Department of Insurance Public Information Office received NOAA funds to create a public awareness campaign for hurricane season, June-Nov 1. Campaign to include online and printed informational materials with contact information for DOI, before and after the storm tips, descriptions of types of coverages and other insurance information relevant to disaster and recovery. FEMA/National Flood Insurance Program officials will offer advice. DOI will aggressively promote the available materials throughout the hurricane season through press conferences, releases, social media outreach, billboards and radio advertising
