's interest therein, its classification in Level 2 or 3 is based on the University's ability to redeem its interest at or near June 30. If the interest can be redeemed in the near term, the investment is classified as Level 2. The classification of investments in the fair value hierarchy is not necessarily an indication of the risks, liquidity, or degree of difficulty in estimating the fair value of each investment's underlying assets and liabilities.

The following table summarizes the valuation of the University's assets and liabilities by the fair value hierarchy levels as of June 30, 2010 and 2009:

In general, for Level 2 and Level 3 investments, the University utilizes the investment manager of the asset to provide a valuation estimate based on disclosed techniques and processes, which have been reviewed for propriety and consistency with consideration give to type and investment strategy.

(Dollars in thousands)

The following table summarizes the reconciliation of the University's Level 3 assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2010:

		Investments	Annuity obligations
Balance at June 30, 2009	$	611,947	(23,771)
Total realized and unrealized gains or losses:
Included in increase in net assets		40,215	(3,481)
Net purchases, (sales), issuances, and settlements		(11,434)	305
Net transfers out of Level 3		(164,702)	—
Balance at June 30, 2010	$	476,026	(26,947)

Transfers in and out of Level 3 are typically the result of a change in the observability of significant valuation inputs required by various models. At June 30, 2010, the University's ability to redeem investments in the near term at net asset value substantially represents the net transfers out of Level 3.

The University's aggregate unfunded private capital commitments are approximately $83,169 or 7.3% of total investments at June 30, 2010. Of these commitments, $42,747 relates to private equity, $14,306 relates to real estate, $10,138 relates to commodities, and $15,978 relates to fixed income. These commitments are expected to be called over a multiyear time frame. The University believes it has adequate liquidity to meet these obligations. Private investment with the latest stated maturity of 2027 represents 1.2% of total investment assets.

Private investments are generally made through limited partnership agreements where the University is normally one of many limited partners. Under the terms of such agreements, the University is required to provide funding, up to the total amount committed by the University, when capital calls are made by fund managers. These partnerships have a stated maturity date, but can provide for annual extensions for the purpose of disposing remaining portfolio positions and returning capital to investors. Alternatively, the fund may dispose of all portfolio investments and return all capital to investors before the stated maturity date. While the timing and amount of future capital calls and distributions in any particular year are inherently uncertain, the University takes these factors into consideration when allocating to private investments and believes that it has adequate liquidity to meet its obligations.

(Dollars in thousands)

Investment liquidity as of June 30, 2010 is aggregated below based on redemption or sale period:

Daily, with 1 – 5 days notice	$	470,649
Monthly, with 5 – 15 days notice		66,356
Quarterly, with 5 – 95 days notice		179,603
Semi-annually, with 45 – 95 days notice		43,352
Yearly, with 60 – 180 days notice		99,091
Liquidity within 2 years, with 60 – 95 days notice		39,813
Illiquid		244,485
Total as of June 30, 2010	$	1,143,349

Fair market value for LIBOR based interest rate swaps is determined using a relative price approach, by discounting the future expected cash flows at the market discount rate. For the variable leg of a swap, the expected cash flows are based on implied market forward rates for the appropriate underlying index. A credit value adjustment is applied to the total market value of the swap and quantifies the default risk of a counterparty using a default probability assumption based on the counterparty’s credit default swap pricing at June 30, 2010.

Obligations under split-interest agreements reported in annuities payable were discounted at a rate that is equivalent to the University’s nonexempt borrowing rate of 3.02% at June 30, 2010, and 3.76% as of June 30, 2009.

