

2012 NCThinks

Summary of State Review Committee Activities

Prepared by Office of State Personnel and NCThinks State Coordinator

February 2013

Program Results for the calendar year 2012

- In February 2012, the NCThinks State Review Committee awarded two days leave to Zebria Booker, an employee at the EBT (Electronic Benefits Transfer) Center in Martin County. In May 2012, the NCThinks State Review Committee awarded three days to leave to Jenny Tadie, a former corrections officer at the former Charlotte Correctional Center, who now works as a correctional sergeant at a DPS facility in Goldsboro.
- Program coordinator continues to market NCThinks to agencies and universities. However, participation of employees has continued to decline. Recent suggestions have produced only days of leave awards and not financial awards. Savings generated is not supporting the administrative costs of the program.