(7) Land, Buildings, and Equipment

Land, buildings, and equipment are summarized as follows at June 30, 2010 and 2009:

The University's policy is to capitalize interest cost incurred on debt during the construction of major projects exceeding one year. Reconciliation of total interest cost to interest expense reported in the consolidated statement of activities for 2010 and 2009 is as follows:

		2010	2009
Interest expense capitalized	$	3,282	1,265
Interest expense included in the consolidated statement of activities		13,571	13,271
Total interest cost	$	16,853	14,536

The following table presents the activity for the AROs included in other liabilities and deferrals in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009:

Reynolda Campus entered into a construction loan financing agreement in fiscal year 2007 with a commercial bank that permits the University to borrow up to $25,000, bearing interest at the London InterBank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 0.65%. The purpose of the loan is to support campus facilities expansion and renovation costs that do not qualify for tax-exempt financing. The loan agreement requires annual reviews on the March 31 anniversary date with interest payable quarterly. The Reynolda Campus intends to renew the agreement in 2011 eliminating the required principal and interest balloon payment at March 31, 2011.

Reynolda Campus has outstanding $59,720 of tax-exempt North Carolina Facilities Finance Agency Revenue Bonds, Series 2004A and Series 2004B. The obligations of the University are evidenced by a Loan Agreement dated December 1, 2004, by and between the University and First Citizens Bank and Trust Company, as trustee. The Series 2004 tax-exempt bonds are due annually through 2020 in varying amounts from $2,960 to $7,340. The interest rate on the bonds is determined weekly, and at the option of the University may be converted to a fixed rate. The University's obligation under the Loan Agreement is an unsecured, unconditional obligation.

The North Carolina Facilities Finance Agency Revenue Bonds, Series 2009, are evidenced by a Loan Agreement dated May 1, 2009, by and between the University and Branch Banking and Trust Company, as trustee. The Series 2009 tax-exempt bonds have final maturities of January 1, 2039 for the serial bonds and January 1, 2038 for the term bonds. The 2009 bonds maturing on January 1, 2038 are subject to mandatory redemption through 2038 in increasing annual amounts of $7,410 to $10,005. Interest is payable each January 1 and July 1. The University's obligation under the Loan Agreement is an unsecured, unconditional obligation.

WFUHS entered into a loan financing agreement in 2008, with a commercial bank that allowed WFUHS to borrow up to $19,000, bearing interest at one month LIBOR plus 0.75%. The loan amount was subsequently increased to $30,000, maturing October 1, 2010. On September 23, 2010, the maturity date was extended to December 15, 2010, with outstanding interest and balloon principal due at that time. Accrued interest is payable monthly.

Wake Forest University Health Sciences Care Facilities Revenue Bonds were issued under a Master Trust Indenture (MTI) structure to redeem a previous bond issue. The bonds were divided into four series, A-D. All MTI bonds are secured by irrevocable, direct-pay letters of credit issued by two banks. As additional security, WFUHS has pledged and granted a security interest in Pledged Assets to the Master Trustee. Pledged assets are defined as all accounts for which WFUHS has right to payment for goods or services sold or leased. The Series 2008 bonds mature in full in fiscal year 2035. The bonds are variable rate demand obligations in which the interest rates reset on a periodic basis as determined by the remarketing agent on each computation date. At the option of WFUHS, the bonds may be converted to various interest rate modes. Subject to certain provisions regarding serialization, the Series 2008 bonds are subject to mandatory redemption through fiscal year 2035 in increasing annual amounts of $3,890 to $12,610.

Certain notes payable and the trust indenture underlying the Series 2008 tax-exempt bonds payable contain certain covenants and restrictions as outlined in the MTI and with the banks holding the letters of credit. At June 30, 2009, WFUHS fell below the required threshold for the debt service coverage pursuant to Section 413 of the MTI dated August 1, 2002. Management engaged a management consultant, as required by the MTI, to recommend corrective action. Under the agreement, WFUHS is considered to be in compliance with the covenants if the recommendations of the management consultant are followed and a minimum coverage ratio is not violated for two consecutive years. At June 30, 2009, WFUHS also fell below the required threshold for debt service coverage under the letter of credit agreements. On July 14, 2009, WFUHS obtained amendments to the letter of credit agreements effective June 30, 2009 with revised covenant requirements. At June 30, 2010, WFUHS was in compliance with such revised requirements.

Aggregate annual maturities of notes and bonds payable for each of the five fiscal years subsequent to June 30, 2010 and thereafter are as follows:

	Reynolda Campus	WFUHS	Total
2011	$ 27,288	31,976	59,264
2012	5,581	16,048	21,629
2013	5,772	6,438	12,210
2014	5,976	5,496	11,472
2015	6,195	5,460	11,655
In total thereafter	144,306	174,497	318,803
	$ 195,118	239,915	435,033

The 2011 maturities include $21,897 and $25,318 for Reynolda Campus and WFUHS, respectively, of notes payable that we intend to renew in 2011 with a maturity date beyond 2011.

(9) Interest Rate Swaps

To manage the fixed/variable mix of its debt portfolio, including hedging exposure to increasing interest expense from variable rate debt, the University utilizes interest rate swap agreements. The University has only limited involvement with derivative instruments and does not use them for trading purposes. The University has entered into four interest rate swap agreements to manage interest cost and risks associated with its variable rate debt portfolios.

Parties to interest rate swap agreements are subject to market risk for changes in interest rates as well as credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the counterparty. To minimize this exposure, the University verifies that the counterparties for these swap transactions are major financial institutions that meet the University's criteria for financial stability and creditworthiness. Additionally, the University is exposed to tax basis risk since a change in tax rate environments will change the level of correlation between the interest rate payments made on the variable rate bonds and the percent of LIBOR payments being received from the counterparties.

The following table summarizes the general terms for each of the University's swap agreements:

	Reynolda Campus		WFUHS
	November 2006 interest rate swap	October 2008 interest rate swap	August 2002 interest rate swap	February 2007 interest rate swap

The University records all interest rate swap agreements in other liabilities and deferrals on the consolidated balance sheet at their respective fair values. The fair value of the interest rate swap agreements is the estimated amount the University would pay to terminate the swap agreements at the reporting date, taking into account current forward interest rates and the current forward creditworthiness of the swap counterparties. All changes in fair value are reflected as a gain or loss in nonoperating activities on the consolidated statement of activities. Periodic net cash settlement amounts with counterparties are accounted for as adjustments to interest expense on the related debt and collateral to support the swaps is included in investments on the consolidated balance sheet.

(11) Functional Expenses

Expenses are reported in the consolidated statement of activities in natural categories. Functional expenses for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009 are categorized as follows:

		2010			2009
		Reynolda Campus	WFUHS	Total	Total
Instruction, departmental research, and clinical services	$	107,733	552,777	660,510	615,097
Sponsored research, training, and other programs		—	176,897	176,897	168,493
Organized activities		1,803	—	1,803	1,745
Academic support		14,488	8,618	23,106	24,715

Total operating expenses	$	291,050	804,196	1,095,246	1,026,025

Functional expenses are reported in categories recommended by the National Association of College and University Business Officers. The expenses are reported in these functional categories after the allocation of plant operation and maintenance expense, depreciation expense, accretion expense, and interest expense. The University’s primary program services are instruction, clinical, sponsored research, and organized activities. Expenses reported as academic support, libraries, student services, institutional support, and auxiliary enterprises are incurred in support of these primary program services.

Plant operation and maintenance expense, depreciation expense, accretion expense, and interest expense are allocated to program and supporting activities based on a percentage allocation and periodic assessment of facilities usage, for Reynolda Campus and WFUHS, respectively.

(12) Contingencies and Other Commitments

The University maintains rental properties and has entered into long-term operating lease agreements for this real estate providing for future rental income as follows:

		Reynolda Campus	WFUHS	Total
Year ending June 30:
2011	$	9,117	2,748	11,865
2012		8,647	2,644	11,291
2013		8,887	579	9,466
2014		9,133	170	9,303
2015		9,407	85	9,492
In total thereafter		—	—	—
	$	45,191	6,226	51,417

Total income from real estate was $9,429 and $8,359 for the Reynolda Campus and $3,524 and $3,806 for WFUHS for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

Grant awards not yet funded and for which services have not yet been performed are not recorded until services have been performed. At June 30, 2010, such grant awards amounted to $9,379 and $271,868 for the Reynolda Campus and WFUHS, respectively.

The estimated cost to complete construction in progress at June 30, 2010 is $36,161 and $23,246 for the Reynolda Campus and WFUHS, respectively.

Expenditures and indirect costs related to federal and state grants and contracts are subject to adjustment based upon review by the granting agencies. The amounts, if any, of expenditures, which may be disallowed by the granting agencies cannot be determined at this time, although management expects they will not have a material effect on the University's consolidated financial statements.

The University is involved in various legal actions occurring in the normal course of activities. While the final outcomes cannot be determined at this time, management is of the opinion that the resolution of these legal actions will not have a material effect on the University's consolidated financial statements.

(13) Sale–Leaseback Agreement

In 2006, WFUHS entered into a sale-leaseback agreement to sell and lease back certain assets. The initial lease term is 20 years with four renewal options of five years each and the lease is classified as an operating lease. Operating lease payments in each year from 2011 to 2015 are $7,223, $7,295, $7,368, $7,441, and $7,516, respectively.

(Dollars in thousands)

(14) Retirement Plans

Substantially all employees of the University are eligible to participate in defined contribution benefit plans. The University contributes a specified percentage of each employee's salary to the plans. Contributions for the year ended June 30, 2010 were $9,204 and $21,943, respectively, for the Reynolda Campus and WFUHS.

The Reynolda Campus and WFUHS have accrued $1,179 and $2,264 at June 30, 2010, respectively, for a liability associated with a defined benefit supplemental executive retirement plan. These liabilities are included in other liabilities and deferrals in the consolidated balance sheet.

(15) Postretirement Benefits

The University sponsors defined benefit postretirement medical and dental plans that cover all of its full-time employees who elect coverage and satisfy the plans' eligibility requirements when they retire. In addition, the Reynolda Campus sponsors a death benefit plan which pays a $2,000 benefit for each retiree. To be eligible, retired employees of the Reynolda Campus must be at least 62 years of age with ten or more years of service or be at least 65 years of age with five or more years of service. Retired employees of WFUHS must satisfy the "Rule of 75," meaning that the employees' age and years of service must equal or exceed 75 at retirement with a minimum age of 60. Employees of Reynolda House, Inc. are not eligible for the plans. The plans are contributory with retiree contributions established based on the University contributions being fixed amounts.

The following table sets forth the plan's benefit obligations, fair value of plan assets, and funded status at June 30, 2010 and 2009:

	2010			2009
	Reynolda Campus	WFUHS	Total	Total
Benefit obligations at June 30	$ (12,538)	(57,179)	(69,717)	(60,157)

(Dollars in thousands)

The following table provides the components of net periodic benefit cost for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009:

		2010			2009
		Reynolda Campus	WFUHS	Total	Total
Service cost	$	599	2,350	2,949	2,594
Interest cost		660	3,034	3,694	3,494
Expected return on plan assets		—	(1,917)	(1,917)	(2,521)
Amortization of prior service cost (credit)		87	(354)	(267)	(194)
Amortization of net actuarial (gain) loss		(39)	1,854	1,815	732
Net periodic benefit cost	$	1,307	4,967	6,274	4,105

The prior service costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the average remaining service period of active participants. Gains in excess of 10% of the greater of the benefit obligation and the market-related value of assets are amortized over the average remaining service period of active participants.

The net loss and prior service credit for the defined postretirement benefits plans that will be amortized from accumulated nonoperating income into net periodic benefit cost over the next fiscal year for the Reynolda Campus and WFUHS are $87 and $1,482, respectively.

The weighted average discount rate used to determine the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation at June 30, 2010 for Reynolda Campus and WFUHS, respectively, was 5.19% and 5.36%, and at June 30, 2009 was 6.25%. The discount rate reflects the current yield curve results as of June 30, 2010 and 2009. For management purposes, a 9.0% and 9.5%, respectively, for 2010 and 2009, annual rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered healthcare benefits was assumed for the first year, and a 4.5% rate was assumed in each year as the ultimate rate. The expected healthcare costs trend for the post-65 assumed an annual rate of 3.5% for 2010 and 2009. The expected return assumed on plan assets for WFUHS is 8% for 2010 and 2009. The rate is reviewed annually and adjusted as appropriate to reflect changes in the expected market performance of the investments.

Plan assets for WFUHS are held in trust and are primarily invested in equity securities that would be considered Level 1 in the fair value hierarchy.

Assumed healthcare cost trend rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the postretirement benefit plan. A 1% change in assumed healthcare cost trend rates would have the following effects:

		1% increase	1% decrease
Effect on total service and interest cost components of net periodic benefit cost	$	145	(119)

(Dollars in thousands)

Aggregate benefits expected to be paid by the University in each of the next five fiscal years subsequent to June 30, 2010 and thereafter are as follows:

		Reynolda Campus	WFUHS	Total
2011	$	511	1,644	2,155
2012		586	1,833	2,419
2013		658	2,163	2,821
2014		719	2,382	3,101
2015		740	2,615	3,355
Five years thereafter		4,841	16,344	21,185
	$	8,055	26,981	35,036

The expected benefits to be paid are based on the same assumptions used to measure the University's benefit obligation at June 30, 2010 and include estimated future employee service.

(16) Related-Party Transactions

WFUHS and the North Carolina Baptist Hospital (NCBH) participate in various expansion projects, share certain facilities and provide various services, and incur certain expenses on behalf of each other. The costs associated with operating and maintaining jointly occupied facilities are ultimately paid by the party having beneficial occupancy.

These transactions are recorded as follows in the consolidated financial statements:

		2010	2009
Revenue from NCBH	$	64,602	64,059
Expenses incurred from NCBH		47,100	56,396
Accounts receivable from NCBH		26,947	2,057
Accounts payable to NCBH		6,780	1,294

NCBH provided reimbursement for services provided or expenses incurred by WFUHS on behalf of NCBH. Such services or expenses include physician salaries, facility expenses, library expenses, printing services, laboratory services, and materials.

WFUHS paid NCBH for reimbursement of services provided or expenses incurred by NCBH on behalf of WFUHS. Such services or expenses include purchased materials, computer services, telephone service, insurance costs, and certain facility expenses.

Effective November 1, 2009, WFUHS and Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center Community Physicians (WFUBMCCP) entered into an agreement under which WFUHS leased certain assets and agreed to provide professional services for WFUBMCCP. For the year ended June 30, 2010, WFUHS incurred $8,543 in lease expense. Future lease payments are variable based on the underlying assets and professional services utilized.

In May 2010, WFUHS entered into an agreement to sell the Hematology Oncology out-patient clinical operation to NCBH. The agreement required WFUHS to sell the physical property as well as the existing drug and supply inventory. The sale resulted in nonoperating gain of $2,130.

The Medical Center, a North Carolina nonprofit corporation formed to act on behalf of WFUHS and NCBH in connection with facilities planning, informational services, fund-raising, and budget formulation and review, is directing the planning and supervision of numerous construction projects as well as the fund-raising campaigns in connection therewith. Construction costs are paid in accordance with the respective occupancy percentages of the facilities. WFUHS and NCBH have negotiated a land and facilities sharing agreement whereby WFUHS and NCBH independently hold title to certain land and facilities, as designated by the agreement.

(17) Acquisition of Subsidiary and Clinical Practice Assets

WFUHS and the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the Hospital), collectively referred to as Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center (WFUBMC or the Medical Center), acquired Davidson Health Care (DHC) and its majority-owned subsidiary organizations on October 1, 2008 for no monetary consideration. The Medical Center acquired DHC to develop a regional healthcare delivery network. The joint venture strengthens DHC by expanding services, updating facilities, and increasing the number of physicians in the community. WFUHS maintains a 36% ownership interest in DHC equating to $8,951 of net assets at the transaction date. The acquisition was recorded as a nonoperating contribution at its estimated fair value.

The Medical Center funded the repayment of DHC’s outstanding debt through the issuance of notes receivable and made financial commitments to improve DHC’s infrastructure and physician recruitment and financial support for the Lexington Memorial Hospital Foundation, Inc., a subsidiary of DHC, over a five-year period. WFUHS’ remaining maximum commitment for the next four years is $10,800. WFUHS has recorded notes receivable of $4,519 as of June 30, 2010 from DHC related to these commitments. The notes bear an interest rate of 4.30% and are payable monthly.

(18) Professional Liability Insurance

WFUHS maintains professional liability coverage on a combined basis with the NCBH, which included a $4,000 per occurrence and a $16,000 annual aggregate self insurance limit for the year ended June 30, 2010. WFUHS estimates its professional liability on an actuarial basis. Accrued professional liability costs, including estimated claims incurred but not reported, amounted to approximately $31,330 at June 30, 2010, and are included in other liabilities and deferrals in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. In the opinion of management, adequate provision has been made for the related risk.

(19) Subsequent Events

Medical Center Integration Agreement

Effective July 1, 2010 the Boards of WFUHS, NCBH, WFUBMC and WFU (collectively the Parties) approved the Medical Center Integration Agreement (the Integration Agreement). The Integration Agreement allows for the leveraging of the combined resources of NCBH and WFUHS to fulfill a single mission, improve health and optimize performance of the combined organizations. NCBH and WFU are the members of WFUBMC. The WFUBMC Board will be composed of seven directors elected by NCBH from among its Board members, seven directors elected by WFU from among the Board members of WFUHS, and two non-voting directors elected by the WFUBMC Board from among the faculty. Subject to the reserved powers of the members, the Medical Center will operate NCBH (including all subsidiaries and affiliates) and WFUHS (including all subsidiaries and affiliates), including day-to-day management, strategic direction, managed care contracting and other business activities conferred on WFUBMC. The Integration Agreement was approved for an indefinite term but it includes termination procedures. Although the entities will be operated to maximize value at the total Medical Center level, revenues, expenses, existing and new assets and debt will continue to be accounted for generally at the NCBH and WFUHS levels. To ensure alignment across the organization, total NCBH and WFUHS unrestricted operating income will be shared equally between the entities. NCBH, WFUHS and WFUBMC plan to form a single obligated group (the Obligated Group) and jointly execute a master trust indenture for all existing and new debt.

Sale of Clinic to NCBH

In October 2010, WFUHS entered into an agreement to sell certain Internal Medicine out-patient clinical operations to NCBH. The agreement requires that WFUHS sell certain physical property and drug and supply inventory. The terms of the sale have not yet been finalized.

See accompanying notes to schedule of expenditures of federal and state awards.

(1) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal and state awards (the schedule) includes all grants, contracts, and similar agreements entered into directly between Wake Forest University (the University) and agencies and departments of the federal and state governments and all subawards to the University by nonfederal organizations pursuant to federal and state grants, contracts, and similar agreements and is presented on the accrual basis of accounting. The information in the schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. Therefore, some amounts presented in the schedule may differ from amounts presented in, or used in the preparation of, the basic financial statements.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies for Federal and State Award Expenditures

Expenditures for certain federal student financial aid programs are recognized as incurred and include the federal share of students' Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant program grants and Federal Work Study program earnings, Pell grants, loan disbursements, and administrative cost allowances, where applicable.

Expenditures for other federal awards of the University's academic and other divisions are determined using the cost accounting principles and procedures set forth in OMB Circular A-21, Cost Principles for Educational Institutions. Under these cost principles, certain expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement.

Expenditures for non–financial aid awards include indirect costs, related primarily to facilities operation and maintenance and general, divisional, and departmental administrative services, which are allocated to direct cost objectives (including federal awards) based on negotiated formulas commonly referred to as facilities and administrative cost rates. Facilities and administrative costs allocated to such awards for the year ended June 30, 2010 were based on predetermined rates negotiated with the University's cognizant federal agency, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Negative balances represent programs with unfunded expenditures prior to normal close-out procedures, which were subsequently transferred to nonfederal cost centers.

Expenditures labeled as ARRA relate to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (Pub. L. No, 111- 5).

(3) Summary of Facilities and Administrative Costs and Administrative Cost Allowances – Governmental Sources

Facilities and administrative cost recoveries and administrative cost allowances for the University's academic and other divisions for the year ended June 30, 2010 are summarized as follows:

Federal:
Research and development	$	38,945,155
Student financial aid		206,470
Other		6,637
State		662,699
	$	39,820,961

(4) Federal Student Financial Aid Loan Programs

The Federal Perkins Loan, Health Professions Student Loan (HPSL), and the Primary Care Loan (PCL) programs are administered directly by the University and balances and transactions relating to these programs are included in the University's basic financial statements. The balances of loans outstanding under the Federal Perkins Loan, HPSL, and PCL programs were $20,759,524, $9,970, and $53,227, respectively, as of June 30, 2010.

The University advanced the following amounts of new loans under the Federal Family Education Loan Program to students of the University during the year ended June 30, 2010:

Federal Family Education Loan Program:
Federal subsidized Stafford loans	$	16,613,704
Federal unsubsidized Stafford loans		23,562,967
Federal PLUS loans		23,863,188
Total	$	64,039,859

The University is responsible only for the performance of certain administrative duties with respect to the Federal Family Education Loan Programs and, accordingly, these loans are not included in its consolidated financial statements. It is not practicable to determine the balance of loans outstanding to students and former students of the University under these programs as of June 30, 2010.

(5) Subrecipients

Of the federal expenditures presented in the schedule, the University provided federal awards to subrecipients as follows:

Federal program		Amount provided to subrecipients
Research and development	$	23,226,880
Other		15,145
	$	23,242,025

(6) Summary of Federal Funds Transfer

During the year ended June 30, 2010, the University transferred $287,500 of Federal Work Study Program funds to the Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant Program.

Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

The Board of Trustees
Wake Forest University:

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Wake Forest University (the University) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2010, and have issued our report thereon dated October 13, 2010. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered the University's internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control over financial reporting.

A deficiency in internal control over financial reporting exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the University's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the University's consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Audit and Compliance Committee of the Board of Trustees, management, and federal and state awarding agencies and pass-through entities, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Report on Compliance with Requirements that Could Have a Direct and Material Effect on Each Major Program and on Internal Control over Compliance in Accordance with OMB Circular A-133

The Board of Trustees
Wake Forest University:

Compliance

We have audited the compliance of Wake Forest University (the University) with the types of compliance requirements described in the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on the University's major federal program for the year ended June 30, 2010. The University's major federal program is identified in the summary of auditors' results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. Compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to its major federal program is the responsibility of the University's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the University's compliance based on our audit.

We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and OMB Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. Those standards and OMB Circular A-133 require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about the University's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit does not provide a legal determination of the University's compliance with those requirements.

In our opinion, the University complied, in all material respects, with the compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on its major federal program for the year ended June 30, 2010.

Internal Control over Compliance

The management of the University is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to federal programs. In planning and performing our audit, we considered the University's internal control over compliance with the requirements that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program to determine the auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on compliance and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with OMB Circular A-133, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in the University's internal control over compliance that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies, or material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Audit and Compliance Committee of the Board of Trustees, management, and federal and state awarding agencies and pass-through entities, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
